

ALEXANDER SPELLANE

CEO, FISHER CAPITAL

FISHER | CAPITAL

STORY

Alexander Spellane is the CEO of Fisher Capital, a retailer for precious metals that helps high net worth investors diversify their investment portfolios. Fisher Capital has seen tremendous growth since Alexander took over, and has hopes to become the nation's number one precious metal retailer in 2022.

Despite not going to college, Alexander still managed to make his first million dollars at the age of 27. Not much information can be found on Alexander, who likes to remain "wealthy anonymous person."
