Steve's Top-Secret Notebook

I started writing this booklet around midnight, May 23rd, 2025, and published the first version of this booklet later that day. This booklet was intended to address matters not addressed, or fully addressed, in my Revelation 2 solutions or related books and booklets, and was intended to be periodically updated –a sort of a semi-random catchall.

See the “10 Level of Gehenna (Hell),” pages 18 to 21, added June 2nd, 2025 (also featured in The Elder Badge).

THE NOTES

- I have speculated in various recently released or updated publications about why God rescheduled His hour or wrath -the One Hour War- of Revelation, Chapter 18, etc. All of my previous ideas are sound, but the most likely reason is:

God gave us Law, and a systematic way of administering it. In solution #247 of the current version of Revelation 2: The Solutions, I explained that "*Chapter 22 represents the final page of Revelation –God's public notice to the US/West of His Judgment and coming punishment." So Revelation acts as the Accused's formal notice, the actual Event acts as God's Judgment on Earth (before Final Judgment).

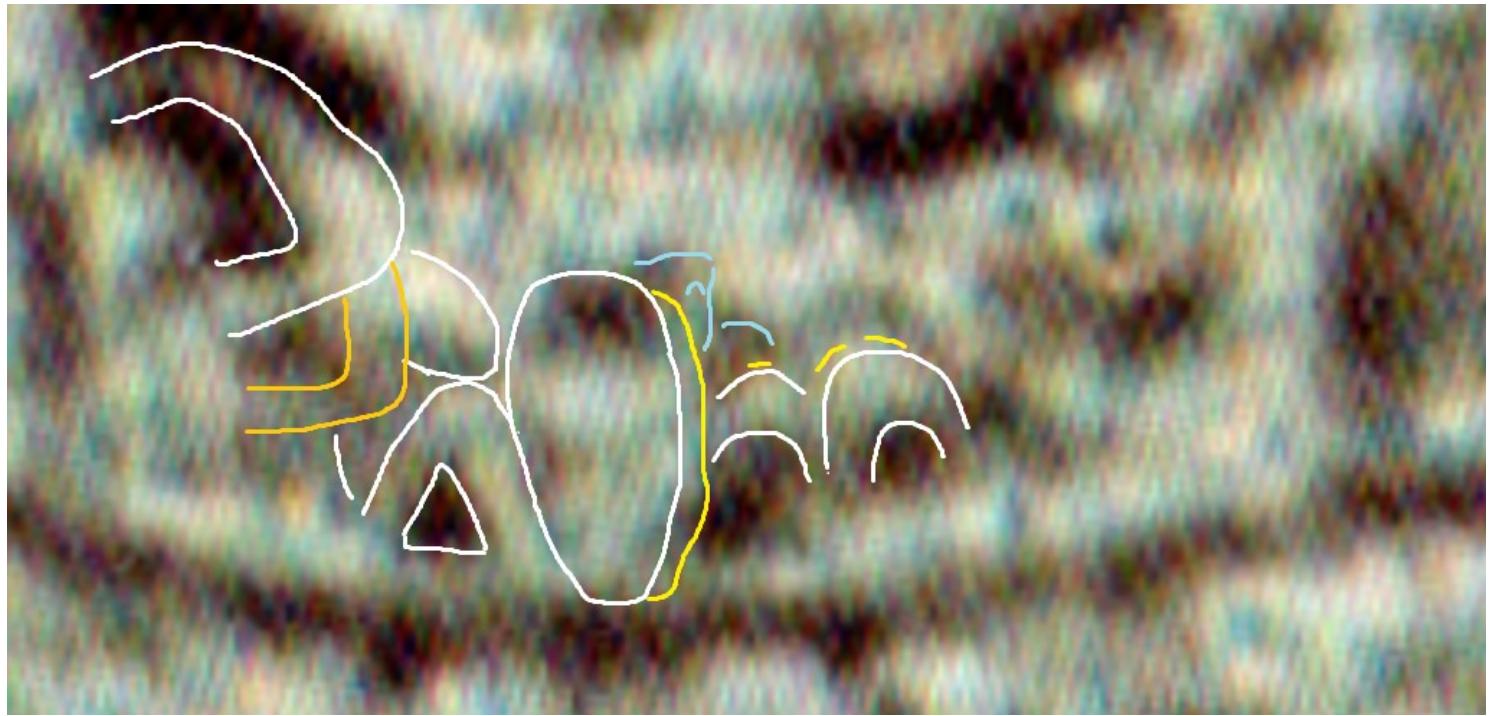

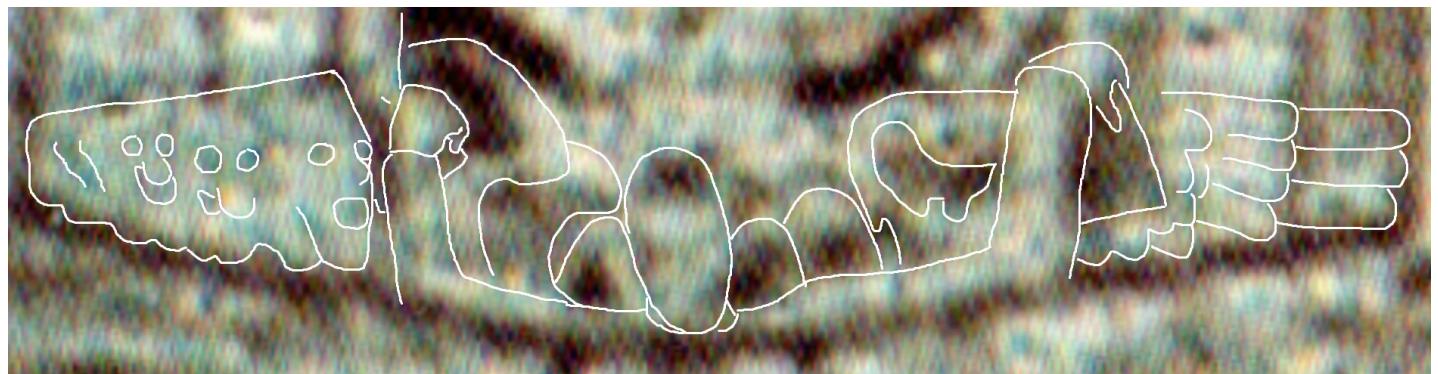

- But there is no official evidence presented to support God's case.
- We can say Revelation chapters 13 through 17 act as evidence... But no, they are mysteries, which I had to interpret, and most people didn't read...
- In a valid legal proceeding, evidence of the crime(s) should be presented.
- Thus, Killing Guadalupe specifically explains some of the West's crimes, and shows these crimes went on for hundreds of years, and many of these crimes continue today. So, it is plausible, or probable, that God wanted to wait to act until reasonable evidence of some of the crimes was available. That goal/standard was met with Killing Guadalupe.

