

2021 BCPA Symposium Schedule
All presentations will be held over Zoom, Pacific Time

Friday July 9
3:00-3:50 pm	Ice breaker, social hour
3:50-4:00	Welcome from Perry Poon
4:00-4:20	Sandy McLachlan	Serendipity and the discovery of British Columbia's first K/Pg boundary section; snapshot of a marine phytoplankton turnover and paleoenvironmental change in the North Pacific realm
4:20-4:40	Derek Larson	Fossil turtles from the Late Cretaceous Nanaimo Group of Vancouver Island
4:40-5:00	Stefan Little	Reproductive, vegetative, and developmental traits of an Eocene spice bush from the Princeton chert of British Columbia
5:00-5:10	Break
5:10-5:30	Bruce Archibald	The Cephalozygoptera, a new suborder of Odonata
5:30-5:50	Laura Termes	Perusing presumed pachyderms: looking for BC's youngest mammoth and other oddities
5:50-6:10	Ruth Stockey	Fossil aroid spadices from British Columbia and Alberta
6:10-6:30	Break
6:30-7:30	Keynote: Victoria Arbour	Dinosaurs of the Sustut Basin

Saturday July 10
9:00-10:00 am	Keynote: Karma Nanglu	Our changing view of the Burgess Shale: new discoveries from species to ecosystems
10:00-10:20	Break
10:20-10:40	Guy Santucci	Fossils of the East Kootenays and Recent Research
10:40-11:00	Gar Rothwell	Mesozoic seed plant diversity; another Lower Cretaceous contribution from Apple Bay, Vancouver Island
11:00-11:20	Jim Haggart	Hitchin' a Ride - a Tale of a Well-Traveled Buchia
11:20-11:30	Break
11:30-11:50	Torrey Nyborg	Fossil decapod crustaceans from Vancouver Island and Haida Gwaii, British Columbia, Canada: new taxa and ongoing research
11:50-12:10	Alex Bippus	An exceptionally diverse permineralized bryophyte flora from the Late Cretaceous of Vancouver Island
12:10-12:30	Brennan Martens	My History With The Vancouver Paleontological Society
12:30-12:35	Perry Poon closing statements, field trip info

Field Trips:

Saturday July 10:

1:30pm: Kitsilano Beach, Vancouver (in-person)

1:30pm: Virtual Tour of the Pacific Museum of Earth gallery and collections: Life Through Time, Earth's Treasures, and Natural Disasters

Sunday July 11- Monday July 12:

Princeton and Ashcroft (in-person)