

Gifted Learner Application Form

The Gift of Learning is a fundraising campaign in which you, the Gifted Learner, are matched with donors (Gifting Heroes) who will contribute towards your learning program through the Canadian Learning Trust. In turn, Gifting Heroes will receive a charitable tax receipt for their support of lifelong learning for Canadians.

How to Apply

- Fill out this application in its entirety.
- Download and complete the GoldEye Learning Planner & Tracker from www.canlearntrust.org/gifting-of-learning.
- Take a selfie. This will be your Gifted Learner profile photo.
- Gather proof of application to / enrolment in your lifelong learning program.
- Submit all of the above documents (your application package):
 - By mail to PO Box 2843, Stony Plain, AB, Canada T7Z 1A0
 - By email to info@canlearntrust.org.

How You Can Help

Anyone and everyone are welcome to contribute to your lifelong learning efforts. Help support your own Gift of Learning campaign by sharing and promoting it on your social media, by email, and through word-of-mouth with your network. We will provide you with a welcome package once your application has been processed and accepted. This package will include templates for emails and social media to help get you started.

Learning Champion Membership

As a learner applying for this program, you will obtain a free (non-voting) membership as a Learning Champion with the Canadian Learning Trust. All Learning Champions receive our e-newsletters, have opportunities to submit content for the blog, learn about volunteer opportunities, and more.

Protecting Your Privacy

To protect your privacy, only your first name and province of residence will be listed on your Gifted Learner bio on www.canlearntrust.org. Information featured in your profile will be curated from your application form and GoldEye in such a way as to protect your personally identifiable information.

The Canadian Learning Trust only gathers personal information required for the operation of our programs and services. We do not share, sell, or rent out your information. We operate in compliance with PIPEDA privacy legislation of Canada. Visit www.canlearntrust.org to learn more.

Administrative Fees

The Canadian Learning Trust is a self-funded registered charity. Our mission is to encourage and promote lifelong learning for all ages, and this includes helping to remove financial barriers for Canadians pursuing learning.

As such, we endeavor to maintain very low administrative fees – only what we require to keep the programs running. Up to 10% of all income donations will be collected by the Canadian Learning Trust in order to continue its operations. Donors still receive 100% of the amount eligible for charitable tax receipts.

If you have any questions or concerns about this application or any of the contents within, please contact Lindsey Shugg, Executive Director, at info@canlearntrust.org

Thank you for helping to build a Learning Canada – one learner at a time.