- The Wagers grew out of the third arrowhead section (>>>) of the Post section the 3rd edition of Killing Guadalupe. The Wagers is available as a separate booklet, or in the long version of Killing Guadalupe. If we consider The Wagers an independent publication, it would be Revelation 2: The Solution's fourth confirmation Key. The Wager's makes many important revelations. If you don't have time to read The Wagers (it's 17 pages), I encourage you to read the opening few pages, and the closing few pages, to understand its significance.

- The one thing I will reveal about The Wagers is... I often argue with God that sending Satan to test and try humans was unfair, but my read of the facts, currently, is: people who are substantially tested by Satan, and who pass those tests, have a chance to enter Heaven at a much higher level –this means more privileges and probably more abilities (flying, etc).
- An amazing detail revealed in The Wagers is: one of the punishments that God imposed upon Satan and the West is He changed the Beast. The original Beast was intended to be a specific evil person, who is specifically identified in The Wagers, and who was born in 1906. God changed this Beast to John W Gardner –an irrational and untalented supremacist, born in 1912. The consequences of this change, for the West, will be devastating in the years and generations after the One Hour War. The West made all of its gains by using Satan to cheat. The third Beast (John W Gardner), so hated Blacks –and seemingly women- that he profiled women who were open-minded and inclined to marry non-White people, and killed a great number of these young women (read My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers for more). But in killing these girls, Gardner was killing off fair-mindedness and courage (the ability think and act independently, not seek to conform to the group), the US was killing off a high percentage of its IQ genes –which the US will need –and miss- after the One Hour War.
- Probably the most amazing thing about Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe is, originally, the art was 3-dimensional, or holographic, or lenticular –meaning, the art moved as you viewed it at different angles. This was one of my later discoveries in analyzing the Juan Diego badge. On the following page, I present three images of the damaged base Nuestra Señora which Juan Diego is holding in the central image of the Juan Diego badge. The bottom image shows the motion of the original angel's wing and head.
 - I was not able to find any evidence of motion in the upper portion of the Image in Juan Diego's hands. Thus, this may be another reason the West targeted the original angel for removal first.

These images are presented on the following page.

The light blue behind the original angel is another angel –I think there are a couple more angels back there, as if in a parade.

- Since God delayed His One Hour War by 8 months, it's possible that Jesus' Second Coming will also be delayed by about 8 months. (See Revelation for all Second Coming dates.)
- In the first 3 editions of Killing Guadalupe, my mother appeared to make it into Heaven. The Elder Badge makes that less clear. It's still very possible my mother gets in. I think God wanted me to share the conflicting images and findings to show that I constantly re-evaluate my findings, and I don't allow my preferences to influence what I see or find.
- In The Wagers, I referred to John W Gardner as "manageably insane." That was a loose, but artistically reasonable, use of language. Gardner was not insane. Gardner was in control of his actions and knew what he was doing was very wrong. One can reason that a definition for insane is lacking the moral and/or logical ability to understand if one's actions are right or wrong.
- One of the most important points of The Wagers is that God allowed Satan to see all events from 1888 to 2025 –repeatedly, two or three times. God did this because He wanted Satan to be able to cheat –and see my Revelation solutions –then use that information to see that the One Hour War did not occur at the prophesied hour. Satan would then conclude that his efforts to alter God's prophecy had worked. The obvious inference here is: God would probably only do this (repeatedly giving Satan access to all events from 1888 to 2025) if He had always intended to cancel the originally scheduled date of His prophecy.

THE BASE: Bribes –Names & Numbers

As some of you know, this (below) is the base of the Elder badge.

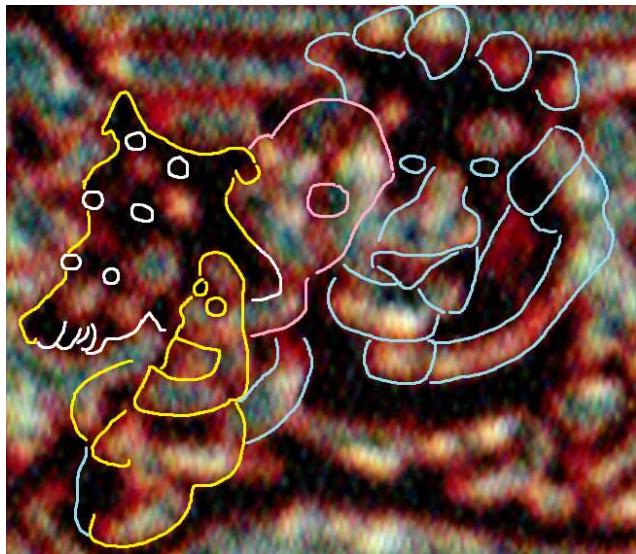

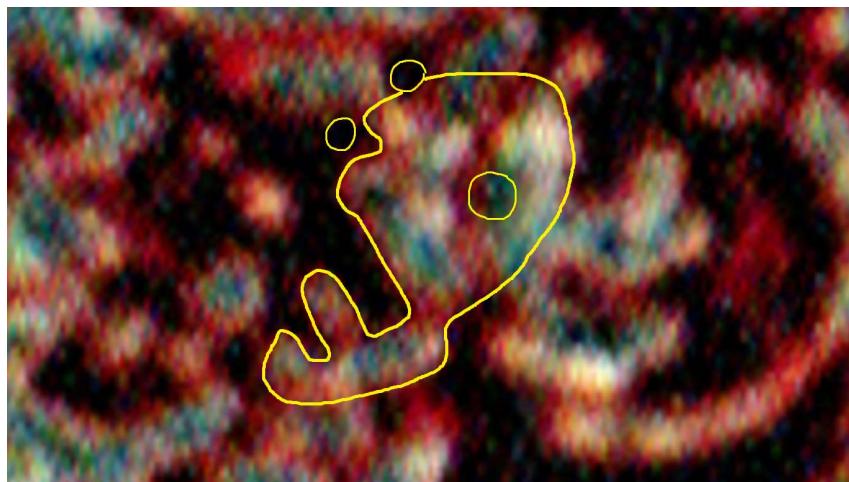

Above, the base of the Elder badge (see The Elder Badge, and Killing Guadalupe chapter 4 and 13, for more); it represents Gehenna (Hell). Areas 1 through 4 concern the two murderers featured in the base. Area 1 is Dennis Wilson's personal area and shows some of his murder and dismemberment practices; some details about his family are hidden around him. Area #3 is Hugh's area, and reveals some of Hugh's methods, and some loose details related to me and the theft of my IP and music. I won't spend any further time on sections 1 to 4, herein. This notebook focuses on sections 5 through 8 –particularly areas 5 and 6.

