

Keep

By: Sierra Lewandowski

What if I were to be dressed
In all white looking my best
Smile blazed across my face
Can't make it go away

What a day that would be
What a strange epiphany
As the sun begins to set
Is when these thoughts
Enter my head

I just wanted to be loved
For who I really was
To be cared for by someone
To mean just as much

You'll say that you'll never leave
Or you'll keep waiting for me
But I'll never be the girl
That you keep

Anyone could love me
But who could stay
Who could be the one
I'd walk down to someday

Who could watch me as I rise
Catch me when I start to fall
Be always by my side
Never leaving me all alone

I can dream
I can wish
For you
To be him

But as for me
I'll never be
The one that
You keep

Sierra Lewandowski ©