

Clearly the Two Hour War (2HW) did not happen. In the last 18 months, I published solutions showing that God occasionally changes His prophecies –but He invariably foretells of these changes. I'm pretty sure I have already found how He foretold of the 2HW change. I'll publish that info soon (probably in Revelation 2: The Solutions, and/or Steve's Super Secret Solutions). However, this website may not be up much longer; money is nil, so I have to give some attention to survival matters and spending priorities. Yes, I am wise enough to prioritize God –demonstrated over the past 3 years, and the many Revelation-related books published on this site. If God still views this as worthy, money or resources will fall into place.

Another factor in considering reducing my Revelation work has to do with God and Satan's Wagers (those of you who have not read the books or mini-books The Wagers, or Line 5: The Hands That Rocked Time, or Steve's Top-Secret Notebook, etc, may not understand this passage). Satan went to War with God. Consequently, God dealt surprisingly firmly with Satan, and maybe not entirely fairly. But, as I explained in L5:THTRT, Satan behaved sort of like a dishonorable "gold-digging" woman, and did not walk away from the situation; he wanted more and more power from God, so he endured every humiliation. Later, when I entered the Wager (although I did not know I was in the Wagers for decades) God also dealt with me pretty firmly; I think because He did not want to be seen as harming one party but helping the other. So, although I want to help solve God's mysteries, I want to measure my actions –and not behave dishonorably or dependently. If my efforts are useful, God and Jesus will make things fall into place.

I've taken a few books down. The Revelation Two Hour War Date & Time Codes will remain posted. I view those solution as irrefutable evidence of God and His daunting genius.

My heartfelt appreciation to any and all of you who ever found any book on this website useful.