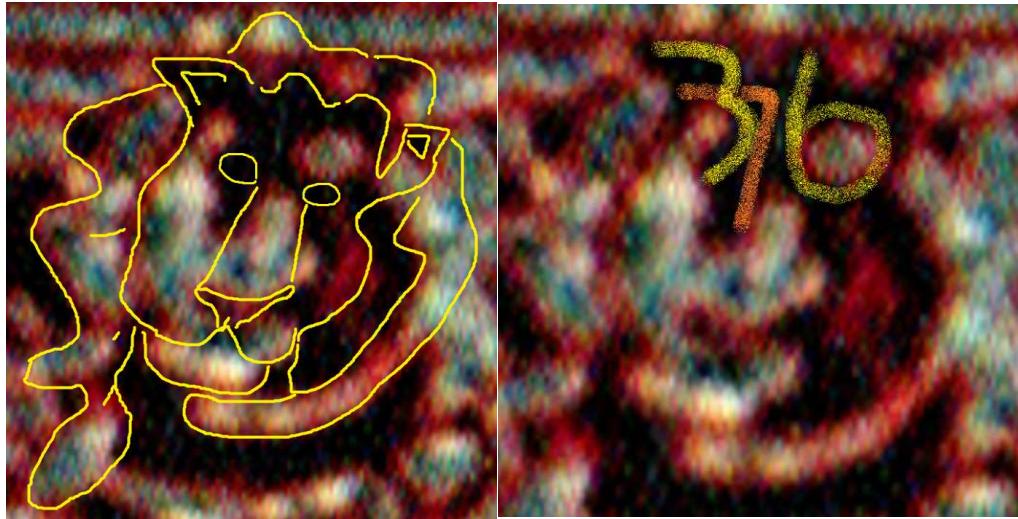

These are the 7 key players in areas 5 and 6: Marina Hope Wilson (the lion), David Wilson (center), Max Radcliff (bottom), Pay Rose (above Max, smiling intensely), Lowell Bergman (the dog's top eyes), and Lowell Bergman's stepson – Josiah Hooper (the dog's middle eyes), Jake Bergman (the dog's lowest eyes).

The person in the center (pictured below), who looks like a womanly man, or a manly woman, is my step-uncle David Michael Wilson. These 7 key players are presented here (1) to inform me, and (2) to further justify God's coming wrath.

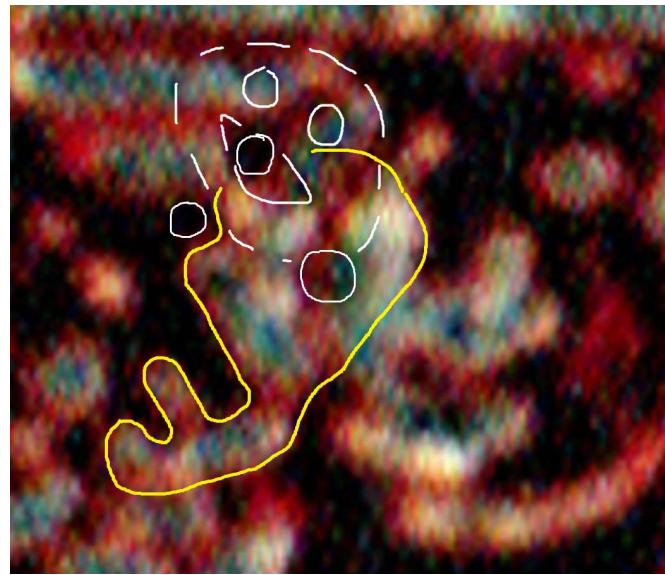

David (with two mouths?) is the brother of my murderous stepdad, Dennis Alfred Wilson, now deceased. David was a licensed attorney, who made virtually no money from law. Like his brother, almost all of his income came from stealing my IP and executing skits –or situations. The skits were conceived by Gardner or/and John C Malone (both of whom had/have very theatrical, homosexual tendencies). But David added his own flamboyance. Many of the skits were fairly innocuous, most lacked imagination, the best of them were evil –but usually ineffective. Originally, the conceivers of the skits hoped I'd feel “hurt”, if David and his forgettable family –whom I rarely saw- didn't accept me. By the time I was 25 to 30, they shifted the skits to my sister, Marina, because she and Dennis I once dearly cared for.

All of the centrally featured characters in the base of the Elder badge have numbers on their faces. Some have several numbers. These numbers indicate how many bribes these people accepted to steal my IP or participate in skits. The images above indicate my younger sister, Marina, accepted 76 bribes to steal my IP –which she collected from (1) her ex-boyfriend, Max –who was in a rock band with me, or (2) her dad (my stepdad). 36 is the number of bribes she offered others to execute skits. Malone or Gardner paid the actual bribes.

