Understanding School Property Taxes in the Brodhead School District

By David Novy,
District Administrator,
Brodhead School District

As property tax bills arrive across the Brodhead School District, residents may notice an increase in the school district portion of their tax bill. This article explains why taxes increased and how the school district's portion of individual tax bills are determined.

What is a Revenue Limit?

In Wisconsin, revenue limits control school spending growth and ensure equity across districts. A revenue limit sets the maximum general fund revenue a district may collect from State aid and local property taxes.

- State funding (general aid) is applied first, reducing the amount a district must raise locally.

- The remaining amount is collected through local property taxes.

Revenue Limit Increase and 2025-26 Budget

This year, Brodhead School District's per-pupil revenue limit increased by $325, continuing the adjustment from the 2023-25 Wisconsin Biennial Budget. Districts across the State of Wisconsin made the assumption that State aid would increase as in past years when preparing their budgets, guiding plans for staffing and essential programs.

State Aid Shortfall

Instead, the Brodhead School District received $391,098 less in State aid than in 2024-25 (a 4.46% decrease) than anticipated. Many Wisconsin districts experienced similar reductions: revenue limit increases without the expected State funding. The shortfall was made up through local property taxes, increasing the burden on homeowners.

Effect of Increased Equalized Property Values

In addition to revenue limit and State aid changes, equalized property values across the District increased 8.96%. Because school taxes are based in part on assessed property values, this increase in total property value was one of the contributing factors to higher taxes across the District.

How Are School Taxes Determined?

The District sets the total levy for each municipality to meet the revenue limit after State aid. Municipalities then collect taxes from property owners based on the assessed value of their property relative to the total assessed value in the municipality.

- Assessors determine market value for each property.

- Municipalities calculate each property owner's share of the levy.

- Differences in assessed values, both within and between municipalities, mean tax bills vary even for similar homes.

- The timing of assessments affects taxes: properties assessed more recently at higher ratios of market value will pay more than similar homes assessed earlier at lower ratios.

Example: How Assessment Timing Affects School Taxes.

The mill (tax) rate in the Brodhead School District is $7.45 per $1,000 of assessed value. School taxes are calculated based on assessed value, which may differ from current market value depending on when the property was last assessed.

Property A

- Market value: $250,000
- Last assessed at 90% of market value—Assessed value = $225,000
- School Tax = $(225,000 \div 1,000) \times 7.45 = $1,676.25$

Property B

- Market value: $250,000
- Last assessed at 100% of market value—Assessed value = $250,000
- School Tax = $(250,000 \div 1,000) \times 7.45 = $1,862.50$

Bottom Line:

Even though both homes have the same current market value, Property A pays less because its assessed value is based on an earlier assessment at 90% of market value. This shows how assessment timing and ratios, along with the mill rate, determine actual tax bills. Periodic revaluations help ensure taxes remain proportional to current market values across the District.

Why Individual Tax Bills Differ

Even with one total levy per municipality, differences occur because:

- Property values vary across homes.

- Assessments within municipalities are not identical.

- Property value growth differs between municipalities.

These factors explain why homeowners with similar market values may pay different school taxes.

Looking Ahead

The District continues to operate within its revenue limit, manage spending responsibly, and provide quality education. It will advocate for predictable and equitable State funding, so future revenue limit increases are shared fairly between the State and local taxpayers.

Jeannie Manion

September 25, 1941 – January 7, 2026

Jeannie Manion, age 84, passed away peacefully on January 7, 2026. She was born on September 25, 1941, in Madison, Wisconsin, to Shirley and Grace Morrison. Jeannie was raised in Madison and graduated from Central High School.

On November 12, 1960, Jeannie married the love of her life, Darrel Manion. Together they shared 65 wonderful years of marriage, building a life rooted in love, family, and hard work.

Jeannie worked at the Oregon Girl’s School and at Rocky’s—where she happily combined work with her love of their pizza—but her main calling was helping on the family farm, where her dedication and strong work ethic were evident every day.

Jeannie loved bowling and spent many years coaching her daughter’s softball team, sharing her competitive spirit, patience, and encouragement with countless young players. She was also an active and devoted member of Alcoholics Anonymous, where she helped many people through their journeys, turning fellow members into lifelong friends and supporting others as they fought—and won—their battles.

Jeannie was especially known for her incredible cooking. While she tried to pass those talents down to her children, she often joked that her cooking skills skipped a generation. Her meals, however, remain a cherished memory for all who gathered around her table.

She is survived by her loving husband of 65 years, Darrel; her daughter, Shirley (Lyle) Poch; her son, Philip (Sarah) Manion; her grandchildren: Loni (Ryan) Hefner, Ashley Manion, and Katie (Austin) Kinman; her great-grandchildren: Kara, Kaydence, Abby and Raylan; and several great-granddogs who brought her much joy.

