Western Country: Sally Jane flying the flag for Western Australia

From singing for the legendary Joy McKean and Kasey Chambers, to opening the 2020 Tamworth Country Music Festival, Sally Jane is quickly ticking off her bucket list, and that was just part of 2020!

The West Australian singer-songwriter-guitarist also won the People's Choice category at the Western Australian Country Music Awards and she's also opened for Adam Brand, Kasey, and Fanny Lumsden at the Red Country Festival and she's also performed with Adam Harvey in Tamworth and won Junior Vocalist of the Year at the WA Country Music Awards in 2019.

Country music was always going to be Sally's home after growing up on a healthy diet of long road trips accompanied by the music of Adam Harvey, Kasey Chambers, and Brooks & Dunn.

"I've always sung," she laughed.

"The story goes that mum and dad used to send me to the back paddock to sing and pick up sticks so they could get some peace."

When she turned 15, Sally began performing at the pub in Serpentine before her dad stumbled across The Academy, an intensive music course run in Tamworth.

"We got everything together in a week and I applied for the junior academy, and was accepted, so we travelled across the country to attend," Sally Jane said.

Since then, Sally has also graduated from the senior academy, in January 2020.

It is the love of performing and sharing that joy with others that keeps her performing.

"When I'm on stage, it makes me really happy because I love singing to people," she said.

"I especially love when the audience is singing along to my songs, seeing the smiles on everyone's faces and everyone have a good time; it's a lot of fun."

The Serpentine, WA, artist released her latest single, Kiss you When the Rain Comes, in December 2021, charting at #1 on the top 10 AMRAP Regional Chart and Sally Jane will release her debut EP in 2022.

Sally Jane's ultimate goal is to be a successful full-time country artist.

Her hard work is paying off and she's getting noticed by established companies, with Sally Jane an ambassador for brands including Warrior Racing, Takamine Guitars through Pro Music Australia, Thomas Cook Clothing Co., Wrangler Western Wear Australia, and Audio-Technica Australia.

Sally Jane is the latest addition to the amazing Western Australian organisations Spinifex Brewing Co has committed to support through its "Doing Good with Great Beer" sponsorship program. These organizations include Western Force Rugby, Yirra Yaakin Theatre, Connected By and now Sally Jane Music.