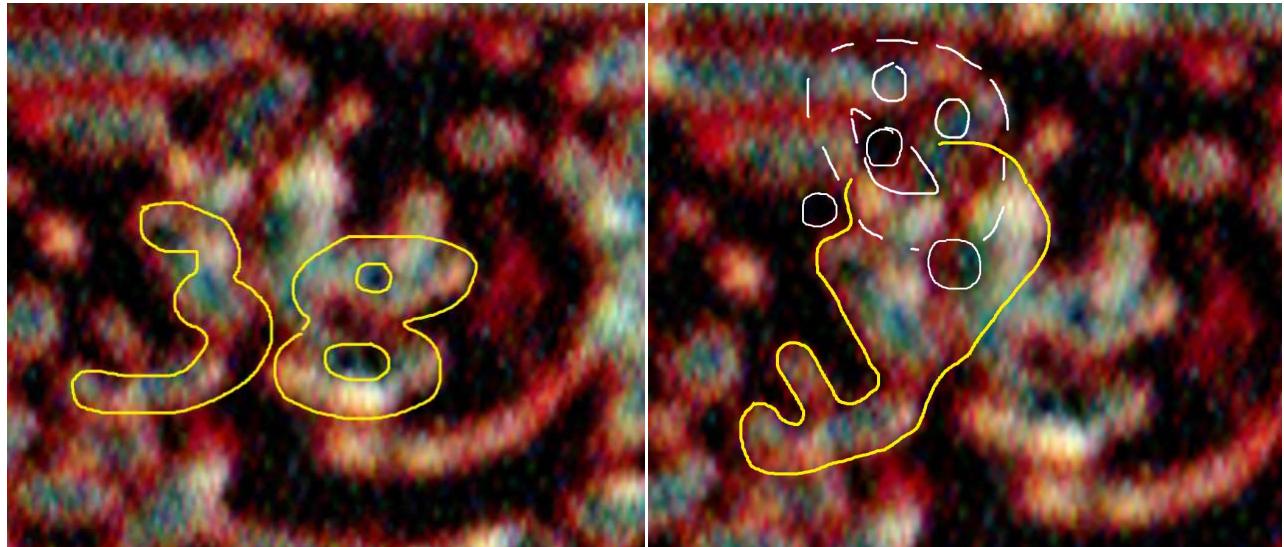

Marina received huge numbers of bribes. But at least one other person in area 5 and 6 received more bribes.

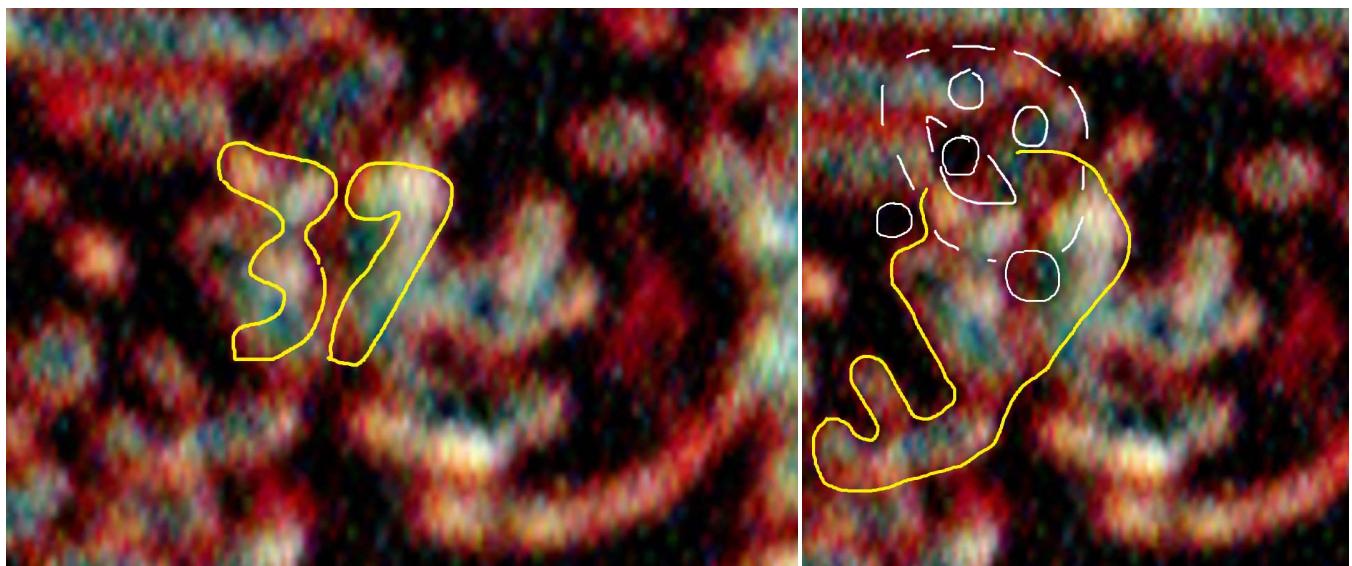

This is a representational image (above) of David and his round-faced, pointy-chinned wife Miriam –they secretly share two black eyes. The image says their entire relationship was based on coordinated deceit. The fact that they share eyes, and Miriam's true mouth is David's fake eye, expresses how closely they acted. But most importantly, Miriam is positioned higher than David and Marina. Thus, Miriam is likely the person who interacted with the higher ups (Gardner and Malone).

Here are numbers of bribes Marina and her uncle David collected.

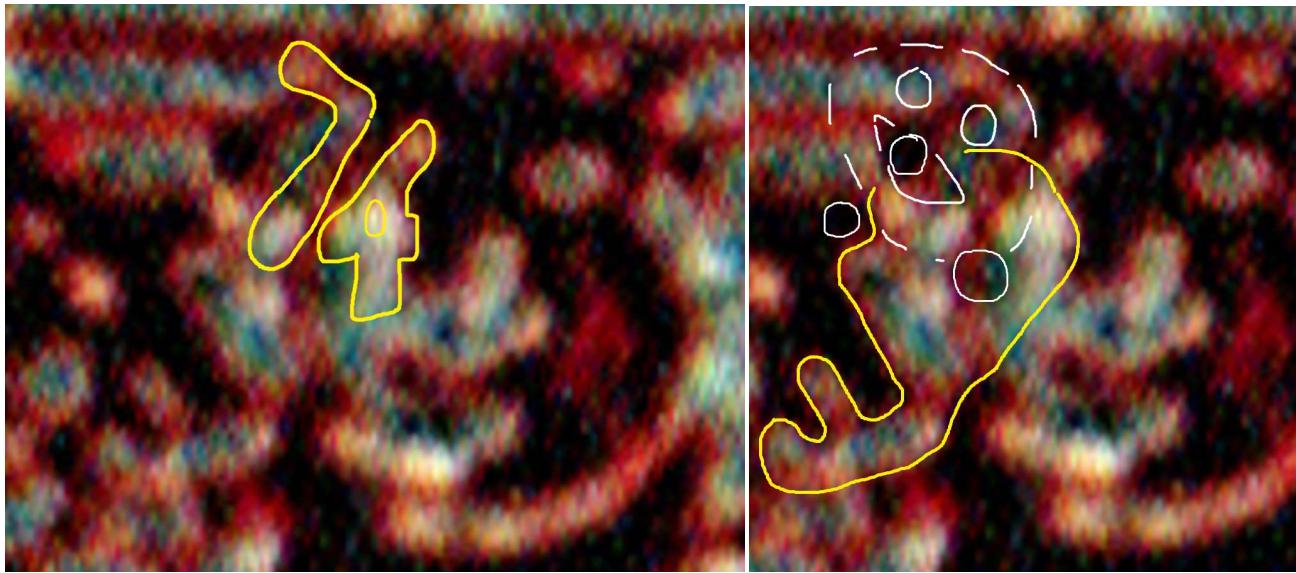

38, positioned low on the faces of Marina and David, indicates Marina and David received 38 combined bribes for or related to stealing my musical ideas. Low represents music, because the theft of my music did not earn as much as the theft of my stories. To reinforce this, Max (a talented musician) is positioned at the bottom of the bad actors –music on the bottom.