Jeannie was preceded in death by her parents, Shirley and Grace Morrison; her father- and mother-in-law, Ray and Orpha Manion; her brother, Don; her sister, Alice; her nephews, Don and Jim; and her beloved grandson, Ray, whom she loved dearly.

Jeannie will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and all whose lives she touched with her kindness, strength, humor, and generous heart.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a future date.

Annelise Bethke reaches for the opening tip-off in the game against Bellville last Tuesday. The first half saw both teams struggle offensively. Brodhead led 14-10 at the half and the Cards hung on to win 48-35 over the visiting Wildcats. Allie Dahl and Gretchen Kammerer led their team. Their meeting against Jefferson on Thursday resulted in a hiccup as Brodhead got off to a slow start resulting in a 43-37 loss. Making 4-of-18 from the charity stripe contributed to the loss. Dahl led the Cardinals with 10 points. Next week the girls traveled to East Troy on Tuesday and travel to Monroe on Friday. (Free Press photo by Teresa Earleywine)

The Brodhead Memorial Public Library has plenty happening as we settle into the new year, including exciting updates for book lovers, crafters, and community supporters.

Our book clubs are gearing up for great discussions in the coming months. Books and Brews is currently reading In Five Years by Rebecca Serle and will meet on Wednesday, January 21, at 6:30 p.m. at Bridges Bar and Grill. The Brodhead Book Club is reading the classic Little Women by Louisa May Alcott and will gather on Thursday, February 19, at 7 p.m. at the library—copies are available now for those who want to get a head start.

We’re adding a little extra flavor to our book club lineup with a brand-new adult group called The Spice Rack. This 18+ book club is for readers who enjoy stories with a bit more heat and plenty to talk about. The first meeting will take place on Saturday, January 24, at 11 a.m., and we’ll kick things off with brunch and a casual discussion on what members want this new club to look like. Come hungry, bring an open mind, and be ready for lively conversation. This group is for adults only—no exceptions.

Creative adults are invited to join Chatty Crafties for their first event of the year on Monday, January 26. Participants will be making decoupage plaques with pressed flow-

Lucas Keating put up the first 3-point shot to get the Cards rolling against BigFoot last Friday. Brodhead had a strong defensive start with steals and rebounding. Leading most of the first half, the score at the break was knotted at 23 for both teams. The Chiefs came out hot in the second to clinch the 54-40 victory. Brodhead shot 69% from the stripe. Searls, scoring 20 points, led the Cards. Brodhead will face East Troy on Thursday at home.

In their game against St Ambrose last Tuesday. Braylon Strehlow scored 14 points in the non-conference game. The halftime score, 26-29, gave the Guardians the edge. The second half was a thriller. In the final seconds, Sam Searls swishes the ball through from long range to tie the game at 48 all. This was a tight game to the bitter end with St Ambrose dropping in the winning bucket to achieve a 55-53 in overtime. (Free Press photo by Teresa Earleywine)

ers. Registration is required and can be completed by calling the library or signing up through our website.

Finally, the Friends of the Brodhead Memorial Public Library will hold their next meeting on Monday, February 2, at 5:30 p.m. All are welcome to attend and take part in discussions about fund-raising and other ways to support the library and its services.

We look forward to seeing you at the library soon!

Saturday Mornings at the Durand Library

Jerks in Chicago 1950-2000

Submitted by Barbara Flores, president, Friends of the Durand Library

During the third and final part of the series about "jerks" in Chicago this past Saturday, those in attendance had a lot of grim stories from the not so distant past to take in. There were the mobsters, of course, brutal people who killed seemingly without a second thought. And the city officials responsible for torture and subsequent deaths. Not to overlook the infamous serial killer and the mass murderer who put Chicago in the national news.

There were also a few lawyers in that period who lost whatever morals and integrity they may have once possessed. Most were elected officials who sullied their public service with crimes of bribery and corruption as well as deliberate ignorance of police abuse. Not all were convicted despite the heinous nature of their crimes.

There was also a list of (Dis)Honorable Mentions who all had one thing in common, their crimes involved money in one way or another: mail fraud, bribery, racketeering, extortion, misusing campaign funds. Jokes about license plates being made by governors in prison strike home when we learn that there were actually four of them: Otto Kerner, Dan Walker, George Ryan and Rod Blagojevich.

We should not to overlook other highly place political figures: Jesse Jackson Jr., U.S. Congressman; Barbara Byrd-Bennet, CEO of Chicago Public Schools; Michael Madigan, longtime Speaker of the House. All their crimes had to do with money, misuse of funds, bribery you name it.

Due to the number of jerks and the extent of their criminal behavior, this is but a brief summary of what was covered in this fascinating but disturbing talk by speaker Brad Keyes.

