

Would You

By: Sierra Lewandowski

If you saw a flame
Would you fuel it
If you heard a cry
Would you help

If you felt the light
Would you seek it
Would you seek to save
A girl like myself

So as I walked upon
My path of fate
You just stumbled
Into place

Was that intentional
I don't know
Is it fate
I don't know

But if you saw me lying
On the street
Would you come
And help me

Would you
Even care

And if you saw me
Drowning in a lake
Of abusement
And so much hate

Would you
Throw me a ring
Would you
Dive in
