

Dr. Kylie Sramek, DPT, Director

I work at Synergy Physical Therapy and Wellness. We specialize in orthopedic outpatient and women's health programs and work with a variety of different health specialties including athletic trainers, personal trainers, and health coaches. I work PRN at Cleveland Clinic Inpatient Rehabilitation Hospital in the stroke, spinal cord injury, and traumatic brain injury unit. I double majored in Pre-Physical Therapy and Exercise Science from BW and received my doctorate from Chatham University. I am certified in Dry Needling.
