

Juan

Diego's

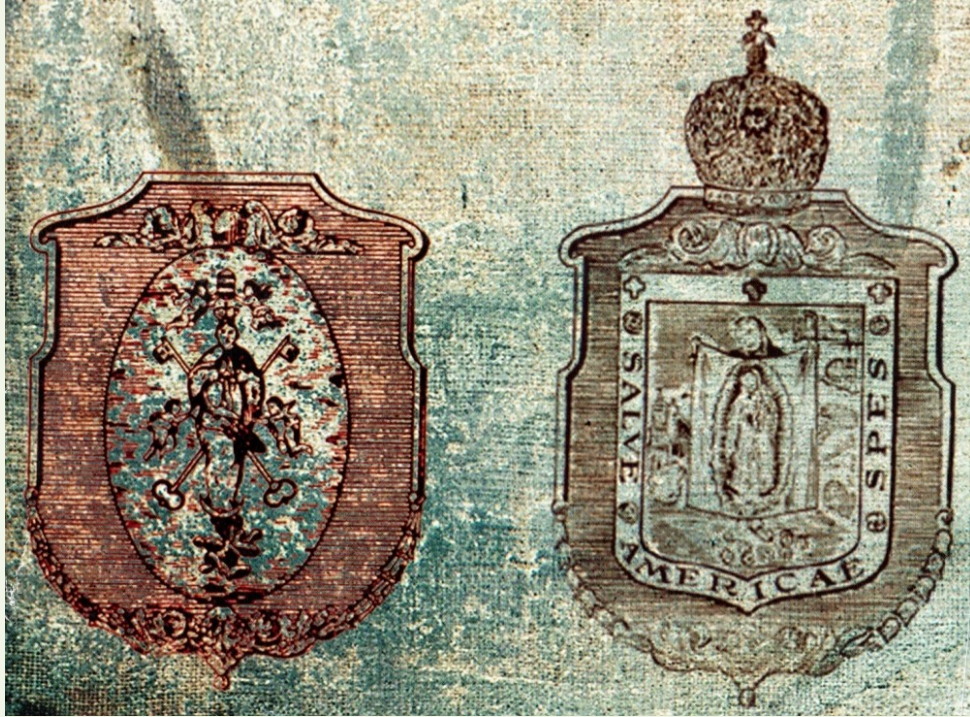

Badge

Steven Kenyatta
Briggs (Yayayar)

This is Juan Diego's Badge -also called the Juan Diego Badge; named after Juan Diego Cuauhtlatotzin.

Juan Diego's Badge is one of two small badges located in the lower left corner of Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. To learn more, I encourage you to read Killing Guadalupe. You can also learn more in The Wagers, The Elder Badge, and Steve's Top Secret Notebook. Killing Guadalupe remains the best source of images from the Juan Diego Badge.

