KEEP ON LEARNING

November 2022 eFlash!

The Canadian Learning Trust (the CLT) is a lifelong learning community that encourages all kinds of learning by all ages of learners.

Our dream is of a prosperous Canada enriched with learning – a Learning Canada.

Hello Fellow Lifelong Learners!

Seniors are everywhere these days (15% of Canadians and a growing sector) and they are living longer. That means there is more opportunity to keep on learning. You don't need to look hard to see the graduates of post-secondary institutions all over Canada. There are courses to match almost every need and interest. If you are 65 years of age or over, subject to meeting admissions and prerequisite requirements, you can enroll in courses for credit without payment of tuition and supplementary fees.

Here are a very few of the most unique, interesting and creative courses for Seniors that we could find:

- At the Seniors College of Prince Edward Island, you can take: Drones within Reach including simulations, demonstrations and the opportunity to be licensed.
- Sign up in Winnipeg at the Good Neighbours for an Introduction to the Celtic Harp.
- Enjoy a wide variety of fitness courses offered at the Ottawa Seniors Center: Barre Fit, Carpet Bowling, Yogalates and Line Dancing.
- Turn Moosehide into Moccasins at the Kwanlin Dunn Cultural Centre on Front street in Whitehorse.
- How about Dinosaur 101 at the University of Alberta?
- How to Code: Simple Data Program course is delivered on EdX by the University of British Columbia with campuses in Vancouver and Kelowna.

Is there an excuse not to take a course?

Thanks to Bruce P and Richard D for providing input.

A Shout Out to Ravi Thavanayagapathy, a Board Director and staunch supporter of the CLT and lifelong learning. He chose the Canadian Learning Trust as his charity of choice when his work team won a contest. Thanks so much Ravi for your help in encouraging and promoting lifelong learning across Canada.
