

Sick Delusions

By: Sierra Lewandowski

So if you're gonna
Do this to me
At least just do it
Right

Cause I have seen it
Time after time
Over and over
I'm never surprised
It's just a tap on the shoulder

Just to let me know
That apparently
You never even
Liked me

And then you complain
That I'm a horrible person
And that this whole time
I was always your burden

Two years of friendship
Was all just worthless
According to you
And your sick delusions

So you send me a text
Drier than the desert
Say you're upset
Then leave me
To question

What nice thing
I did to you
To make you say
The ugly things
You do

But I'm not sad
I'm just sorry
For you
I've been through
Enough of these
To know
How it goes

People don't search
For simple solutions
They're always stuck up
In their sick delusions

That's just how it works
It's the way of the world
So I'll let it run its course
Because I know how much
I'm worth
