Charlestown, Nevis, Thursday 18th December 2025 - The Nevis Division of the St. Kitts-Nevis Chamber of Industry & Commerce (SKNCIC) successfully hosted its year-end ‘Mix & Jingle’ Networking Event on Friday, 5 December 2025, at its new office at the JJB Annex on Government Road in Charlestown. The event brought together over 70 participants, including business owners from Nevis and St. Kitts, Chamber members, and several entrepreneurs exploring membership.

The event commenced with remarks from the Chairman of the Nevis Division and the Executive Director who informed the participants of the notable achievements for the Nevis Division. Of mention was the performance of the Division at the 2025 Business Excellence Awards held at Spicemill Restaurant in St. Kitts. The Nevis Division had an impressive presence in the competition across all categories. Nevis’ Mr. Steve Tyson, the CEO of Nelson’s Spring Water received two major awards—Service Excellence and Chamber Champion whilst Shobaina Prince, CEO of Native Radiance received the Sustainability Award—highlighting the strength and dynamism of the Nevis business community. This concluded a transformative year that witnessed the strategic repositioning of the Division to its new office and the expansion of the Secretariat team.
