

A LITTLE FROG IN A BIG POND

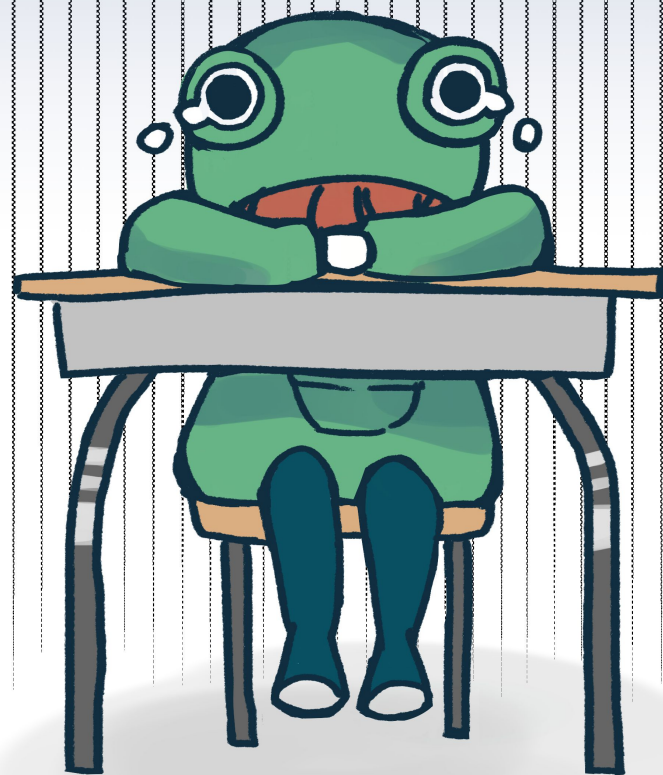

WRITTEN AND ILLUSTRATED
BY ANITA WANG

There once lived a little frog girl who grew up shy and isolated. She was always in her own world.

In school, other classmates would make fun of her looks and her shyness.

Everytime she was in class,
she felt like she couldn't breathe.

Until one day during recess,
she stumbled across the forest
behind the school and found..

A beautiful pond! Ever since that day, every recess, she couldn't wait to go back to that pond. She found a place where she could be herself.

One day in the pond, the girl heard a sound come from the bushes. "Who's there?!", she nervously asked.

“Please don’t be afraid,” a girl pleaded, putting her hands up in defense. That girl was a classmate!

“Sorry I followed you here. I never knew that there was such a beautiful place here! Can I stay with you?” the classmate asked. The little frog girl was surprised but said yes.

The two would play here every recess and soon enough, became the best of friends! Our little frog was no longer alone.
The End.