Moving up, above, we see Marina and David received 37 bribes for their engagement in skits.

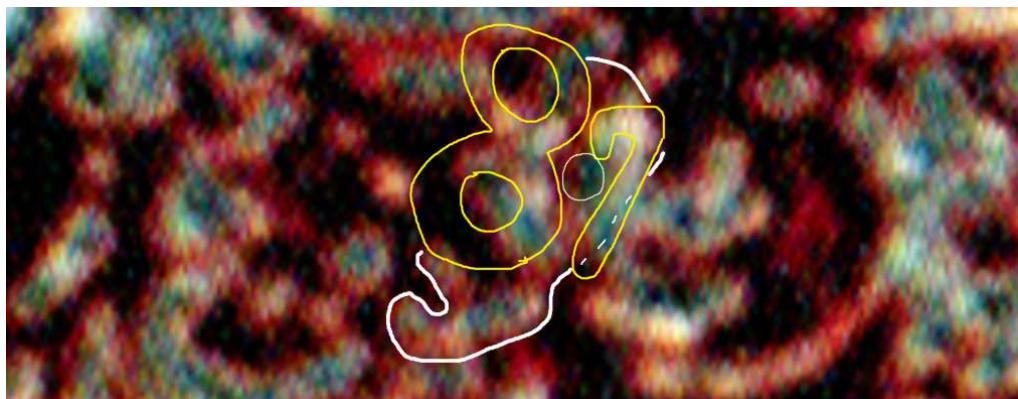

Now we move to the big ticket items, intellectual property -specifically stories...

Marina and David combined to receive 74 bribes for the theft of my intellectual property -stories. I stopped sending Marina anything I wrote around 2004, so she and David got my work from my stepdad, and his wife Sara. To represent intellectual property, 74 is written near the foreheads of the lion and the womanly maniacal man.

If you put Marina, David, Pay, Hugh, Max, the Bergmans and Josiah in a room together for a year, they'd never produce an interesting story idea. And that's the great injustice to them: Why should one biracial person [me] prosper from his right to his creations, when John Gardner and Hollywood created a wonderful system where undeserving Whites can profit and live comfortably, by stealing the ideas of non-Whites, who Hollywood will never pay -unless they produce buffoonery or angry, violent nonsense?

But the winner for most bribes received is David Michael Wilson: 87.

Earlier you saw that David was centrally positioned to all of the players, because his comfortable existence relied on facilitating these bribes. Gardner and Malone used David Wilson to bribe Lowell Bergman and family, Josiah Hooper, Hugh, Max, Pay...

One of the good things about this is: all of the major players in the base (David, Marina, Hugh, Max, Pay, Lowell, Jake, Josiah...) are just about smart enough that shortly before the rescheduled Event (the One Hour War), they'll realize the Elder badge is the work of God and Jesus, and this is Their Judgment –and no denials or protests will change what's coming.

Let's see the other numbers...

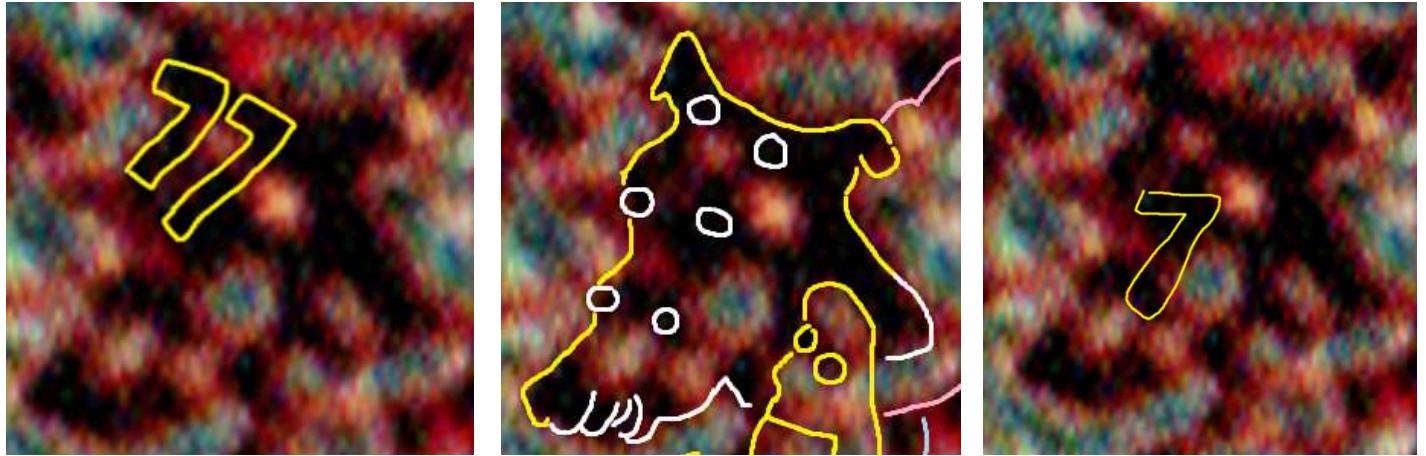

Above, Max collected 63 bribes for giving my music to various people –and his role in some skits. From some of the sad things Max said in the last 5 or 6 times I saw him, he must have really needed some skit money. Max and I used to record music in a studio, then he'd give the tapes to Marina and David to send to Malone.

Here, Pay smiles as he betrays me. Looks a lot like Pay. Pay was so 2-faced that God and Jesus put his score on 2 different halves of his face: 33 bribes.

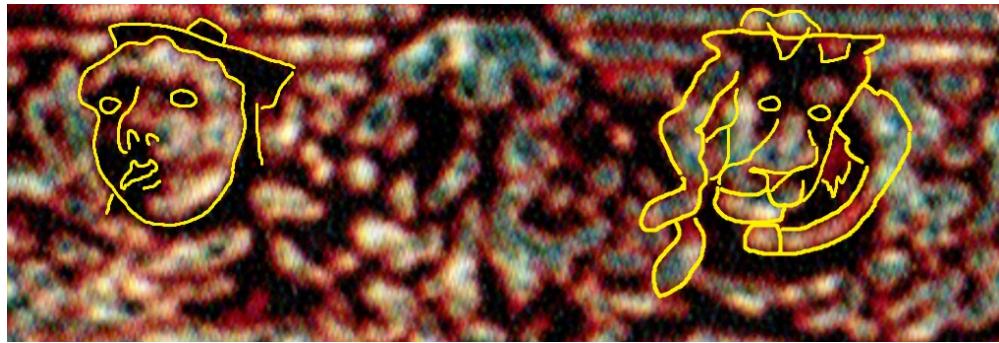

It looks like God and Jesus are very comfortable sharing their frank opinions about our slithering ways.

