

Sally Jane is a vibrant young country music, singer, songwriter and instrumentalist from Serpentine, Western Australia. Sally graduated from the Country Music Association of Australia in 2017 and is attending Senior academy in 2020, Sally was awarded WA country music junior vocalist of the year 2019.

'Beersheba' is Sally Jane's debut single, and is a tribute to the Australian Lighthouse, first performed at the 100th anniversary. 'Beersheba' was a semi-finalist in the Tamworth Songwriters Association - Anzac song of the year award 2019. Sally is working on her debut EP.

Sally and family drove across Australia to her first Tamworth Country music festival in 2018 and performed with Adam Harvey. Returning in 2019 with a tri-state tour performing in Mandurah, Port Adelaide and Tamworth with 'The Cut Snakes' in Adelaide and opening for the acclaimed 'Simply Bushed' at West Diggers Leagues Club Tamworth.

Sally Jane regularly performs at local pubs, festivals and private functions. Sally was fortunate to perform a duet with her idol Kasey Chambers, in Bunbury and most recently one of the support acts for Troy-Cassar Daly in Port Hedland.

Country music allows Sally to express herself and tell her story, 'I love it that people can dance and sing along with me and share the experience.'