Run 2744

Hares – Pickles (Prickles)

THE RUN #2744

Pickles (Prickles) run.

Backpage was missing in action again so poor old Physio is doing the she sheet.

Smack on 6pm the GM called the Hare up who promptly sent us on our way on orange tape. Up Stuart Highway, right into Hook Rd and into the bush at the back of the showgrounds. Lots of bush tracks and up and down rocky hills, then a difficult crossing of a newly ploughed up field, then back on to Stuart Highway for a welcome piss stop of beer and a teaspoon of Green Ginger Wine. Your scribe and Sexon agree the run was 3.81km. We were home before dark.

THE CIRCLE

GM, Ricemaster, ably assisted by Choirmaster Gropa commenced the Circle after the tucker. Rice welcomed us to run 2744 then pointed out that we were at the old Weighbridge and the lights are still there. Oops was asked for her opinion of the run. Shitty ground, good Hash run. Rocketman was asked about the tucker. He gave it 5/10 for the snags and onions.

Boots OBE Barbwire

CHOOKFUCKA

Enola and HIV were missing in action so the Chook stays with their other feathered friends for another week.

FINES

My notes say Lighteup, piss stop, very weak green ginger mixed with the beer. I think Lightenup was trying to fine the Hare but it went nowhere. Towjop tried to fine the Hare for lack of tape. Not Guilty. The tape was there, it was very low to the ground though.

JOKES

Rocketman told a wetcheck joke and Physio told a Wedding joke. Both weren't very good.

The Hare

Pickles set a pretty good run, short but not easy to navigate. The Pack reckoned he must have had a midget set it because the tape was very low to the ground. The Hare must have been very low on Green Ginger Wine for the Piss Stop because there was not much of it in with the beer.

The Tucker

Very nice traditional bangers and onions.

NEXT WEEKS RUN

Physio. Entrance to New Dum Gay. Corner of Vanderlin Drive and Shoal Bay entrance road. (no you idiots, not the entrance to Shoal Bay, it is the entrance road to the Shoal Bay dump)

TOUR DE PISS

Saturday 12th July at Mandorah. The Mandorah TDPs in the past have been excellent.