Lowell Bergman got 77 bribes (Lowell actually wrote the shitty skits). Jake and Josiah got a modest 7 bribes. Josiah, the cameraman on The Amazing Mr. Excellent, was bribed to sabotage production. I informed/warned people about Lowell Bergman (and Seth Rosenfeld, and Josiah Hooper) long ago, in the notes of Origin Stories, pages 187-189. God is, again, affirming what I say. The dog is a Doberman (German). God is commenting on fake Jews serving evil Westerners.

Hidden in the images is the faint representation (above) of the four fingers that control the puppets below. The 4 fingers are Dennis Wilson (deceased), David Wilson, Marina Wilson, and my step-aunt Joan Michele Wilson. I omitted Michele's section from this notebook for personal reasons. Michele did some very bad things, but much less frequently than her brothers and Marina.

The man represents my stepdad, and the lion represents my younger sister, Marina. You'll notice the old-fashioned phone against the lion's ear has a modified earpiece, as if someone else is listening in –or instructing her.

Just about everything in the badges has more than one meaning. The numbers 5-2-6 represent May 26th (2025), the rescheduled Publication Date for the One Hour War (see Revelation 2: The Solutions, pages 1-7, and Killing Guadalupe, pages 121-125 for more). 5+2+6 also specifies the 13 members of the Black side of my family who took bribes to act against me. Although not all of these people knew how improper their actions were, they all knew what they were doing was wrong.

But the Elder badge also indicates Marina, who is White, facilitated many bribes to the Black (or brown) members of my family. Although the Elder badge does not specifically say that racial hatred motivated her action, it invites the question. This connects to Revelation, where Satan uses the West to damn much of the rest of the world who “worshipped the beast.” Was my younger sister deliberately trying to damn my Black family, for Gardner, Malone or David?

The Elder badge shows subsequent generations of Wilsons will pay for the actions of Dennis, David and Marina Wilson. I have chosen not to present these images here, because some of the kids on that end of my family will be terrified at what their parents, aunts and uncles have done to them. But God warned of this, repeatedly: “...visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children and the children’s children to the third and fourth generations.”

The point for Western nations and their allies: if they have enriched themselves via crime and injustice, they and their children’s and their children’s children will pay.

Sections 7 and 8

Sections 7 and 8 of the Elder badge, to the far right, seem different from the rest of the base. Page 49 of Killing Guadalupe refers to certain crimes the US/West deliberately committed against other nations (seemingly to lower those people's chances of entering Heaven). This section of this page is intended to conclude that discussion. Clearly, leaders of nations, and parents, have a duty to protect their people/kids from outside evils. So God is unlikely to give all nations and people that have been sabotaged by the West a free pass into Heaven. But certain details hidden in the Elder badge (see page 49 of Killing Guadalupe, 4th edition) indicate God will not send people whose personalities were substantially impacted by Satan's and the West's malicious experiments and interference to Gehenna (but some of those souls are candidates for Sheol, or death).

In the base of the Elder badge, there are dozens of people represented in sections 7 and 8 –and all but about 3 of them are brown and Black people; whereas in sections 1 through 6 all but 1 person is White or Jewish. The evidence strongly indicates God and Jesus see us all as people, and do not favor one color over another. The Elder badge dichotomy is a representational message: Due to Western efforts to interfere with non-Western and non-White nations (and non-Whites in the West), in effort to damn them all, God will not allow the non-Westerners and non-Whites, whom the West tried to spiritually sabotage, to be sent to Gehenna.

NOTE: Eyes In Heaven, Earth and Gehenna

In the Elder badge, the meaning of the entities' eye color changes depending on where they are situated.

Earth. The best eye color to have in the central field is black. This is just representational, and does not suggest black eyes are superior. Black eyes do not mean a particular entity is going to Heaven; but may indicate they are unlikely to go to Gehenna.

Gehenna. You can find many different eye colors in Gehenna –the Badge's base. If you have one black eye in Gehenna you are in bad shape, but you still have hope. Two dark black eyes and you are damned. But look carefully –one darkish gray eye, and there is still hope that that entity will change.

Heaven. In this representational model black eyes are not good in Heaven. But God does not reveal a good eye color.

The following section, "The Prophecies Against," contains information that may be useful after the One Hour War.

The Prophecies Against

(This section was originally presented in Revelation 2: The Solutions)

*And look, here comes a chariot of horses, with a pair of horsemen,
And he answered and said: "Babylon is fallen, is fallen!
And all of the carved images of her gods
He has Broken to the ground."* Isaiah 21:9

God's revelation's are found throughout the Bible; such as His Prophecies Against, which foretell of punishment God will impose on much of mankind, between September 2024 and 2029, for centuries of crimes against God and man. The Prophecies Against can be found in Isaiah, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, Daniel... But the Dead Sea Scrolls crimes corrupted these books; so study, and only read passages that have not been altered.

Statesmen and religious leaders should read Ezekiel, and Isaiah (chaps 1-39).

- The prophecies against Babylon are prophecies against the United States.
- The prophecies against Tyre are also against the US (possibly the US/West).
- The prophecies against Egypt, Assyria, and Egyptian Alliance seem directed at Middle Eastern countries aligned with, or influence by, the US/West.
- The prophecies against "daughter villages," in Ezekiel 26:1-21, are directed to all former Western European colonial territories. This is a large group, which includes nations in North, Central and South America, the Pacific, the Atlantic, Africa. The word "daughter" is informative for all nations. Nations that do not instill high values in their daughters hastened global moral erosion.
- Revelation, Isaiah, Ezekiel and Jeremiah indicate Israel will be severely punished in the One Hour War. However, any hateful fake "believers" who hope to punish Jews, in the aftermath, should read Jeremiah, chapters 15 and 23. God will allow Jews to return to Him, and Godly nations will provide Jews sanctuary.
- After The War, God expects all nations NOT to engage with the US/West for 700 years (Daniel 4:23*-24, 7 times = 700 years; Isaiah 23:17, 70 years = 700 years).
- In Daniel 4:20-23, Daniel indicates who the great tree and the stump truly are, in a coded reference to the cut tree stump of Isaiah 6:13 –coded because God made Daniel aware that if he truthfully interpreted Nebuchadnezzar's dream, the US/West would erase Daniel 4:23, 24 from the Bible, in their Dead Seas Scrolls hoax.

