FARM TOUR WORKBOOK

WELCOME & OVERVIEW

Welcome to Agape Farms!! We are so thrilled to welcome you to our favorite place on earth: this silly little 15 acres in the Sam Houston National Forest.

Please make sure your family has signed and returned to us the Liability Waiver prior to your visit.

If you have any questions or concerns during your visit, please feel free to call or text Brandi at (832) 289-6357 or Brian at (832) 823-8941. Although you may see our farmhand, Will, onsite or various other people at this working farm, everyone has been instructed to keep their distance during this time. But feel free to wave and say hi!

This packet should give you some fun activities to complete during or after your adventure on the farm. Inside you can find the definitions for some of the words in the animal facts section of the Leader Book highlighted in red, coloring pages, an Agape Farms Mad Lib, How To Draw Farm Animals worksheet, along with several other fun handouts.

Please make sure you read (or have been read) and fully understand the Rules & Restrictions located on the opposite side of this page. Our biggest concern is your safety and the well-being of our animals and we kindly ask that you please abide by our rules at all times during your visit. Following the rules will allow us to continue offering these tours so other families will have the chance to enjoy them. Thank you in advance!

There is nothing that makes us happier than watching people enjoying our friends (the animals) as much as we do and we know they enjoy it too!! It's our privilege to welcome you to our home: Agape Farms.

RULES & RESTRICTIONS

Treat every animal as if it is a wild animal even if it acts or seems domesticated. This means, always use caution when approaching or petting animals.

Be watchful for snakes; they like to hide in brush, leaf piles and under objects. They are more active in warmer weather as they emerge from winter hibernation. Snakes will move away if they hear you coming and only harm people if they feel threatened. Simply be mindful where you step and where you put your hands.

Animals get spooked easily by loud noises and fast movements. You can speak normally but screaming and jumping will stop them from coming near you. Stay calm and don't yell when interacting the with animals.

Do not stick your fingers in the animal's mouths. Their bite could be painful even if they didn't mean to bite you. All of the Agape Farms animals are gentle by nature, but you always want to use caution when feeding animals.

Do not overfeed the animals. Please follow our guidelines for how much food can be given to each animal.

Keep your hand open and palm out when feeding an animal from your hand, so your fingers don't get nipped.

Pick up and throw away your trash and leave the farm looking exactly the way it was when you arrived.

Only 4 people allowed in the Crow's Nest at a time. DO NOT go beyond the railing. Use extreme caution when going up and down the ladder.

Close all gates and doors behind you each time you go in or out of any structure on the farm.

Please do not enter the sheds, back porch, garage, trailer or farmhouse. These are private residences.

DO NOT UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCE ENTER, OPEN OR STEP INTO ANY OF THE ANIMAL ENCLOSURES, CAGES, PENS OR PADDOCKS.

ABSOLUTELY NO PICKING UP ANIMALS.

ABSOLUTELY NO CHASING ANIMALS.

ENJOY THIS BEAUTIFUL DAY TOGETHER!!

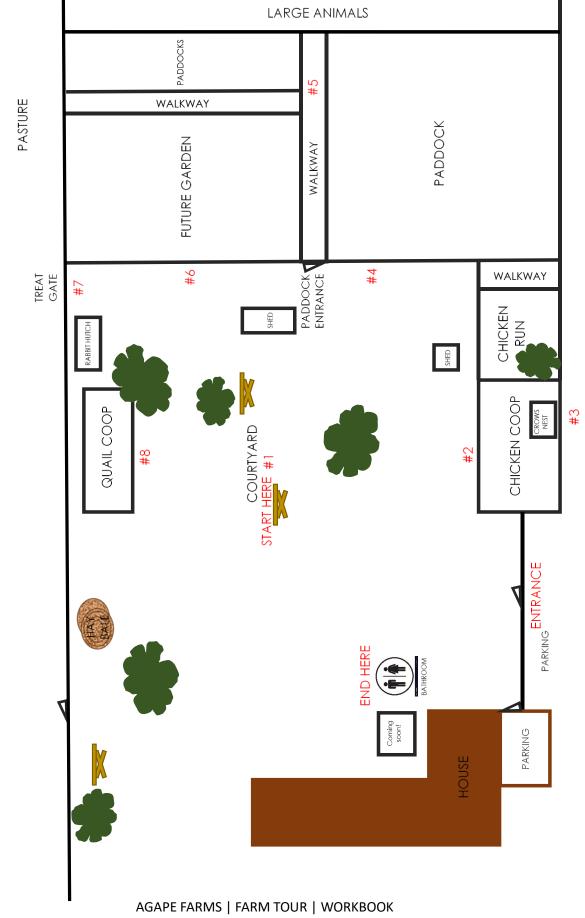

ABOUT US

Agape Farms was founded in 2018 and is located in the Sam Houston National Forest. You are sitting in 163,037 acres of protected forest land, only one of four national forests that are located in this great state of Texas.

Agape Farms is a small homestead that is home to many animals, some of which are native, some are exotic, and others are imported, or originate from other areas in the world. It is a working farm that lovingly raises animals for their food potential. Most of the animals are pets, all of them are treated as pets, but some will eventually be harvested for meat. Agape Farms only harvests when needed, in the quickest and least stressful way possible, utilizing as much of the animal as possible. Every life on this farm matters.

Today, Agape Farms is owned, managed and operated by The Chrisenberry Family: Brian, Brandi, Canon (10), Tassin (6), and baby Rowan (almost 2). The kids, along with the adults, help with daily farm chores. Some of the daily chores we have on the farm that you will get to help with today are (items marked with * are available for you to "help with" if you would like to):

- Making sure all the animals have water
- Gathering eggs each day from the coop
- Making sure there is hay in the pasture
- Checking that each animal is healthy and safe
- Administering medicines and cleaning wounds when necessary
- Cleaning animal pens
- Harvesting and cleaning animals, when necessary (Yes, even the kids help with this!)
- Giving the horses, donkeys and cows treats*
- Throwing scratch to the chickens & turkey*
- Feeding the emus*
- Giving Jenny the Goat some head scratches*
- Putting feed in the sheep trough*

Phoebe	Maltese/Shihtzu Dog	Tiny tan, yappy, tough little farm dog

*We are the recipient of lots of unwanted animals here in the forest. People drop them off regularly and they find their way to the various farms around the area. Some of the animals you may see here are not ours and not under our care, but we usually feed them and make sure they have a safe place to stay and live.

ABOUT TWO TABLES

FOOD FOR THOUGHT. THOUGHTFUL FOOD.

Families struggle to eat fresh, eat healthy, eat local and simply eat together. We want to bridge the gap between farmers, businesses, communities, cultures, and families. From the wealthiest family to the one struggling to put food on the table, we want to bring them together and create a food revolution.

We are an organization that is made up of farmers, homesteaders, foodies, lovers of: animals, people, Christ and community. We partner with other local businesses to provide nutrient dense, locally sourced fresh meats and produce to families in all walks of life. For every share purchased, proceeds go towards creating a similar share for families going through hardships.

To find out about our Monthly Market Shares visit the website www.twotables.org and like us on Facebook & Instagram.
