

Rest In Peace

By: Sierra Lewandowski

Rest in peace
To the old me
And to the old
Version of you

Rest in peace
To the forgotten dream
And to the ones
Who believed it too

We throw down the roses
We look towards the sky
May our prayers be heard
And our hearts made light

May we persevere
As we mourn the loss
Of what could've been
The one

Rest in peace
My epiphany
Glide back home
To the imaginary

Never wish too hard
Never shoot to high
Cause to love is to lose
In great sacrifice

Rest in peace
My love and my life
May you lay
In soft silence tonight
