The Hares – Gash The Run: Lee Point

Gash had selected the small park just before the bottom car park. We all drove past thinking “Who is that wanker in the ute blocking the hadicapped parking spot?” But Gash had a plan as he wandered over to Dibba Dobba and asked her to park in the handicapped spot. With a quick rearranging of the parking we now had our own spot away from the great unwashed main carparks where we could enjoy our community activity in peace.

The run brief went as usual, “green tape in the trees,” interjections from the crowd, “white chalk on the sand” more interjections, “there is a piss stop,” actual enthusiam, “now bugger off you mob.”

So it was down to the beach and off along the path towards Buffalo Creek, past the old gun pit, turn right and then for the long climb up Buffalo Creek road to a drink stop manned by the hare Gash at the corner of Buffalo Creek & Lee Point roads.

I have to admit after falsely telling everybody in the shit sheet to bring a plate, I thought I would be a shoe in for the Chook Fucker, but I am a lowly amateur to Gash. A delightful heart warming rum and coke concoction was waiting but without a chalice. “what no farking cups?” Even jesus could not get a drink, if you poured it into his clasped hands it would leak through the nail holes.

With no empty green cans lying on the side of the road we had to make do with a dirty greasy stubby cooler with a hole in the middle, found lurking under the back seat of the ute. With a finger over the hole in the bottom you could scoop up and down a drink before it all leaked out. A lovely drink stop although the burnt rubber aftertaste of the stubby cooler was a bit rough.

The Circle

Meanwhile back at the circle we had found some cups and were busy imbibing the drink stop.

The acting GM ☹️'s begins
"Hash Quiet, why do we always have to wait for Ricemaster to stop talking?"

Visitors

"Killer come on up" It's a public holiday so Killer will always be here, in fact recently he has attended more than most of our regular members. "St Physio please assault our eardrums with another awful rendition of." "Oh where oh why ...."

The Chook (&shirt)

Gensett advised that she had the chook and proceeded to draw out what would be an obvious result. The chook was forced to go around the circle and look at each of the unlikely candidates and sqwark every now and then. Gash tries to bolt from the circle on some lame excuse that he had to go and get a plate, but the circle was having none of it. "Oh what a feeling Chook Fucker"

Fines

St Physio staggers forth and asks "Who doesn't read emails from the Hash Scribe and brought along a plate?" The sound of anguish escaped the lips of Ricemaster. Get up there next to the acting GM ☹️'s who had also made the sound "oops."

Cricket interjects with "I think HIV should have got the chook for putting misleading information in the shit sheet." "In my defence I am a cocked up fucksuker" HIV retorted. "Here's to these pri...."

Jokes

Cricket puts down his cup of drinkstop to ask "What is the difference between Ironman and Iron woman?" "Iron man is a superhero and the other is a command."

Gensett "When I play golf I wear one sock on one foot and two socks on the other one. Why, because I might get a hole in one." The bar lowers.

St Physio finishes the drinkstop from his shoe and tells of going to his neighbours place where the mother in law was out in the garden, she was sweeping and cleaning and working, so I said to my neighbour, "A women's work is never done." He replied "that is why they don't get paid as much."

Cricket told of Tiger Woods heading to a tournament when he stop for fuel at a petrol station. He bends over to put the fuel nozzle in the tank when a couple of Tees fall out of his pocket onto the ground. And Old Timer asks "Bejesus what are those things for?" Tiger replies "They hold my balls while I am driving." The Old Timer replies "Bejesus them folks from BMW think of everything."

Lord OBE explains why Samarai Swords will never go out of date, because they are cutting edge technology.

The Hare – Gash Run Report

The acting GM OOp's asks Dibba Dobba what she thought of the run. "Four and a half bloody K's" Then TowJob remembers going to go down on a Siberian Seagull but they weren't there so he had to follow trail. "It was easy as Dibba Dobba was collecting and carrying all the tape." The acting GM OOp's changes tack and says "Lord OBE give it a score." Lord OBE advises "I am feeling generous GM, 3.8K's so I will give it double 7.6." The acting GM OOp's "Excellent so 7.6 divided by 7.6 equals 1. Done the score is one."

The Tucker – Gash

Guest loved the thin and crispy crust of the pizza's. Gash trying to outdo Rocketmans gourmet pizza's found he could simply order regular pizza's on a public holiday and pay a surcharge so they would be a more expensive pizza.

St Physio's Thought of the Week

If you were in a room with all your sexual partners at the same time, what would you say to them? "Please disregard the goat, at least until you have heard the full story."

Siberian Seagulls eh!

AGPU – 31Mei – 01Jun

Marrakai/Corroborree. The lawns will be mown and Katherine Hash will be visiting.
