

We Were Happy

By: Sierra Lewandowski

We were happy
Just smiling on the couch
We were happy
We had nothing to worry about

We were happy
All together
Smiling forever
We were happy

And I never thought
That we'd fall apart
But that's where it starts
It shatters the heart

That feeling of sinking
Like everyone's leaving
Like you're on your own
Now my smiles gone

And we were happy
All smiling on the couch
We had nothing to worry about
Cause we were happy

Now we're gone
And we're drifting away
Not one thing
Has stayed the same

They're all
Just leaving me
Now I must hold on
To this sad song

Cause it brings me back
To the days
When we were happy
Those smiles on their faces

We were happy
Now the smiles are all gone
Everyones moved on
But we were happy once
