VitalWatch²⁴ utilizes the HELO LX+, a revolutionary wearable device that allows around the clock recording and transmission of a person's vital signs and other health metrics to our clinicians at our remote monitoring station. It's hospital level monitoring for the at home individual!

VitalWatch²⁴ clinicians receive alerts whenever a client's vital signs fall outside of set parameters. If something doesn't look right, we'll contact you to see how you're doing. If there's an issue, we'll review your vital sign readings, health history, medications, etc. to see if we can rectify it remotely. If not, a Registered Nurse can perform an in-home visit to more fully assess what needs to be done or if your doctor needs to be notified.
