A. CURRENT PROJECTS THAT MUST BE COMPLETED IN LESS THAN SIX MONTHS

Race Relations in the South, 1959. The Forty-sixth Annual Report to the American People on Developments in Race Relations

This project on which we are now working involves preparing a report on previously decided indices from which the President will base his annual release to the nation.

An appropriation of $750 supports this project.

Persons involved: Jessie P. Guzman, Woodrow W. Hall, Irene J. McCoy. Dr. Lewis W. Jones collaborates and assists with the final draft.

B. CURRENT PROJECTS THAT IT IS POSSIBLE TO COMPLETE WITHIN SIX MONTHS OR LESS IF FULL TIME COULD BE DEVOTED TO THEM

1. Desegregation and the Southern States, 1958--Legal Action and Voluntary Group Action

This is the basic material on which the Tuskegee Institute Race Relations Report for 1958 was based. The main developments in Negro-white relations for the year are made available.

The approximate cost of publishing 500 copies is $500. Appropriation has been made available in current budget.

Persons involved: Jessie P. Guzman and Woodrow W. Hall.

2. George Washington Carver--Correspondence with "Home Folks"

This nearly completed publication is the first in a series. The aim of these letters is to reveal the intimate relationship existing over the years between a humble and unlettered farmer and members of his family and his former slave, who became a famous scientist. Included also are letters exchanged with other "home folks" in and around Diamond Grove, Mo.

Of $300 appropriated by the Dean of Research, $167 has been expended to date.

Person involved: Jessie P. Guzman

3. Twenty-Years of Court Decisions Affecting Higher Education in the South, 1938-1958

This project grew out of a request to write an article for the Journal of Educational Sociology, subsequently condensed and published in Vol. XXII, No. 6, for February, 1959. The final draft of this forty-page manuscript has to be prepared. It reviews efforts by Negroes to gain entry into public institutions of higher learning in the South.

Estimated cost of printing 100 copies, $150.

Person involved: Jessie P. Guzman

4. Tuskegee Gerrymander Protest: A Bibliography Chronologically Arranged, 1957-1959

The objective is to provide a day-by-day record of events connected with the gerrymandering of Negro citizens outside the city limits of Tuskegee, Alabama. The first draft has been completed.

A mimeographed pamphlet of 60 pages, with printed and bound cover is estimated to cost $100.

Means of support: No special fund appropriated

Person involved: Woodrow W. Hall.

C. CURRENT PROJECTS OF LONG-TIME RANGE

1. A Chronology of Significant Events in the History of Tuskegee Institute

This project provides an authentic record of important developments in the history of the institution from its beginning to the present time. It was begun in 1952, but due to lack of personnel, no further work has been done since that time.

Means of support: Regular budget; no special funds appropriated.

Person involved: Woodrow W. Hall.

2. Booker T. Washington and Tuskegee Institute: A Bibliography

The aim is to provide an exhaustive bibliography of the literature written by and about Booker T. Washington and concerning Tuskegee Institute to meet the needs of scholars and libraries.

Means of support: Regular budget; no special funds appropriated.

Person involved: Jessie P. Guzman

These two projects, like most of the others, were initiated as a result of requests made to the Department of Records and Research for information. Work can be resumed when time and personnel are available.

July 14, 1959

Dear Colleagues:

I am most anxious to have up-to-date information on research currently being done by each member of the Tuskegee Institute faculty. I would appreciate your kindness in supplying, at your earliest convenience, the following information regarding research that you are doing either independently or in association with other members of the faculty. I would be interested, also, in research being done by you in association with persons at other institutions.

1. Give a brief title of your research project for the purpose of identification.
2. State succinctly the nature of your research, including the aims which you are attempting to achieve.
3. If your research is being supported by an outside agency, please give the name of the sponsor and the amount of funds available from this source for the current fiscal year (June 1, 1959 through May 31, 1960). If you do not have outside financial support for your research, please indicate how your work is being supported and the approximate cost that will be involved during the fiscal year.
4. If you have assistance or collaboration from other members of the faculty and staff, please list the persons involved.

It is important that the information requested above be confined to research projects that are actually in progress. However, if you are presently engaged in research, please state this fact. Also, if you are in the process of formulating a research project, please describe briefly the nature of the work you propose to do, including the source from which you intend to seek support.

Kindly use the reverse side of this sheet and the attached sheet for supplying the information requested. Your prompt attention to this request will be greatly appreciated.
