

Sunset

By: Sierra Lewandowski

Sweet like the sunset
In my eyes
Bursting with color
You mystify

You paint my world
In glistening hope
Wherever you lead
I will follow

Your touch is warm
Like the sun on my skin
When I'm scared and cold
You'll pull me in

And tell me everything
I need to hear

You're like no other
I've ever met
You're so kind so smart
So different

Again and again
I find myself with you

Can't seem to run
Like I always do
Your gentle love
Is breaking through

All the parts of me
Of which I hate the most

So when the sun sets
And the land gets dark
You'll take my hand
Guide me through the fog

To where it is that
I'll be safe and sound

You're sweet like the sunset
In my eyes
Bursting with color
You mystify

You believed in me
So now I believe in you
And you believed in us
So now I believe it too
