

Megan Grupp
Liberty University School of Aeronautics

Megan was born and raised in Kodiak, Alaska. She transferred to Liberty University to study Missionary Aviation during her freshman year of college. Megan graduated this past May as a Commercial Pilot as well as a Flight Instructor for single and multi-engine airplanes. Her plans are to attend Aviation Maintenance Technician School in August and eventually serve the Lord as a missionary pilot/mechanic in the area of His choosing.