Something's "Fishy" at the Sutherland House

Gary Sutherland is an avid collector of fishing rods. Does he hang them on the wall? Does he display them in his garage? No—he cleans them, restores the reels (or repairs them), and sells them at the Optimist rummage sale, which happens to be held at his house (May 21-22 this year). The proceeds go toward fighting childhood cancer, the major focus of the Brodhead Optimist Club. At last year's event he had 70 rods for sale, and every one of them was sold! This year he has 60, along with lots of lures for pan fishing and ice fishing, landing nets, tackle boxes, minnow buckets, children's fishing chairs, boat seats, and more.

Long ago, Gary collected rods for himself, fixed them, kept some, and sold some. A few years ago, when he rejoined the Optimist Club, his efforts switched to their childhood cancer fund.

Gary is an avid outdoorsman who does a lot of hunting as well as fishing, and the items at the rummage sale reflect that. A short list of such items includes a hunting bow with arrows, a new canvas boat cover, a propane tent heater, and a camp stove. Gary says that he really enjoys "tinkering with things," and that is obvious!

Don't miss the Optimist Rummage Sale at the Sutherland house, 1802 1st Center Avenue, Brodhead, Thursday, May 21 and Friday, May 22, and the Optimist Fishing Derby at the pond across from Stoughton Trailers, held on Saturday, June 6!

She used that pain to become a Super mom and rock star wife. She made sure McKenna Mullen never missed a thing growing up. She especially loved going on the Girl Scout outings and camping trips with McKenna and "her girls." She also loved going up to Mason Lake and seeing our extended family up there.

The library is going to the dogs, or at least Albertson Memorial Library's Preschool Story Time did last week. The day started out with a giant floor puzzle with one of the youngsters showing off his great puzzling skill. Then a series of books about dogs going to school: Lucky Goes to School, Spot Goes to School, Boomer Goes to School, and Charlie Goes to School. Marley Goes to School (by Grogan) describes what happens when Cassie's puppy follows her to school. The highlight of the day was the guest readers! One of the dads had a lap full of listeners! The craft for the day taught the preschoolers how to do an origami dog, complete with googly eye and magic marker spots.

The last day of Preschool Story Time was Tuesday, May 19th and focused on elephants. Mama's Day with Little Gray (by Reid) and A Parade of Elephants (by Henkes) promise a good time for the listeners. Elephants with party blowers for their trunk will be the craft of the day.

The plans for Albertson Memorial Library's Summer Library Program are being finalized. Tuesday, June 2nd is the kick-off event with a program presented by the Mississippi River Museum at 1 p.m. You don't want to miss this... it's open to people of all ages! Then AML's official SLP starts Tuesday, June 9th with a program appropriate to preschoolers at 10 a.m. and another program appropriate to school agers at 1 p.m. SLP runs through the middle of July. The theme this year is "Unearth A Story" and features a different dinosaur each week. Finally, AML will have Family Movie Night every Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. Come for the popcorn!
