

The DAY1DADS Impact Foundation is hosting its 4th annual Hey Dad Charity Golf Tournament on June 13, 2023 at the Silver Springs Golf & Country Club. A key fundraiser supporting fathers and families in need.

The tournament aims to make a real difference by directing sponsor support towards funding Woods Homes, an organization providing housing and support services to families and children facing homelessness or crises.

The event offers sponsors a unique opportunity to contribute to a great cause while enjoying networking prospects with like-minded individuals and businesses in the community.

To enhance brand visibility, sponsors receive recognition in event materials, and the exclusive opportunity to share activations or offerings most aligned with their brand with this engaged and well-connected audience.

The impact of sponsorship extends beyond the event, emphasizing a commitment to social responsibility and leaving a lasting positive impression on families in need.