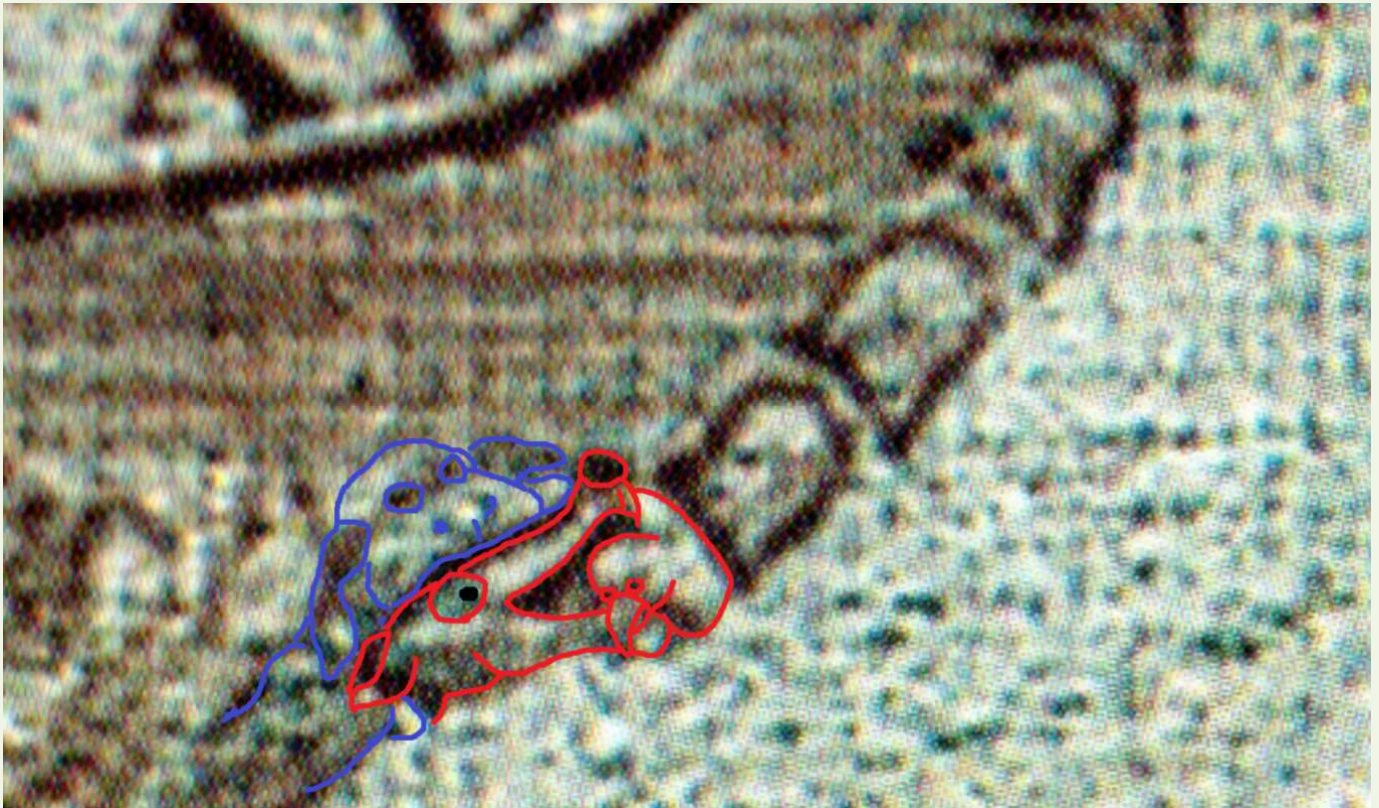

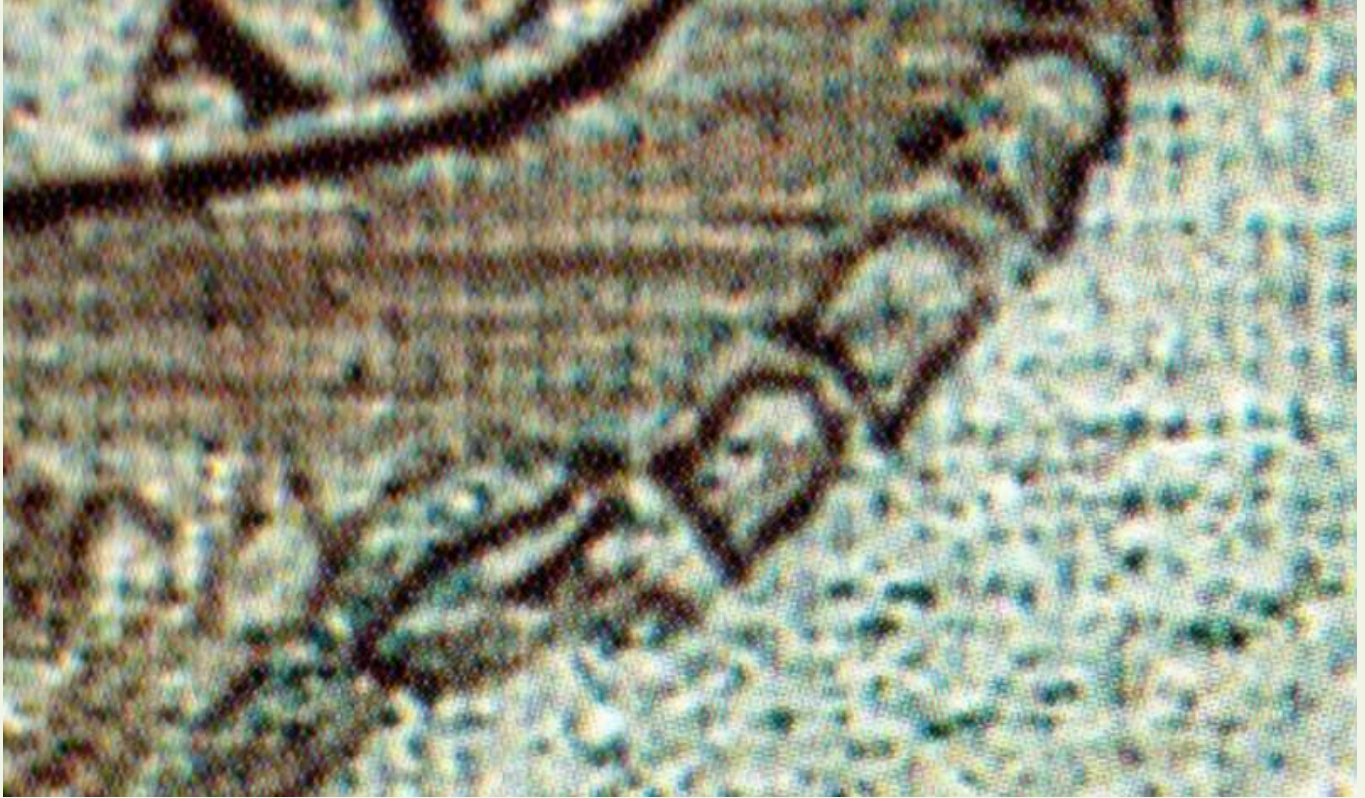

This mini-book was created in a couple of hours, the afternoon of May 26th, 2025, and was intended to be sort of a scrapbook of images, without a lot of words.

What follows are images found in the Juan Diego Badge. I added outlines to many of the images, and added color to a few.

