

New (and Final) One Hour War Date

December 24th. 2025

I'm extremely sorry if my December 20th, 2025, (Gregorian) One Hour War prediction failure inconvenienced or alarmed anyone. The silver lining is: it was necessary to miss that date to learn the correct One Hour War date (sometimes called the Destruction Date) –which is only days away.¹

If you have time, I encourage you to read the full story of how I found the new date, in The Shroud of God, which shows dates and messages hidden in the Shroud of Turin –God even reveals the year He created the Shroud.

This brief sheet to provide basic bullets about the One Hour War date/times.

The following reference keys are provide for concision.

Literary Key

Revelation 2: The Solutions = Rev 2

Steve's Top secret Notebook = STSN

The Wagers = W

Shroud of God = SG

Art / Acheiropoieta Key

Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe = NSdG

The Shroud of Turin = the Shroud

When December 20th passed quietly, I suspected that when God changed the Beast in 1888 (see STSN or W for more) he also changed the One Hour War date. However, the new dates (SG) suggests God has always intended to use this “new” One Hour War date. I say this based on the impactful way the date utilizes many key Revelation focal points.

The date was found in the Shroud of Turin, numerous times, on all three major calendars (Julian, Yin, Gregorian), and is further confirmed by date images found in NSdG and the Elder Badge (see STSN).

Thus, the date of the Event, is set by the Shroud of Turin, and...

...the time of the event is set by Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.
