

Burn The Files

By: Sierra Lewandowski

Burn the files
Burn all the records
Guess your burning desires
Didn't last forever

All those words
Written or said
Are burning in
My head

The promises
You made
The hopes
You created

Became
My whole world
Now I lay and watch
Them burn

I'm the girl
I've always been
But you are
So different

You've changed
And you've grown
Into a man
I don't know

Where did
My darling go

They burned all the files
They found at the scene
Our love set in flames
Is now history

But I stayed there
Frozen in time
At the site where
It all burned down

Picking up what's left
Of our fervent love
From the scraps
Scorched to the ground
