Director Mr. Mark Wilkin and his team Shines at the "Men In Aprons Food Festival and Cook-Off"

Director Mr. Mark Wilkin, Chairman of the Manufacturing Division of the St. Kitts Nevis Chamber of Industry and Commerce. On Saturday, 23rd September, demonstrated his culinary finesse as he led Carib Brewery, a formidable team of four at the "Men In Aprons Food Festival and Cook-Off."

The competition was fierce, with each team vying to create the most delectable dishes and impress the discerning judges. The judges included Hon. Mark Brantley, Stacey Hobson, Junie Liburd, Okeeffe Marshall, and DJ Sparry. The other teams included the Federal Cabinet, Real Right, Small Business, ASAP Group, Rotary, the People's Action Movement (P.A.M), and the Royal St. Christopher and Nevis Police Force.

Under Director Wilkin's leadership, the team delivered an exceptional performance that secured them a well-deserved second place with an impressive 205 points. Director Wilkin, Managing Director of Carib Brewery, the team included Andre Amritt, Sales & Marketing Manager, Micaiah Sukhu, Operations Manager (Nevis), and Kevin Wilkinson, Brewer. First place was captured by the Royal St. Christopher and Nevis Police Force with 214 points, and third place by ASAP Group with 203.5 points. Mr. Wilkin's achievements in this competition reflect the same drive and determination that he brings to his professional life, making him a true asset to our organization.

We would also like to extend our heartfelt congratulations to all the participants of the "Men In Aprons Food Festival and Cook-Off." Your culinary talents and competitive spirit have truly enriched this event, showcasing the diverse skills and talents within our community.

As we celebrate Director Mark Wilkin and his team's remarkable achievement, let us also applaud the collective dedication and passion that make events like these a testament to the vibrant and dynamic community we are proud to be a part of.

Once again, congratulations to Director Mark Wilkin and his team along with all the participants for a spectacular display of culinary expertise and community spirit. We look forward to many more moments of achievement and camaraderie within our Chamber family.
