

Terry Raymond

Terry Raymond served 10 years as a US Navy pilot and then 28 years as a pilot for Delta Airlines. He recently retired after serving as an instructor for the Boeing Company on the 777/787 aircraft. He actively works with several mission aviation programs and serves on the board of directors of the Spokane Training Center and the International Association of Mission Aviation.

Terry is active in his local congregation, Zoar United Methodist Church, in Snellville, Georgia where he teaches junior high Sunday school and serves on various committees. He also serves as the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries for the North Georgia Conference. He and his wife Sue have been married 45 years and have two adult daughters, Elizabeth and Kathleen.