

IF I WASN'T A PIG...

This is Wally,

and this is Willy.

One sunny day, Wally took a walk with his friend Willy.

They saw colorful fish swimming in the pond.

Don't you wish you could swim like a fish?" asked Wally "The water is so cool."

They saw a singing
bird flying above
them.

“Don’t you wish you
could fly like a bird?”
asked Wally. “The sky is so beautiful.”

"I don't want to be a pig" Wally sighed.

A large cartoon pig with pink skin, large ears, and a snout is wearing a white shirt and a red bow tie. It has a sad expression with its eyes closed.

Wally likes being a pig, but he gets bored sometimes.

The back of a large cartoon pig with pink skin, large ears, and a snout. It is wearing a white shirt and a red bow tie.

He wishes he could fly in the sky or swim in the water.

"Why don't you like being a pig?" asked Willy.

“You
can do so many things.”

“You can walk.”

“You can jump.”

“You can run.”

“You can roll in the mud.”

“And the ground is beautiful too.”

“There are flowers, and grass, and trees.”

“You can see the birds in the trees.”
Willy pointed to the birds.

“and the fish
in the pond.”

“But most importantly, you have me to keep you company.”

The end.
