THE RUN #2734

Firstly, we have a few on our sick list. Lighten Up is out of hospital and dragged himself to the run tonight. Cricket is out of hospital and recovering at home and HIV is not well but I believe he is back home from Nash Hash.

Twelve runners tonight. The pack headed off right from Backpage's place with Hare assistant, Gropa guiding us when we got lost, in the direction of the Parap Shops. Then up and down streets until a wonderful piss stop of Heineken at a brand new rugby league ground. Your scribe had no idea where we were until someone said Richardson Park you idiot. Wow, what a difference from the old abandoned ground. Then back through some bush to the streets of Parap, past the old Douglas St Shop, past the Race Course and home. Hare assistant tried to take us on a little long cut but we ignored him so he followed us the short way home. The run was around 4km.

THE CIRCLE

After the yummy tucker with GM Oops and Choir Master Physio officiating the Circle commenced.

RETURNING RUNNERS and VISITORS

Returners were Backpage and Towjob from Nash Hash and Lighten up and Dibba Dobba from Lighten Up's Hospital stay. There may have been one more but my brain has gone dry.

FINES

Assistant Hare, Gropa was fined for trying to take the pack on an end of run long cut. While waiting for Gropa to return from cooking something, Physio told the story of Rindercella and her three sicked wisters and mugly other.

CHOOKFUCKER

Chookfucker, Towjob who took the Chook to Nash Hash handed the Chook over to Ricemaster who was wearing a Tshirt with a flying chook on it which looked about 30 years old. The chook and the shirt.

JOKES

Rocket Man was missing in action so there were no terrible dad jokes.

THE HARE

The Hare, Backpage got 10/10 for the run and piss stop from Barbwire with assistance from others

The Pack looking excited

THE TUCKER –

What can I say, Backpage put on wonderful tender lamb yiros on pita bread with tzatziki and some other dip, the name of which escapes me, fresh little tomatoes, onion rings and some other green stuff. She also had some backup chicken in case she ran out of the lamb. There were also chippies for entrée.