Prophecies Revisited

The Prophecies Against predict God's severe punishment of certain nations in the days after the One Hour War. I believe the target time period of the Prophecies Against is between the One Hour War and Jesus' Second Coming. But the Prophecies Against may continue after Jesus' Second Coming begins, maybe even after the Second Coming concludes. There is no clear end to the Prophecies Against. At least one of the Prophecies Against punishments God promises to impose upon one certain nation/region will last far beyond the Second Coming.

I believe the more reliant your nation is on Western technology, especially media and communication technology, the more likely God's wrath will fall upon your nation. Part of this is obvious: nations should be self-reliant, and never trust an entire communication or cable system to foreigners. If your nation's cell phones and internet rely on America's "Google" technology, that's not a good sign. If your entertainment programming and systems are US owned and influenced you are in a bad position (e.g., currently, here in Mexico, a US influenced and/or owned show called Solo Para Mujeres is currently constantly airing commercials showing semi-naked men dancing for obnoxious women with corrupted values; the show appears Satanically formulated to turn impressionable teen girls into whores and teen boys into homosexuals or whoremongers). If your nation is inviting this contamination upon its people and youth, God's Wrath may find you.

Me and John C Malone

In 2017, after taking some time off from work to focus on my legal war against Hollywood, I needed to find a new job and return to work. At the time I was living in Santa Rosa, California. To find work, I used a job placement site, something like Indeed.com. Most of my search results came up 100 miles away, near Stanford University, where John C Malone lived (like John W Gardner before him). From the job listing returns, the Job I was essentially forced to take was funded by Google and Facebook. After a few months on the job, all of the 20 or so employees associated with my maker-space department were directed to attend a 3 day event on the Stanford University campus. My boss, Nico Janik, specifically asked me to be sure to attend because John C Malone, the billionaire (who I proudly knew nothing about) hoped to see me there. I went. I think I saw Malone, in the lobby, during a break. We never spoke.

Later, I learned Malone's son was an executive involved with minority kids in Peninsula maker-spaces. At the time, I worked in a Peninsula maker-space, serving minority kids. Two years later I read an article that indicated Malone's son had stolen my approaches with kids.

Malone also had lateral connection to Sequoia High, in Redwood City, 10 miles from Stanford, where I worked from December 2010 to June 2016.

The Skits/Situations

Earlier I mentioned “skits” or “situations”... Here are a few skit/situation examples. These are fairly typical –not the most evil, nor the most unimaginative... ¹

I lived in New York but worked in California from late 1998 to mid 2007. Around 2003, when I flew out to California, Pay Rose told me that a mutual acquaintance, a woman named Cassy, wanted to get pregnant soon, because she had fertility problems which greatly reduced her procreative window. So Pay proposed that we both donate sperm (I guess at a fertility clinic), let them mix it up, and let Cassy have a baby, and we would never know if the father was Pay or me. This was astoundingly immoral –besides the fact that I had a 7-year old son back in New York.

Around 2017, I arrived at a niece’s wedding, and at least a dozen of her friends (whom I didn’t know) were calling me “Uncle Stevie” –repeatedly, until I asked them to stop. Nope, no one other than my nephews and nieces ever called me Uncle Stevie, a play on “Uncle Tom”, old slang for a Black man who kisses White people’s asses –which I don’t. This reflects Lowell Bergman’s creative aptitude.

In 1993, I moved to Berkeley. Because she needed money, Marina, 20 years old, quickly transferred from Santa Cruz to UC Berkeley, and suggested we get a house or apartment together. We did. A few years later, late 1998, I moved to New York City. Marina moved to NYC about 18 months later. Soon, around 2000, my younger sister Kenya (from the Black side of my family) called to say she was coming to NYC and wanted to visit and hoped to stay in my apartment while she was in town. I agreed. A month or two later, my younger brother Ivan (also from the Black side of my family) also called to say he was coming to NYC and wanted to visit and stay at my apartment. But in both cases, when they were supposed to arrive and visit, neither Kenya or Ivan visited, nor did they call to cancel. Turns out, they both opted to stay at my younger White sister’s (Marina’s) apartment (Marina is not related to Kenya or Ivan). I forgave all. I never again saw Kenya and Marina in the same room. I wouldn’t see Ivan and Marina in the same room for another 19 years.

I believe the point of a typical family skit (which usually happened at Christmas, or a similar pre-planned event) was to make another family member appear favored –as if a healthy mind is bothered by the preferences of others.

¹ If you wonder why a third party would pay for peculiar skits related to me, see the “Introduction” of Revelation 2: The Solutions, or read The Wagers or Origin Stories.

The 10 Levels of Gehenna (Hell)

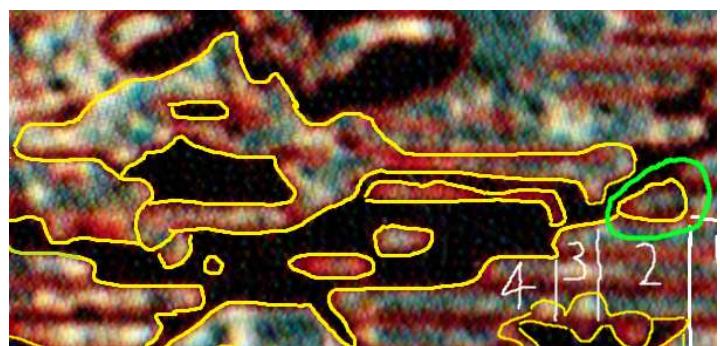

The base of the Elder badge is a sin/crime and punishment graph, to give misguided humans an idea of what to expect in the afterlife.

At the top of the chart is Satan, who presides over Gehenna.

The Elder badge served as a confirmation key for the Publication Date of God's One Hour War; double-digit decades icons were displayed on the left, the smaller single-digit year icons (and the month and day) were displayed on the right. From this, the punishment severity and location are presented right to left, bad to worst. Although everywhere in Gehenna is uncomfortable, the pain, heat and "worms" (Mark 9:44) likely increase(s) according to the severity of one's crimes –along with with the length of one's stay.

In the image below, notice a small chunk of Satan, circled in green, is severed, separate, on the other side of a boundary. This section represents Sheol (AKA Death –the place). I believe Satan has remote influence in Sheol, but is not physically there.

