In willow
There's a way
In the morning
There is day

In the valley
There's a place
Where peace is Found

It's not all
That far
From right where
You are

But right
Where you are
Is where I long
To be

For you don't
Have to be lost
To be found

And if I had a pen
I'd tell you
Write this down

People may come
And people may go
But when all seems lost
There's still willow

And you don't have
To be hurt to be healed
You're never alone
Because I'm right here

Cause in willow
There's a way
In the morning
There is day

In the valley
There's a place
Where peace is
Found

There's a willow
On the banks
Where the birds
Sing aloud

Where the skies
Clear of clouds
And there is Healing

It's not
All that far
From right where
You are

But right
Where you are
Is where I long
To be

And I
Hope to Walk with
You again
