The Hare – Dibba Dobba & Lighten Up

The Run: Plovers for Lasagna.

Drinkin in Brinkin

With the checks skilfully hidden around the corner where nobody would see them, there was no need to mark any false trails. The first hidden check saw us playing air to ground combat tactics with the Plovers. A nice couple with 4 eggs in the nest were the most willing of combatants. As everybody started to wander off down towards the university @ Grassy Knolls suggestion, somebody then mentioned “What about the check over there?” “on back ya bastards.”

With HIV running in circles, Cricket, who had inside knowledge (He keeps Lightenup on speed dial) crossed towards Rocklands drive. Another “on back ya bastards” call was made, but pretty much ignored by both those who heard it, and those who hadn’t.

HIV wandering along Eirdunda street found TowJob following trail in the reverse direction. With fresh trail established it was off to the drink stop. Eventually all the short cutters also discovered a path to the drink stop. On home was all uphill after that.

Incoming

The Circle

Remember when Gash was GM?

In fact, the current GM ’s is regularly accused of doing a Gash. So it was decided that Gash should start catching up on some of his missed circles from when he was GM.

Visitor’s, New Runners

So Gash begins with “Are there any new runners?” followed by “Who was not here last week?” The small circle of 14 then started listing all the Hashers that were not here last week and are still not here this week. Not knowing what was going on Gash then admitted he had been absent. Animal took him away with “Here’s to this prick.....”

Chook Fucker

Tow Job the incumbent stood up to explain that the Chook no longer loved him long time and wanted a divorce. So his nominations for the chook where, The hare for hiding the checks, and secondly Rocketman for thinking Hash Cash's Mosquito Repellent machine was in fact an EFTPOS machine. Dibba Dobba was exonerated for such a marvellous piss stop, so the new Chook Fucker is Rocketman. "Put it in your hands Mrs Palmer...."

Fines

Cricket fines Grassy Knoll & Backpage for leading their elders away from the true trail and sending them towards the University instead of following the chalk.

Tow Job tried to fine Hash Piss for setting up the eskie's so Hash piss did not have to move to get a drink, and blocked everybody else from reaching the eskies. Even as RA, fining Hash Piss is a risky business, so it went nowhere.

Jokes

Animal gets in early to drop the bar with "A blind bloke walks into a bar with his dog. Picks his dog up by the back legs and starts swinging him around. Seems he was just having a look around." He follows with "A skeleton walks into the bar & asks for a pint & a mop." He finishes with "Every time the bloke in the pub finished a beer, he took out his wallet and had a look at a picture of his wife. Seems when she started to look good, he had had enough and it was time to go home."

Lord OBE announced that one of the scariest things for a blind man is to read the warning in braille that says "Do not touch."

Gensett gave the old "Doctor gave patient with plumbing problem a sample jar and says take it home take sample and bring back next week. Well, he tried, and his wife tried, and the neighbours' tried but none could get the sample jar to open."

Gash with "What does a condom and coffin have in common? They are both for holding a stiff." And followed with "Why shouldn't you fart in an apple shop? Because there are no windows." And finally, he had gone to play table tennis and had left his fly open. One of the little old ladies pointed it out saying "Your garage door is open." He replies, "Did you see the Range Rover in there?" She responds "No just a small Toyota with flat tyres."

The Hares – Dibba Dobba & Lightenup Run Report

“What did we think of that bloody Fiasco?” Whinge whinge whinge bloody whinge. “If I get attacked by plovers again, next time I am going to bring a gun”, “I got attacked by some Peewee’s” exclaimed Backpage. “The 2nd 5 K was OK but the first 5 were shit” There was however a lot of positive feedback on the drinkstop.

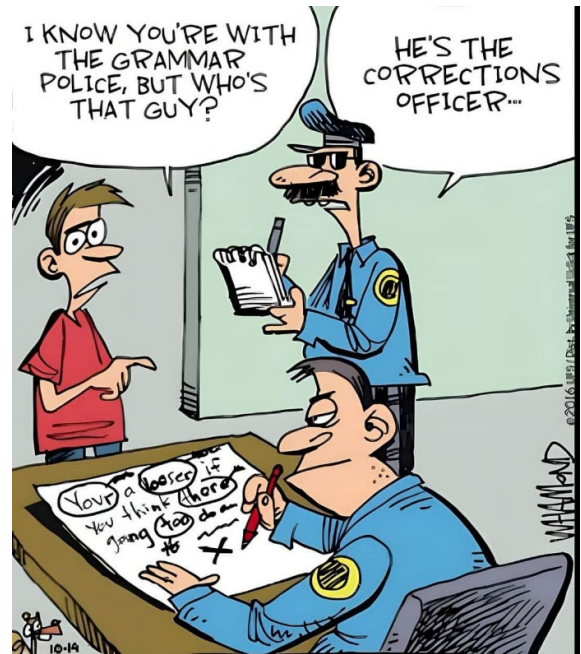

The Tucker – Dibba Dobba

We were all expecting to line up for some succulent corned beef with peas & white sauce, who the hell ordered the bloody Lasagna, and then failed to turn up to eat it? Lighten up consoled the crowd by handing out egg flavoured fillers before dinner something brown after dinner. 10 out of 10.

St Physio’s Thought of the Week

I don’t get why women brag about multi-tasking. There’s nothing cool about doing three things wrong at once.

Next Week’s Run – Grassy Knoll – East Point, go past Peewee’s and take the first left into the car park with square rotunda.

The other day I bought a thesaurus, but when I got back home and opened it, all the pages were blank.....

I have no word to describe just how angry I am.

BECAUSE NOBODY TELLS ME WHAT TO DO
