

A Strawberry, is a Strawberry, is a Strawberry

Unless it's a strawberry going into your products. Headed for your customers.

Then, it has to be something special.

At Alex Fries Inc., we understand that.

In business since 1854, we have built our reputation, our business and our customers' success on attention to detail, customized service and on making your specific flavor needs a reality.

At Alex Fries, we know that the key to a successful creation lies in no single element and with no one person. Like the products we develop, our company is an artful, dedicated blending of three key ingredients:

Technology. From our proprietary ingredient capabilities to our manufacturing processes and new facilities, we employ the very latest in technology and always will. It's part of who we are.

Creativity. We have some of the industry's best minds working for us. But beyond brilliant, they are creative. It's an unparalleled blend that continues to bring spectacular solutions to complex problems.

Customer Service. We see each project as a personal challenge. And each client as a partner. Every product that leaves our facility is a reflection of the Alex Fries name and our client's trust.

By melding these three ingredients, we bring technology into focus, creating that special flavor that crowns your product like no other.
