1. Introduction

This Cookie Policy explains how Audio Visual Media Ltd uses cookies and similar technologies on its website in accordance with UK GDPR and the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR).

2. What Are Cookies

Cookies are small text files stored on a user's device when visiting a website. They enable functionality, improve performance, and provide analytical insights.

3. Types of Cookies Used

The Company may use essential cookies required for website operation, analytics cookies to understand user behaviour, and performance cookies to enhance user experience.

4. Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the operation of the website and cannot be disabled. They include security, navigation, and core functionality features.

5. Analytics & Performance Cookies

These cookies collect information about how visitors use the website, including page visits and traffic sources. This data is used to improve performance and usability.

6. Third-Party Cookies

The website may use third-party services including Google Analytics, embedded media, or security tools such as reCAPTCHA. These providers may set cookies and process data in accordance with their own policies.

7. Consent

Non-essential cookies will only be set after the user has provided explicit consent via the website cookie banner. Users have the option to accept, reject, or manage cookie preferences.

8. Managing Cookies

Users can control and delete cookies through browser settings. Disabling cookies may affect website functionality.

9. Data Protection

Any personal data collected through cookies is processed in accordance with the Company's Privacy Policy and UK GDPR requirements.

10. Changes to This Policy

This policy may be updated periodically to reflect changes in legal requirements or website functionality.
