

Gregg Williams LeTourneau

Gregg is a U.S. Navy Veteran and a flight instructor at LeTourneau University where he is enrolled as a senior in the school of Aeronautical Science.

An interest in missionary aviation led him to know and follow Jesus Christ in 2008. Through a school sponsored vision trip, Gregg was introduced to the work that Samaritan's Purse was involved with in South Sudan. Since then he has been focused on merging his passion for aviation with Christ centered service.

Gregg is very excited to share his relationship with Jesus Christ with those at AirVenture where a common bond in aviation opens the door of opportunity.

