

Wine and Spirits/Whisky Authentication Seminars

14 - 16 March, Singapore

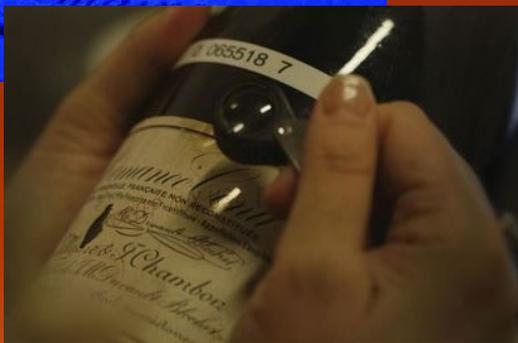

A fascinating, eye-opening series of talks looking at the challenges that arise in ensuring the integrity of fine and rare wine and whisky led by world-renowned wine authentication experts Maureen Downey, Siobhan Turner MW and spirits expert Isabel Graham-Yooll.

Who should attend:

Fine and rare wine and spirits professionals who acknowledge the importance of authenticity, prioritize integrity, and recognize the reputational and potentially costly risks in not providing clients with properly vetted, genuine offers.

Wine collectors seeking to ensure their investments of money, space, time, and care result in enjoyable experiences, not disappointments and problems.

Wine program: 3 wine sessions in 2 days, each expanding on the previous.

- Wine fraud in global markets
- The most frequent counterfeiting methods
- Recently uncovered counterfeits, markets and threats
- Essential techniques for authentication with hands on workshopping
- Examination of the importance and assessment of bottle condition

Spirits program: Monday is a comprehensive session dedicated to spirits fraud, particularly whisky, including in-depth consideration of authentication methods unique to spirits bottles.
