WE'VE MOVED to a GREAT NEW OFFICE BUILDING TO BETTER SERVE OUR CLIENTS!

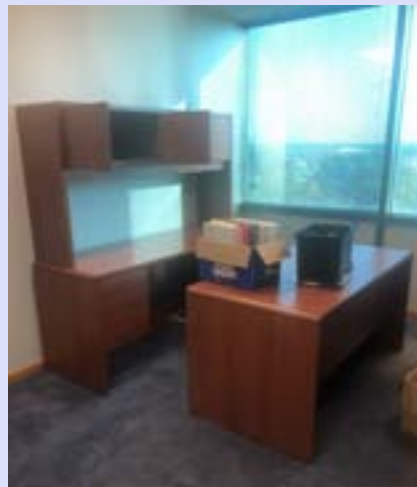

The Nutter Center for Empowering Women is located in Suite 404.

The Nutter Center for Empowering Women, Inc. has moved to larger spaces.

You can't miss the building- it's a distinctive square office building with gold windows, 7 stories high off Brice Road and Channingway. We're located in suite 404. The Nutter Center for Empowering Women Inc. now has a reception room, a good sized conference room, a kitchenette, therapist offices and extra case manager and consult offices as we continue to grow our team.

You may notice we're calling ourselves The Nutter Center for Empowerment- if you have seen our new conference and event display. That's because we're also working with men who may have felt disempowered through life's experiences. Donovan Stevens brings a practical approach to our programming & office management. ### NCEW Now has a QR Code Linked to It's Website

The Nutter Center for Empowering Women, Inc. makes it easy for clients to scan the QR code with a cell phone and go directly to the website for updates, registration and eventually course content links.

NCEW Offers Workshop Webinars on Zoom

Clients will be able to take workshops on-line, via Zoom webinar for when classroom attendance is not always practical.

This has been a significant asset for out of state train the trainer clients with the State of Arkansas Human Services and The University of Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

NCEW Teams Up with UNPREM at Anti-Gun Violence Event

As part of the 2021 anti-gun violence initiative, The Nutter Center for Empowering Women had a resource table for visitors to the event to offer more information about The Success Program and other initiatives focused on healing, education, career and life skills programming. Peer Supporter, Deborah Nutter greets visitors at the table.

Collaboration between The Gap Initiative and The Success Program© Announced in October 2021.

The Nutter Center for Empowering Women, Inc. announced a new collaboration and partnership between The SUCCESS Program and The Gap Initiative. The Nutter Center for Empowering Women's SUCCESS Program is a 5-Step Program that was created to empower, educate and attain sustainable wage employment, to help break the generational cycle of welfare dependency and out-of-wedlock pregnancies.

The Gap Initiative is a local non profit providing tutoring, mentorship and behavioral health services to low-performing students who have challenges thriving in a traditional classroom setting.

With this new and innovative collaboration The Nutter Center for Empowering Women and The Gap Initiative join forces and together, support the entire family in delivering their very unique programming and their expertise in mental health/behavioral health services in providing life-skills training through workshops, behavioral health treatment and services through individual and group services, vocational and job skills development, tutoring, and mentorship programming.
