

Terry Raymond Bio

Terry Raymond served 10 years as a US Navy pilot and then 28 years as a pilot for Delta Airlines. His last six years at Delta he taught a class in leadership and threat and error management for new captains. He is currently serving as an instructor for the Boeing Company on the 777/787 aircrafts and volunteers for Mission Safety International.

Terry has been a Methodist since birth, his grandfather being a Methodist minister from Bristol, England. He is active in his local congregation, Zoar UMC in Snellville, Georgia. He has taught the junior high Sunday School class for 27 years, sings in the choir, and chairs the Stewardship Committee. He also serves as the North Georgia Conference Secretary for Global Ministries.

For 43 years Terry has been married to Sue, an active United Methodist Woman. They have two daughters, Beth, a forensic psychologist, and Katy, a critical care nurse.

