FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
American Classic Agency Places Over $1 Billion in Life Insurance Protection in 2022

January 10, 2023 - (Lanham, Maryland) – Anthony Stewart, President (American Classic Agency) announced today – the achievement of their 2022 goal to create $1 Billion in tax free transferable wealth to close the financial wealth gap in the markets they serve.

As President Stewart stated, “Our goal was to touch the lives of individuals, families and businesses, especially in diverse communities across the country to show them the importance of purchasing at least $250,000 of life insurance, as a building block to establishing peace of mind and a foundation for their financial futures.”

Under the leadership of President Anthony Stewart, the American Classic agents successfully sold over $1,000,000,000 in life insurance protection in 2022. By leveraging the features and benefits of life insurance, they helped create sustainable income protection and transferable wealth strategies that can be used to fund college educations, start businesses, entrepreneurial endeavors, and home ownership. All of which are cornerstones to building tax free transferable wealth.

“The long-term effects of this amount of coverage for the clients we serve, will help close the financial wealth gap and change their financial trajectory for generations to come,” says President Stewart.

Growing Our Reach

American Classic Agency will continue its agent driven efforts to grow their collective economic empowerment initiative. Additionally, their agents are committed to making a difference in the lives of their clients through products and services that include whole life insurance, universal life insurance, term life insurance, income protection plans, debt elimination plans, and legacy creation strategies.

According to President Stewart, “We are seeking both full-time and part-time agents to join us in this effort to make a difference, while operating in the spirit of being a give first, servant leadership organization. We are a company that cares”

American Classic Agency is a diverse and inclusive 27-year-old financial services company. Currently headquartered in Jacksonville, Florida. President Stewart also announced plans to relocate their home office to Lanham, Maryland in early 2023.