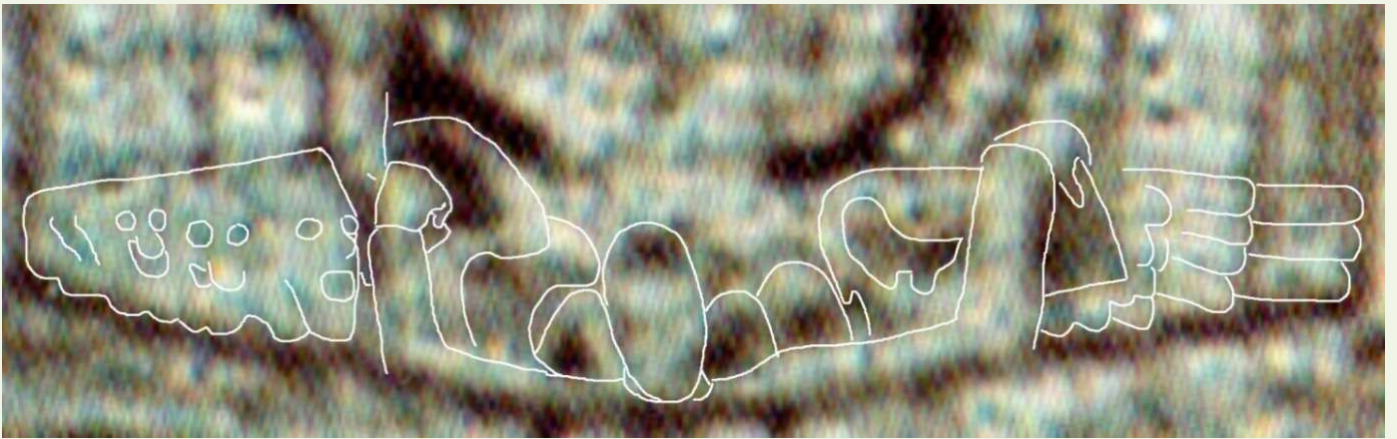

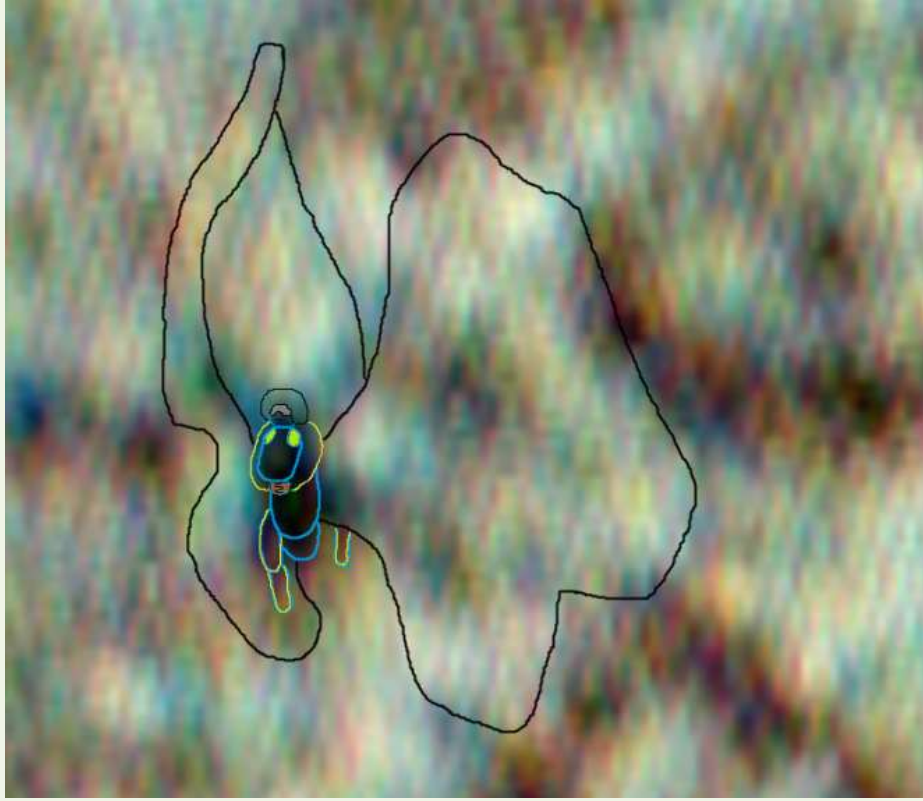

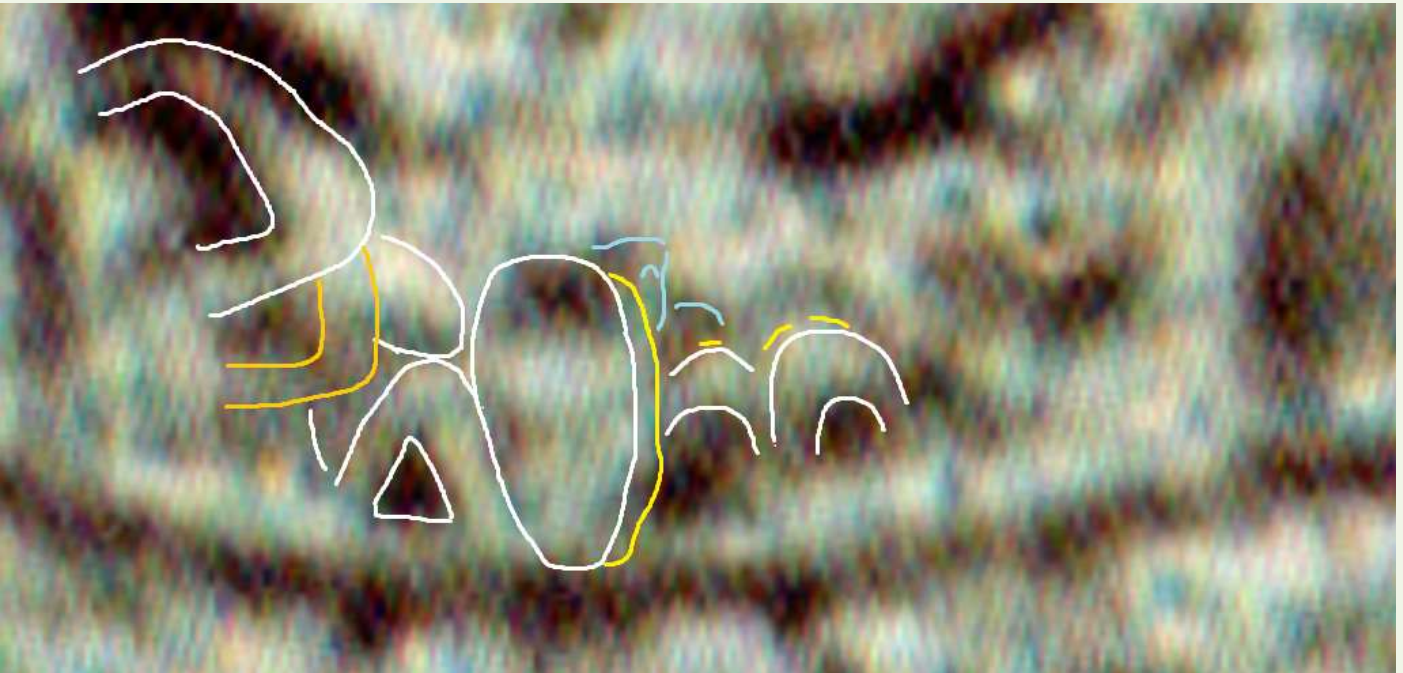

In the center of Juan Diego's Badge, Juan Diego once held a perfect tiny copy of Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, until the badge was severely damaged by nitric acid, in 1820.

