Because Of You

By: Sierra Lewandowski

When you were
At your best
I was at
My worst

While you
Were flying high
I was left
In the dirt

When you say
That you love me
I feel so
In doubt

Because the things
That you have taught me
Are what I believe
Now

For you rewrote me
Made me new
Made me trust things
That weren't true

Made me doubt
Made me blue
Everything I am now
Is because of you

So if you miss it
I'm sorry
But you broke it
You broke me

And don't you dare say
It was nothing
When you were
Searching for the door

Made me feel
Like your chore
And it was clear
I loved you more