John Wayne Gacy was the child of an abusive, alcoholic father and was responsible for the death of 33 young men over a period of time. His crimes went beyond murder, as there was evidence of sexual exploitation and worse. His trial in 1980 took place in Chicago but jurors were brought there from Rockford as Gacy's attorney argued he could not get a fair trial in the city. Gacy was convicted of murder and died by lethal injection.

Richard Speck, another troubled soul, killed eight young nurses one by one in 1966 with a single knife. One nurse survived by hiding under a bed in their dormitory and she was able to identify him by a tattoo on his arm. He was sentenced to life in prison and died there at the age of 50.

Tony Accardo and Sam Giancana were mobsters, the former who expanded operation to Las Vegas and modified the brothel scheme by creating "call girls." Giancana was actually recruited by the CIA to assassinate Fidel Castro. He was not successful there but did share a mistress or two with John F. Kennedy. They were enterprising mobsters and spread their criminal activity to Louisiana as well as Las Vegas.

The Daley's, father and son, ruled Chicago for decades. The father, Richard J. Daley, ruled the city for 21 years. He was responsible for the police riot during the 1968 Democratic Convention. His control

It was snow globes and snowballs at Albertson Memorial Library's Preschool Story Time last week. Snow! Snow! Snow! was the chant led by the book We Want Snow (by Swenson). Pretty appropriate now that the snow has all melted. But the best story was Snow Globe Family (by O'Connor), about two families wanting to play in the snow, one inside the snow globe, of course! The preschoolers built a snowman inside a clear plastic ball, added some fake snow. Voila! A snow globe of their very own! The day ended with a giant snowball throwing contest, complete with a snowball fight!

Next week the Toys Meet Snow (by Jenkins), a story about a buffalo and his friends who desperately want to learn about snow. Other buffalo-related stories will follow, including There's a Bison Bouncing on My Bed (by Bright). Everyone will make a buffalo in the snow. and finish the day with a buffalo puzzle to take home. What FUN!

Albertson Memorial Library's Preschool Story Time meets Tuesdays at 10 a.m. for a fun, energetic, creative good time. Won't you join us? We'd love to meet a new friend or two!

over the Democratic Party in Cook County gave him enough influence to play a strong role in JFK's election in 1960. He divided black and white communities with interstate highways and created slums and ghettos with the poor housing practices he instituted.

His son, Richard M. Daley, elected in 1989, served as mayor for 22 years. He ordered the carving of large "xes" in Miegs Field. His reason for sabotaging the airfield was not clear. Neither son nor father were convicted of any crimes, but they bullied and controlled the city and its employees for their own in-

At 8:54 p.m., Sunday, deputies responded to the 300 block of E. Highland Avenue, in the Village of Monticello for a report of two male individuals in the street yelling and fighting. Deputies investigation resulted in Zachary E. Henry, 28, of Albany, being cited for having open intoxicants in a vehicle. Timothy L. Rock, 28, of Monticello, was cited for disorderly conduct. Both parties received non-mandatory court dates. Monticello EMS and Green County EMS also assisted on the call.

Ed Burke and Ed Vrdolyak locked arms to create a voting block, which crippled then Mayor Harold Washington's ability to govern. Both were convicted of crimes all related to money, fraud, bribery etc. Burke had people working in his law office who were on the city payroll. Despite their efforts, Mayor Washington was elected to a second term; however he died at his desk of a heart attack in 1987 early in his second term.

Edward Hanrahan, Cook County States attorney, ordered the slaughter of several Blank Panther members in a midnight raid on their apartment. An investigation found that more than 100 shots had been fired and several members killed or wounded. The Blank Panthers were a social welfare organization but were painted by some as violent extremists. Hanrahan was charged with planting false evidence and obstruction of justice. He was acquitted but lost all subsequent elections in which he ran.

Perhaps the worst atrocity in the City's modern history was the routine beatings and torture authorized by Jon Burge, a detective and commander of his precinct, to extract false confessions. This was primarily directed at young black males. Richard J. Daley, who was then Cook County State's Attorney, ignored evidence of and complaints to investigate this abuse of police power. Civil suits finally brought the police brutality to light but the Statue of Limitations had run for the police officers involved.

In 2003 this travesty of justice led then Governor George Ryan to temporarily suspend the death penalty and to commute the death sentence of 167 prisoners on death row. The death penalty was later abolished in Illinois. Then State Senator Barack Obama pushed legislation through requiring that all interrogations be video recorded. In 2008 Burge was convicted on charges of obstruction of justice and perjury and sentenced to 4.5 years in prison.