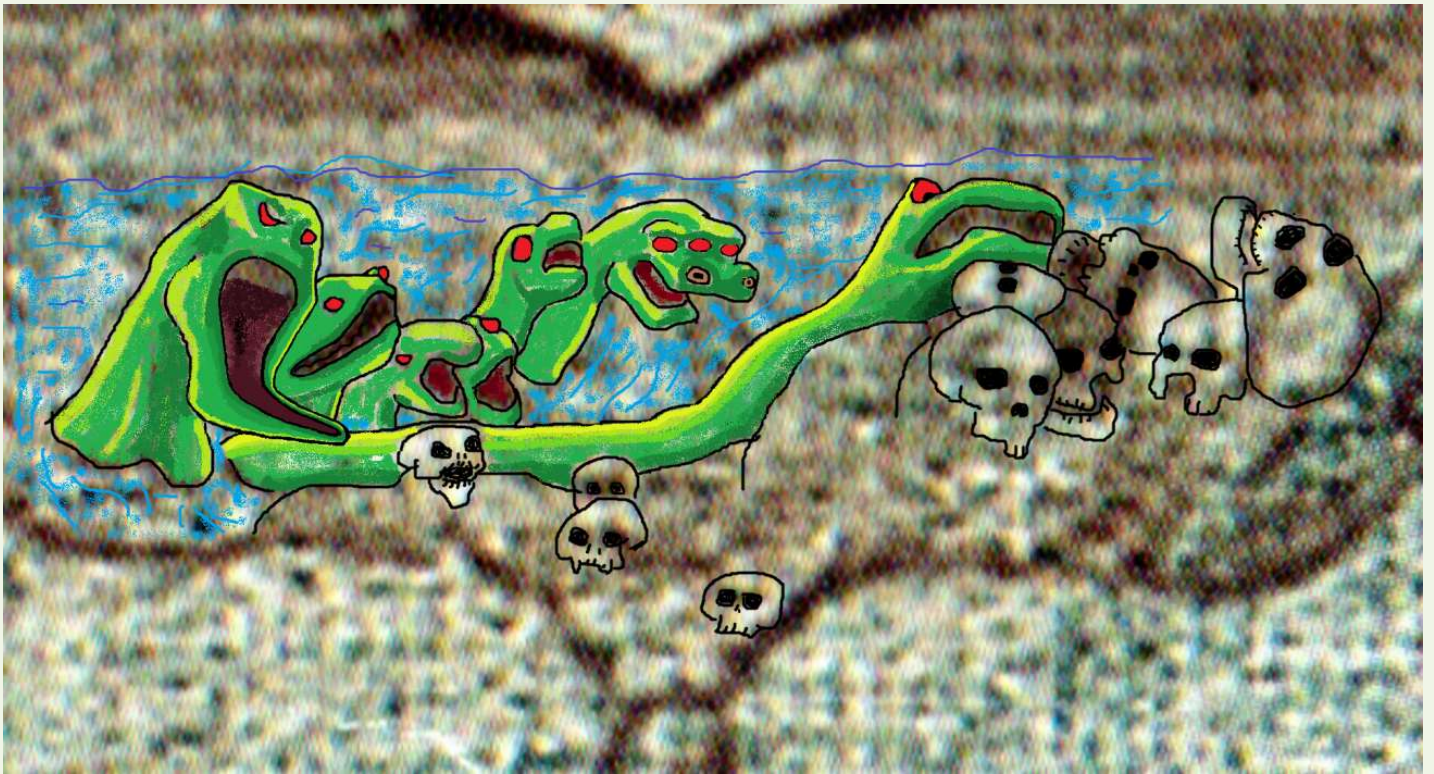

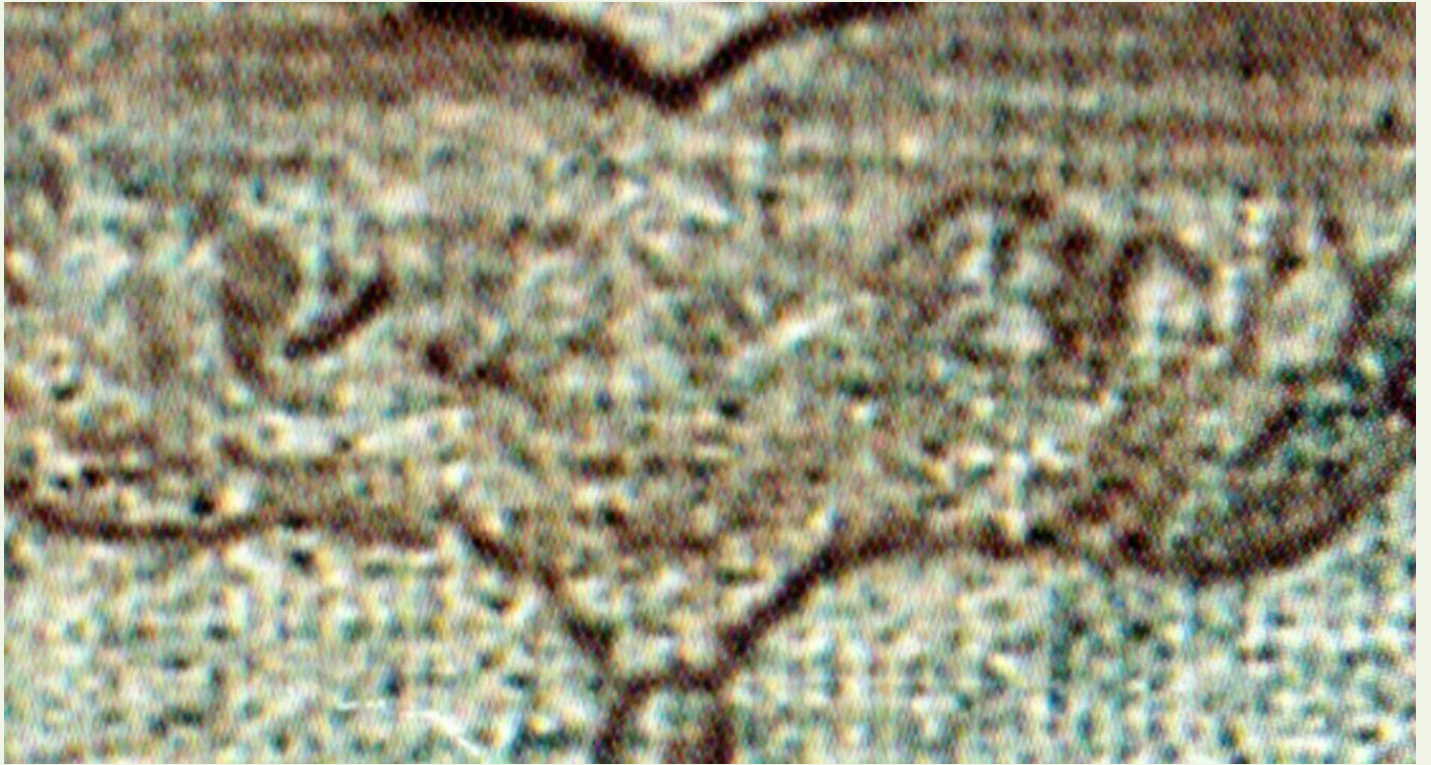

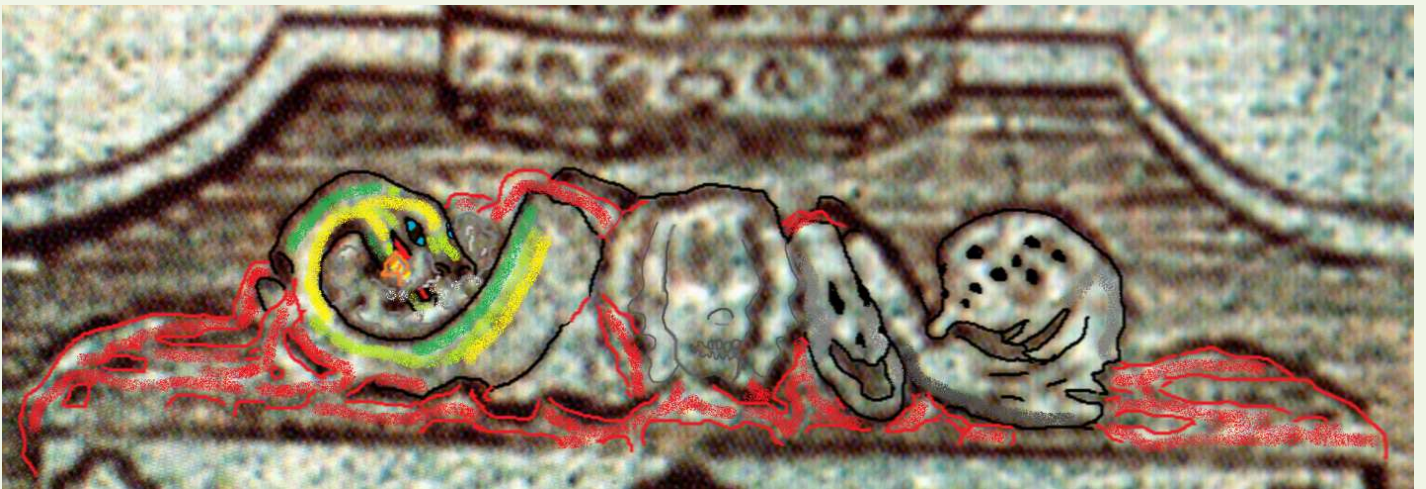

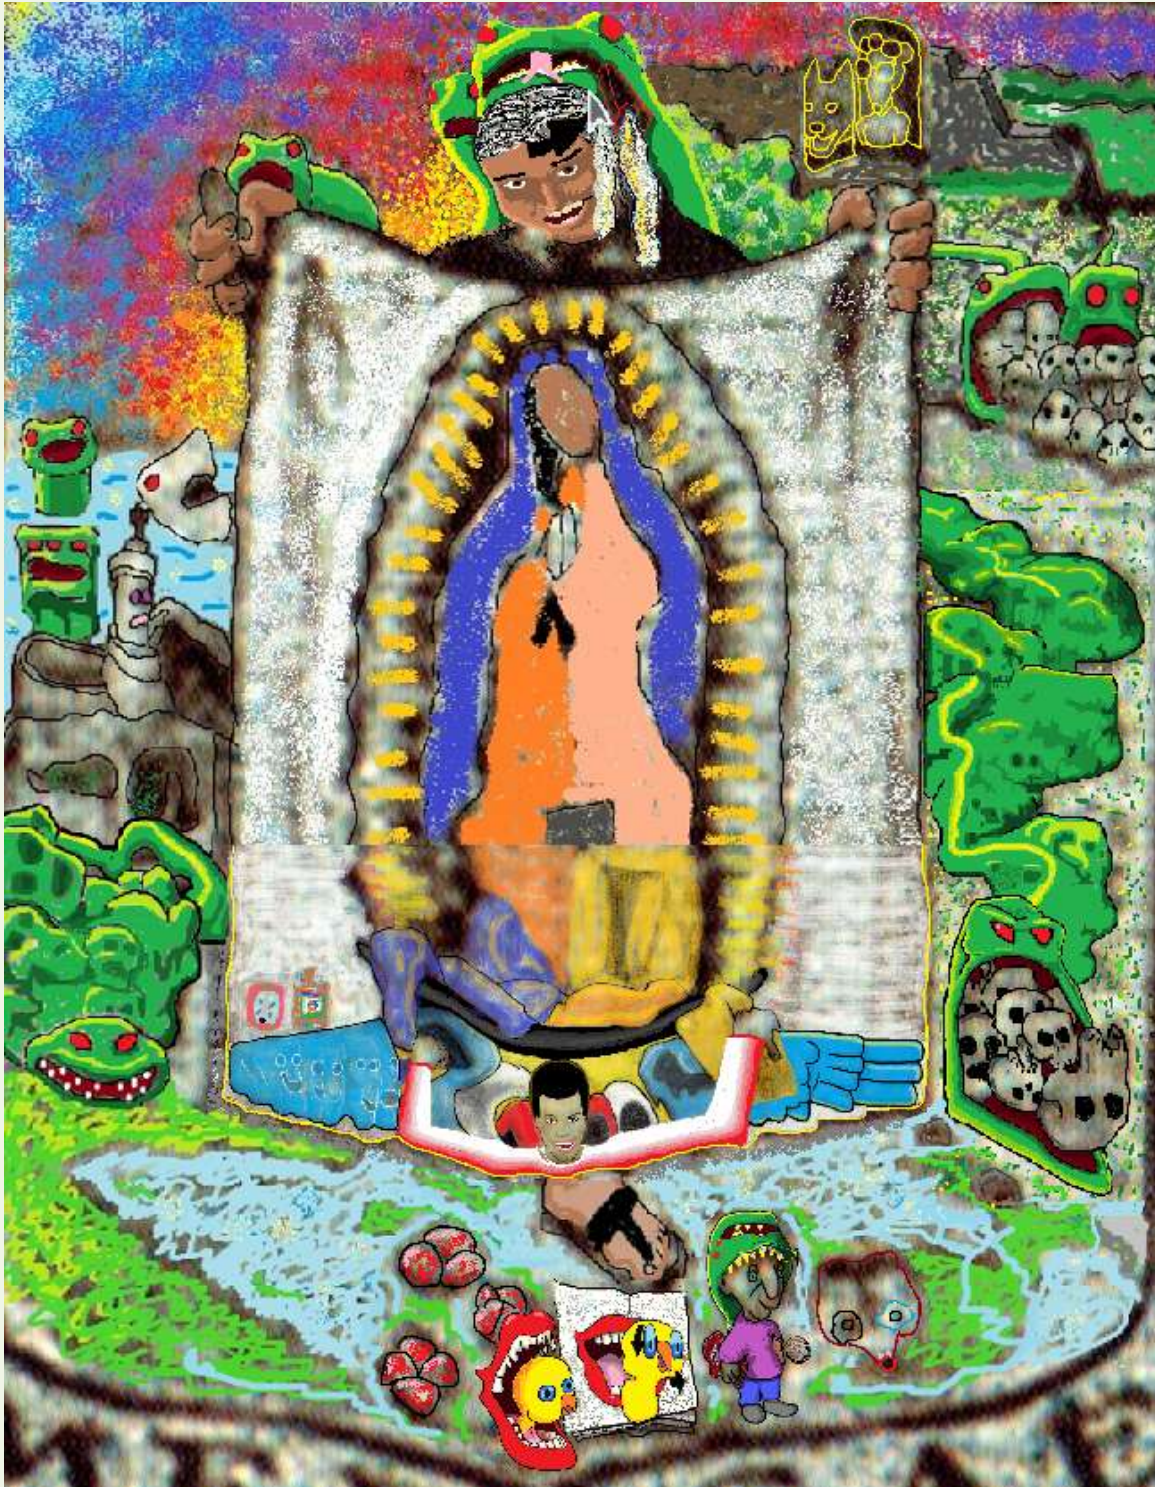

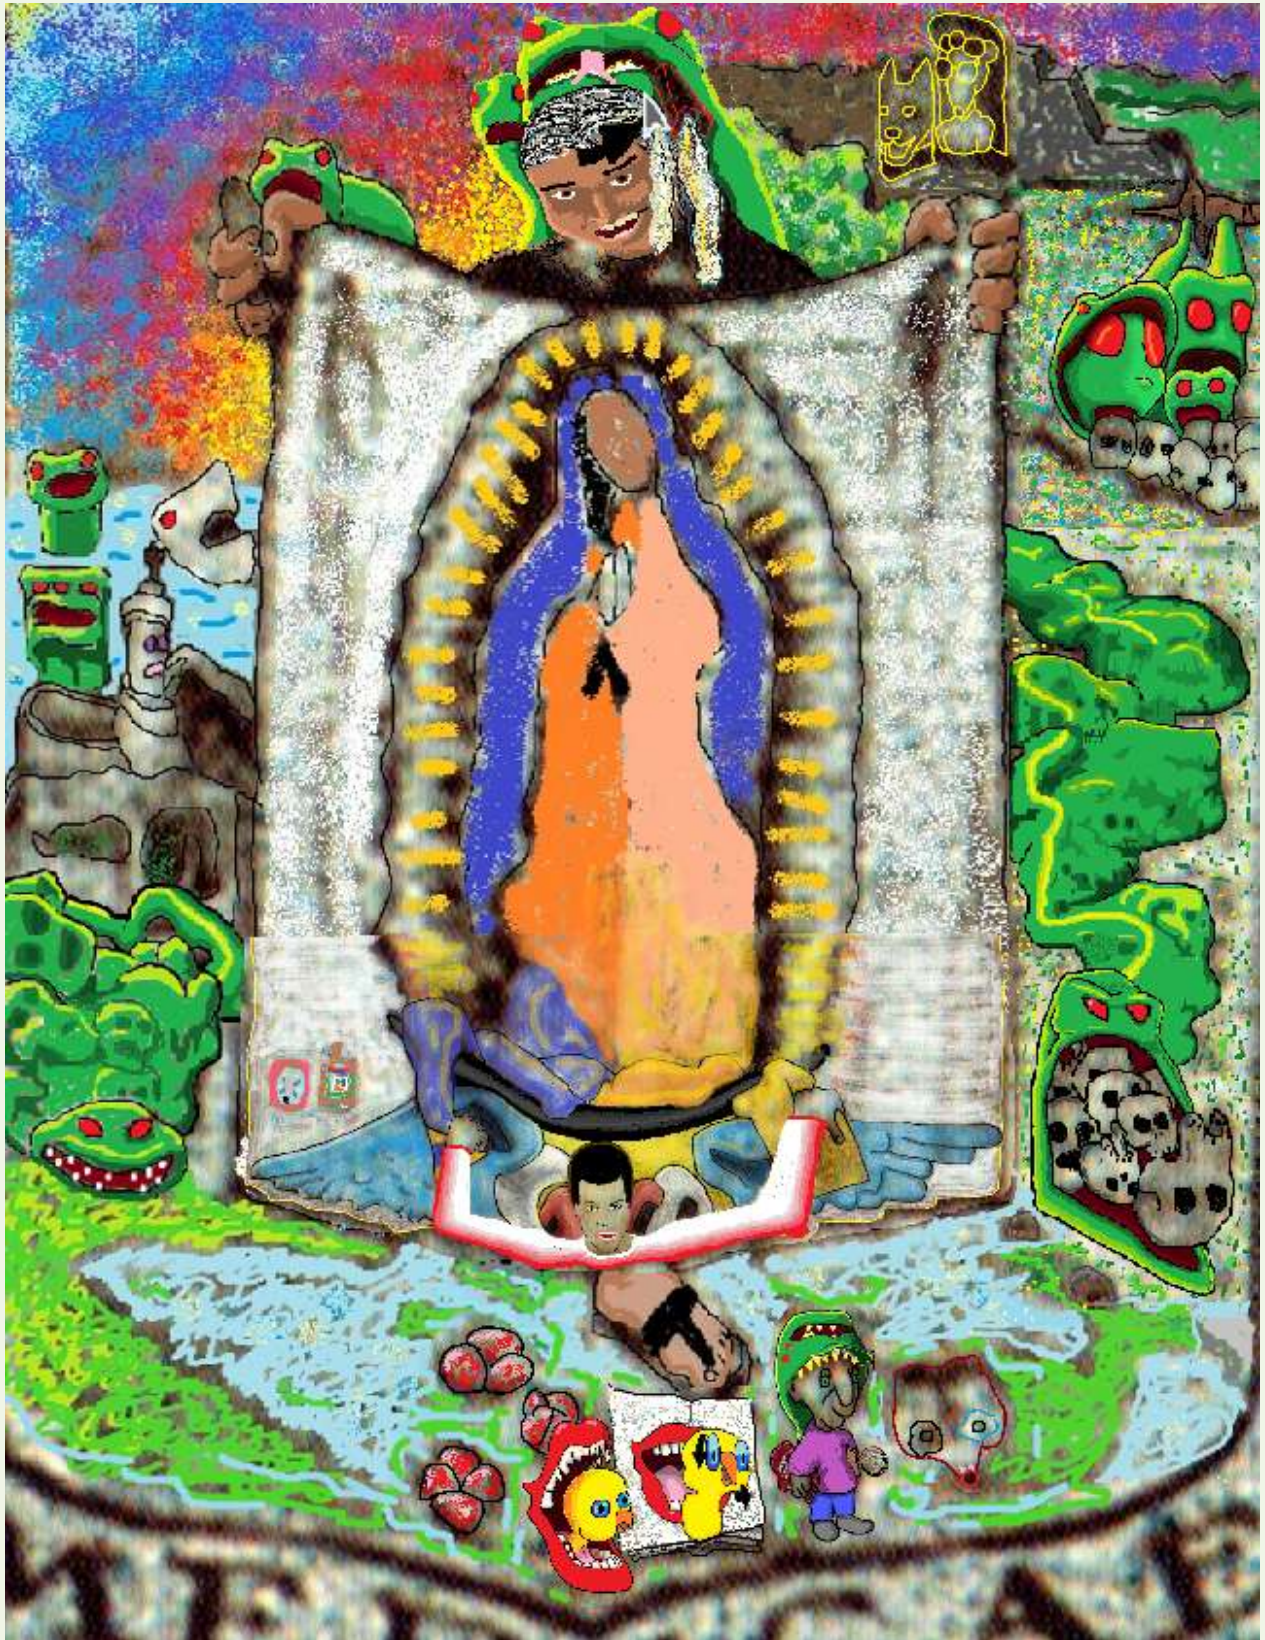

Juan Diego's Badge reveals the original Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe image was holographic –or