

Better Off As Friends

By: Sierra Lewandowski

Is this what it's like
To follow you from far behind
Always chasing to comply
Thinking where we'll go this time

Is this some grand mistake
Or some revived lost old fate
Am I bearing down too hard
Or giving up before the start

Over all this time apart
I've felt myself losing my spark
Thinking who have I become
Will my heart ever love

Feel so stuck on what to do
Which next path I then must choose
Where am I to go from here
Will I live held in this fear

That you'll leave me again
Choose her and then pretend
That you loved me all along
That you cared but lead me on

Gotta run, hide, or fight
Got my guard up all the time
Maybe I'm better off alone
Your every move was just for show

Help me to connect the dots
Where it was we got set off
Could we ever return back
To whatever it was we had

Is it all just too far gone
I know myself I'll count as one
For I'm picking up what's left
Of the girl who would not rest

To keep your heart held close so tight
To not be lost into the night
By the thoughts that overcome
Who you are and all you know

Of yourself and what is true
What is meant for me and you
Maybe we'll just never know
Maybe we'll ignore the blow

Maybe you could be the thing I need
And I could be you're everything
But there's a chance that in the end
We were better off as friends

Sierra Lewandowski ©