AGPU 31 May 2025

The Hares – Committee (HIV) The Run: 22 Clark Rd Marrakai

The acting GM OOop's called the rowdy mob to attention, recognising that the real GM Prickles was finally present for the AGPU run, however musta forgot he was GM.

There was 30+ hashers who had cum to the AGPU, more than half DH3 wannabes. We welcomed Katherine Hash, visitors from Sydney and also old runner Killa AKA Dingbat, GM of TEH3 with Anonymous propping him up.

The acting GM OOop's hands over to the hare HIV (who's positive) after resetting trail from Wednesday due to some firebug Lighten Up the trail. Dam dryseason burning and wrecking our nose, airways and lungs with smoke pollution "On On pink bits to the piss stop. Your heard it, a pub piss stop and you don't even need Enola, I mean cashola!

HIV led the runners with Gropa, Tasty's Toy Boy, Ready or Not and eventually BackPage (when she realised they were actually running) as she has made 6 days free of ping pong ball between her knees and is stilly saying "Lets try to run".

After running up the service road, dodging obstacles crossing the notorious Arnhem Highway, into the scrub that magically turned into charcoal, weaving about, jumping over fallen trees, dodging Barbwire and hoewles on the ground. That's right folks, rusty Barbwire was ever present, trying to trip us up and pass on tetanus to the harriers. (Tetanus causes painful muscle contractions, particularly in the jaw and neck, can interfere with breathing and eventually causing death). Between HIV, Barbwire, Prickles and Tasty's Toy Boy, it was a run to survive against the Oddie's! Goodie Goodie yum yum.

The pack made it to the piss stop and Prickles was feeling bad for not doing his job all year so he put $$ over the bar and HIV chipped in as well (he musta won poka last night). The pack was greatful for the 1 drink.....as Katherine Hash pointed out. ON HOME forrrrrr..... "free drinks for all the hashers"!

The Circle

Acting GM OOop's begins by advising the pack, nosh is up first, consisting of steak, jacket potato and salad followed by thanking all the disciples for following. Once the harriers have a belly full of cum...ohh, rum.....ohh, ohh oooohhhh I mean yummy nosh, the sircle begins ...Shaddow rates the nosh 1/10 (cant get any shittier than that!) and OOop's thanks the cooks OBE, Fullbottle, Jensett, Chilibush Enola and Dibba Bobba for the great efforts to feed the starving disciples. Katherine Hash next report on the quality run consisting of a shitty trail HIV drink it down down....

Handover Job of the Committee

The RA haggles the Acting GM OOOp's to hand over the committee with Dingbat as stand in Choir Master.

“And the new committee is.....”

- Hash Horn – Barbwire (apprentice Towjob)
- Hash Cash – Jensett
- Hash Booze Eskies – Cricket
- Hash Booze Kegs – OBE
- Religious Adviser - Towjob
- On Sec – Gropa
- Choir Master – BackPage
- Grand Master = Rice Master

(Late that evening after much piss, On Sec & Choir Master swapped roles demonstating the skills of life)

The new GM Rice Master reluctantly took the lead but wasn't sure which hand to use. Choir Master BackPage helped guide GM into a comfortable rhythm.

Fines

HIV was fined by OOOp's for making the disciples walk into the Son. Tasty's Toy Boy fined for not knowing what a check on tape is after discummuunicating himself from DH3, and again fined for being quoted “Hash is about doing your own thing” and therefore watching the footy during the circle – NO RESPECT GM,

The circle has once again descended into a rabble as Ready or Not wanted to fine the GM Rice Master for being a short cutting bustard (who was a meerkat follower during trail), until the Life of Brian highlighted him as the new messiah GM. The RA Towjob was called up to hear the fine who couldn't make heads or tails of it (too busy looking for a shrubbery) and the fine was upheld.

Gropa calls the next fine, Gash for leaving his handle at the piss stop, and blasphemy occurs until Dillygaff owns up to borrowing Gash's handle. All fined, do ya balls hang low.....

Next up Choir Master nudged the GM about a media fine, as TEH3's AGPU last weekend was interviewed and broadcasted Tues 27th approx. 0740am on Adam Steer's breakfast show. Dingbat, Gropa and BackPage all fined for being in the limelite and bringing disrepute to hash.

The Chook (&shirt)

After weeks of Gash admitting the Chookfucker is here but he lost the chook and the hoely promise “it will be here next week” finally came. Gash was gibbering about something until he remembered that someone lost their undies right at the front door to the house. The sniff test was conducted by a few hashers (namely OOOp's and RA Towjob) and eventually Enola was identified as the culprit. “Ohh what a feeling”!

Jokes

Taffy the serial visitor tells of the parrot who swears a lot, and eventually spent 2mins in the freezer and was asked are you going to swear again? The parrot replies “No, and asked, What did the chicken do?.” This was quickly followed by another parrot joke where a woman was asked “Do you like parrots and she answered “No, I like a cock or two”.

Next Week's Run

The New Committee

Committee Run at the Velodrome (off Old McMillans Road) with left over chicken cashew nut stir fry for nosh.

NT Moon Hash 31 May 2025

Run Number 49

The Hares – Skiddy The Run: The Block

Early in the night there was whispers of a moonlight run. The whispers turned into 11 hashers running when Skiddy came unexpectedly, which was 9 more than last week's moon run.

There was fines for anything and everything, just any reason to try and get some of the port that was held tightly in the vault. Plenty of Steam was on offer too and much fun had.

Next NT Moon Hash's run will be the 50th Anniversary, so make sure your at full moon that day.

Recovery Run 1 June 2025

The Hares – Shaddow The Run: Coroborree Tavern to OBE & Jensett's place

The run reluctantly started at the pub, as the campers had to walk, crawl or drive down the distance, then make their way back to the block.

Shaddow the Religious Advisor started with a Sir..mon and "Hallelujah, and the disciples followed. The praising of J was highlighted by singing "Free beer for all the Hashers" versus, until there was none left to sing. This was followed by Dough Ray Me song, clarification of She's a Little Sex Pot and so on, whilst the precession made its way singing back to the block.

Shaddow the RA continued the Sir...mon and fines of wine flowed including wearing of hats, moon run confession, a variety of fines for the sake of it and finally all ex GM's, RA's (for localised rain on Skiddy's swag) and anyone who hadn't been fined yet.

The Sweet Chariot song came to life and the Visitors were thanked to joining DH3 AGPU. The circle was closed with more wine and holy biscuits and communion bread, followed by "Fuck off ya bastards....."

OVER TO THE NEW COMMITTEE to let their hares be wild and free.