lenticular; meaning, it moved when you viewed it at different angles. This section of Juan Diego's Badge, above, shows the original 6-winged angel's head moved, as did the arch of the leftmost wing.

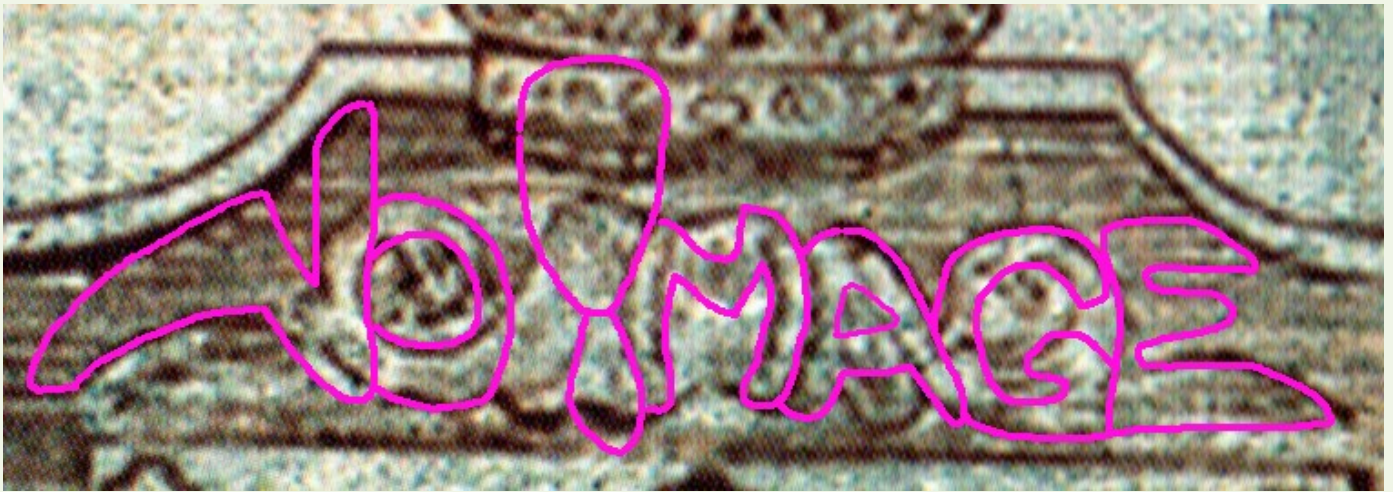

This is sort of how I originally saw the central image (although seeing some of the images within this image, correctly, took weeks). Later, I saw the image more as you see it on the next page (although, today, I see the eyes of the young snake-beast coming out of its parent's mouth, on the left, much smaller than depicted).

Killing Guadalupe reveals Juan Diego was a super giant: 257cm or 8'-5" tall.

This book was originally written in May 2025.

A year later, in May 2026, I published Line 5: The Hands That Rocked Time (L5THTRT), which may be the most important of my Revelation-related books, as it solves the Emanuel mystery and reveals and explains the 6 timelines of mankind. Steve-A, one of the heroes of L5THTRT, likely used the Juan Diego Badge (which God carried over to Line 6 from Line 5) to confirm that Satan did not establish Image Crimes on Line 5.

There are 400 words in this scrapbook, including these.

First published on May 26th, 2025 (Gregorian). Updated May 29th, 2026 (Julian calendar); or June 11th, 2026 (Gregorian calendar); or 4724, 4th Month 26 (Yin calendar).