Run 2755

The Hare – Gropa

Rotunda near Pee Wees at East Point

Run = 2.93km through the Monsoon
Rainforest Walk = 2.78km

GM Rice Master the 13 harriers plus to Gropa's destructions on fresh pink bits and onto the piss stop! Gropa tells HIV he can run 3 laps or do his own thing, and HIV says as long as the hare is at the piss stop before me!

Jensett & Chilli Bush sausage keepers

The Circle Run Report

GM says there is not many harriers as it's a bush run.....

HIV, says the run was short, shaded and the piss stop came before me! Rated F3/10.

HIV the only runner as Gropa & BackPage are on strike

Oops, says the walk was fantastic as the path had a blow job and the leafy pubes were all bare, there is not much tape or chalk, we walked for miles and miles and had shit company, hills were horrific rated 25°/10! (Damn hard finding the degree symbol, thanks Jensett!)

GM described there was a vicious wallaby, bush chooks and rated 2.5 outa 10.

Nosh was Gropa's gourmet sausages, onions and bread with butter and sauce. Sorry BackPage was cooking and didn't get any pics.

OBE rated snags nosh better cooked than raw/10, bar set high, as we all had sausage withdrawals!

Cricket says that HIV recalls by the time you skin them and gut them there is fuck all left!

Hare Gropa was introduced by "and the hare on dickie di doe hang down to his nees". Gropa described being lapped by walkers whilst setting trail (ohh in his dreams), with a limp dick. Gropa serenaded to Shitty Trail.

Jokes

Rocketman there were 3 surgeons talking about their patients and who was the easiest to work on. One surgeon says Electricians are the best as they are colour coded. Another surgeon says the librarians are the best as they are in alphabetical order. The final surgeon says politicians are the easiest as they have no heart, no gut, no spine, no brain and the asshole and head are interchangeable. (heard this one before)

OBE went to ice hockey, asked his mate "why is corner curved instead of at right angles"? His mate says "if they were 90 degrees, the ice would melt (some crowd comments included HIV obtuse, how many raidians, about 1.8, OBE a pie on 2?

Rocketman another joke and scribe didn't catch up.