Green County Land and Water Conservation Tree Sale is Open

Is something missing in your life? Do you feel lost while you lie awake in bed at night wondering if there is something more to all this? Well no wonder, you haven't gotten any trees to plant! It just so happens that the Green County Land and Water Conservation Department is extending its tree sale for all your woody needs. They currently have eight species of trees and two shrubs available for order, with the deadline fast approaching. The tree varieties are Bur Oak, Red Oak, Swamp White Oak, White Oak, Black Cherry, Domestic Apple, White Pine and Norway Spruce. The shrubs available are American Plum and Redosier Dogwood. The trees and shrubs are bare root, and range in height between 18 inches and four feet depending on species. The cost is $3 per tree and must be ordered in increments of 10.

Most of the trees and shrubs are native to the area and the species offered cover a broad range of soil types and moistures. All species are still currently in stock though supplies are limited (our apples trees will likely be out of stock by the time this gets published).

Mycorrhizal root dip and nutrient packs are also available to order. Tree spuds can be rented with a deposit of $50 that will be given back to you once you return it to their office. If you're looking to plant a large quantity of trees The LWCD has tree planters available, allowing you to plant a lot of trees with ease. Contact the office to get on the planter schedule.

You can order either via our website <https://greencountylwc.com/>, by phone at 608-325-4195 extension 2683 or stop on by their office located at 1627 4th Avenue West, Monroe, to fill out a paper form. They would love to see your beautiful smiling faces. Orders are due by Saturday, January 31st. Trees are scheduled for pick up during mid to late April at the Pleasant View barn off Highway 81 in Monroe. They will have signage up to let you know where to go at the time of pickup.

TDS donating $1K to support Albany elementary school students

TDS Telecommunications LLC (TDS®) is donating $1,000 to Albany Elementary School to provide healthy snacks for students during the school day for the remainder of the academic year. This initiative ensures children have access to healthy options, helping to bridge the gaps caused by missed meals and supporting their ability to learn and thrive.

“As TDS deepens its commitment to Albany through high-speed internet network upgrades, we’re also proud to step up our community giving,” said TDS Associate Manager of Field Marketing Liz Menz. “We’re excited to make this donation and help support Albany Elementary School students reach their full potential.”

TDS broke ground in mid-2025 on a multi-year network upgrade project to bring at least 100 Mbps and up to one Gig Internet service to addresses in the company’s Albany-area footprint. The Madison-headquartered company is using the Federal Communication Commission’s (FCC) Enhanced Alternative Connect America Cost Model program (E-ACAM) to help fund the work. E-ACAM provides funding to deploy and support 100/20 Mbps or faster broadband service to some of TDS’ most rural geographies.

Construction on the new infrastructure includes accessing public utility easements to install conduit and fiber-optic cables, as well as upgrading aerial cables. The faster speeds will become available to customers in phases as construction progresses.

TDS’ philanthropic donation in Albany comes on the heels of the company’s support of a special Holiday Pop-up Food Pantry in Janesville. By partnering with the YMCA and ECHO, Inc., the program made easy-grab meals available over the school district’s winter break so families would not experience food insecurity.

TDS has been Albany’s local communications provider for 30 years. For more information about TDS service upgrades visit TDSteelcom.com/support/networkupgrades.html.

America’s 250th Anniversary

Two hundred fifty years ago, the American colonies set forth a bold new vision for human freedom, declaring that the rights of individuals do not flow from monarchs but are inherent to all people. From that revolutionary idea emerged the United States, a nation built on enduring ideals of liberty, equality, selfgovernance, and justice. As the country marks this historic anniversary, the Benjamin Harrison Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) will host a series of activities throughout the year to honor this milestone and celebrate the spirit of independence that continues to shape our national identity. For more information or to get involved, please message us through our Colonel Benjamin Harrison Chapter DAR Facebook page.

The National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) is a women’s service organization whose members can trace their lineage to an individual who contributed to securing American independence during the Revolutionary War. Today’s DAR is dynamic and diverse, with over 185,000 members in 3,000 chapters in the United States and abroad. DAR members annually provide millions of hours of volunteer service to their local communities across the country and world. DAR chapters participate in projects to promote historic preservation, education, and patriotism. Over one million members have joined the organization since its founding in 1890. The Albertson Memorial Library is thrilled to announce an exciting new addition to our collection: VOX Books and Immersive Reality (IR) Books!

VOX Books are physical children’s books with a built-in audio reader, enabling a read-along experience without extra devices. Kids can listen to the story while reading by pressing a button, which also prompts page turns. This system requires no WI-FI, computers, or tablets, making it an accessible tool for early literacy development at home.

Immersive Reality (IR) Books are children’s books that blend traditional print with Virtual Reality (VR) and Augmented Reality (AR) technology, allowing them to “read it, see it, and live it” through a companion app and VR goggles, transporting them into the book’s world for a fully engaging learning experience.