Above, notice the separated chunk of Satan is above the viewer's right side of the lion, or level #2. From this, I believe level #1 and #2 offenders are sent to Sheol (described as dark and gloomy –worse than being dead, but better than Gehenna).

I assume people can be sentenced to Sheol for various offenses (and God's and Jesus' overall assessment of their life), but in this model, the crimes represented in area #1 and #2 are offering or accepting lower-level bribes (where the crime is smaller, and only one person, or very few people, are impacted).

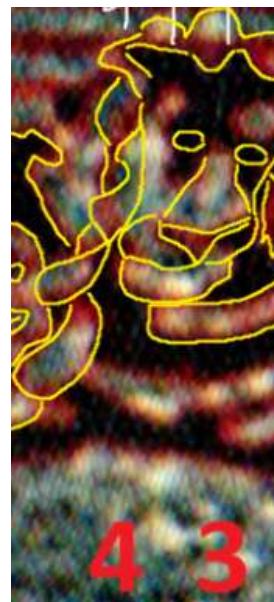

Logically, offering a bribe is worse than accepting the bribe, because the acceptor does not necessarily need to know the bribers' motives.

Knowingly offering or accepting a bribe against family or a friend substantially increases the severity of the crime.

Area #3 and #4 are for criminals who offer or accept larger, more malicious bribes -including bribes against their family and friends- and may involve multiple victims.

These offenders go to Gehenna (Hell).

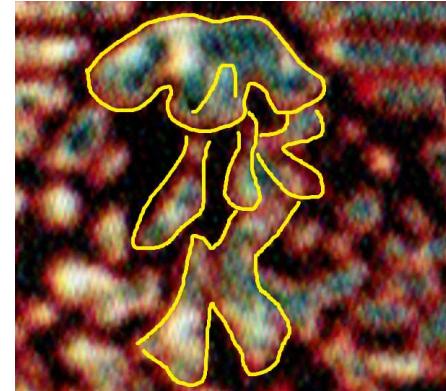

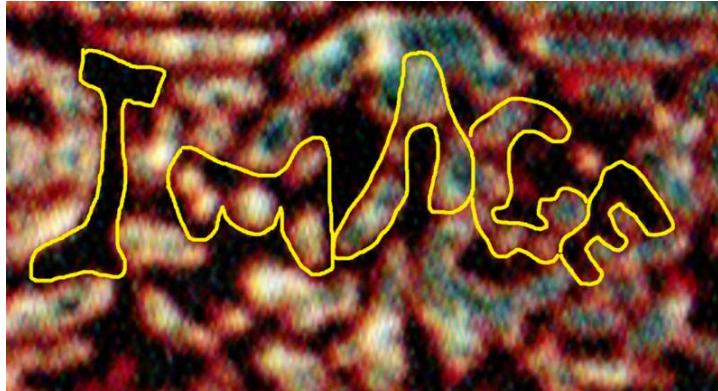

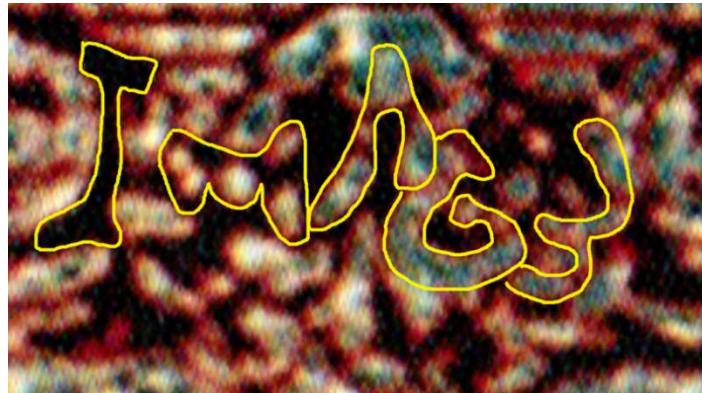

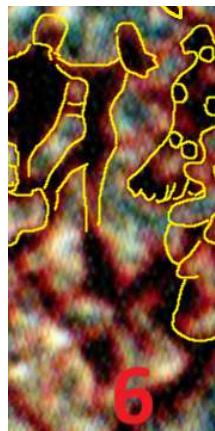

Area #5 is for crimes like (1) higher level intellectual property theft, (2) non-violent organized crime,(3) knowingly publishing false and damaging information (especially in furtherance of another crime or related scheme).

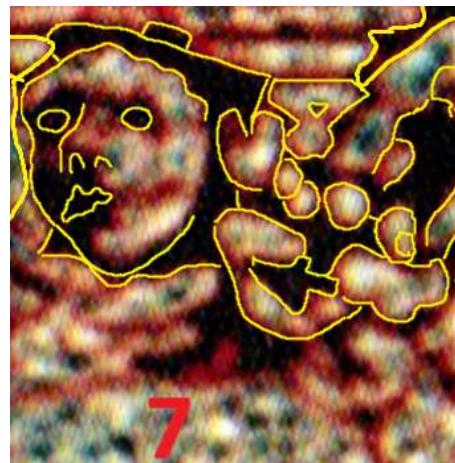

Area #6 is for at least two major groups of crimes:

- (1) Extreme Family Violations, such as a parent willfully acting to turn their child/children against the other parent (or a friend or another family member endeavoring to do so).
- (2) Image (and Mark) Violations. Image crimes occur through visual technologies, like TVs and internet connected devices. The first clue that area #6 was for image crimes is the screen-like illumination in the center of the base. But I think I saw other clues...

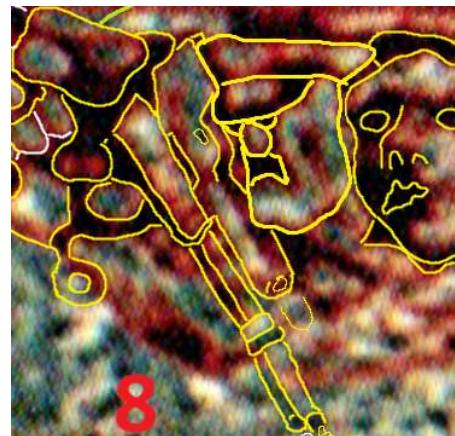

Area #7 is for murderers -people who kill without justification.

Area #8 is for murderers who kill in unusually painful, terrible ways -and murderers who are in positions of trust, with duties to protect and uphold the law -such as police officers.

Area #9 is for people who corrupt a nation's institutions (usually through bribery), so police and judges become criminals or crime facilitators. Area #9 is also for violent, large-scale organized crime participants, who murder and cause others to live in fear.

And area #10... There is no crime worse than killing -or substantially harming- a child.

10
