Sally Jane

From singing for the legendary Joy McKean and Kasey Chambers, to opening the 2020 Tamworth Country Music Festival, Sally Jane is quickly ticking off her bucket list, and that was just part of 2020!

The West Australian singer-songwriter-guitarist won the People's Choice category at the Western Australian Country Music Awards, opened for Adam Brand, Kasey, and Fanny Lumsden, performed with Adam Harvey and won Junior Vocalist of the Year at the WA Country Music Awards.

Sally began performing at the pub in Serpentine when she was 15 before attending The Academy junior school, an intensive music course run in Tamworth.

Since then, Sally has also graduated from the senior academy, in January 2020.

The Serpentine, WA, artist released her latest single, Kiss you When the Rain Comes, in December 2021, charting at #1 on the top 10 AMRAP Regional Chart and Sally Jane will release her debut EP in 2022.

Sally Jane's ultimate goal is to be a successful full-time country artist.

Her hard work is paying off and she's getting noticed by established companies, with Sally Jane an ambassador for brands including Takamine Guitars, Thomas Cook Clothing Co., Wrangler Western, and Audio-Technica and the most recent addition to the amazing Western Australian organisations, Spinifex Brewing Co.
