Tron

The Last Detail

But this is just the start. Steve-A's biggest creations and inventions have yet to be revealed.

Other Events in Steve-A's Life –On Line 5

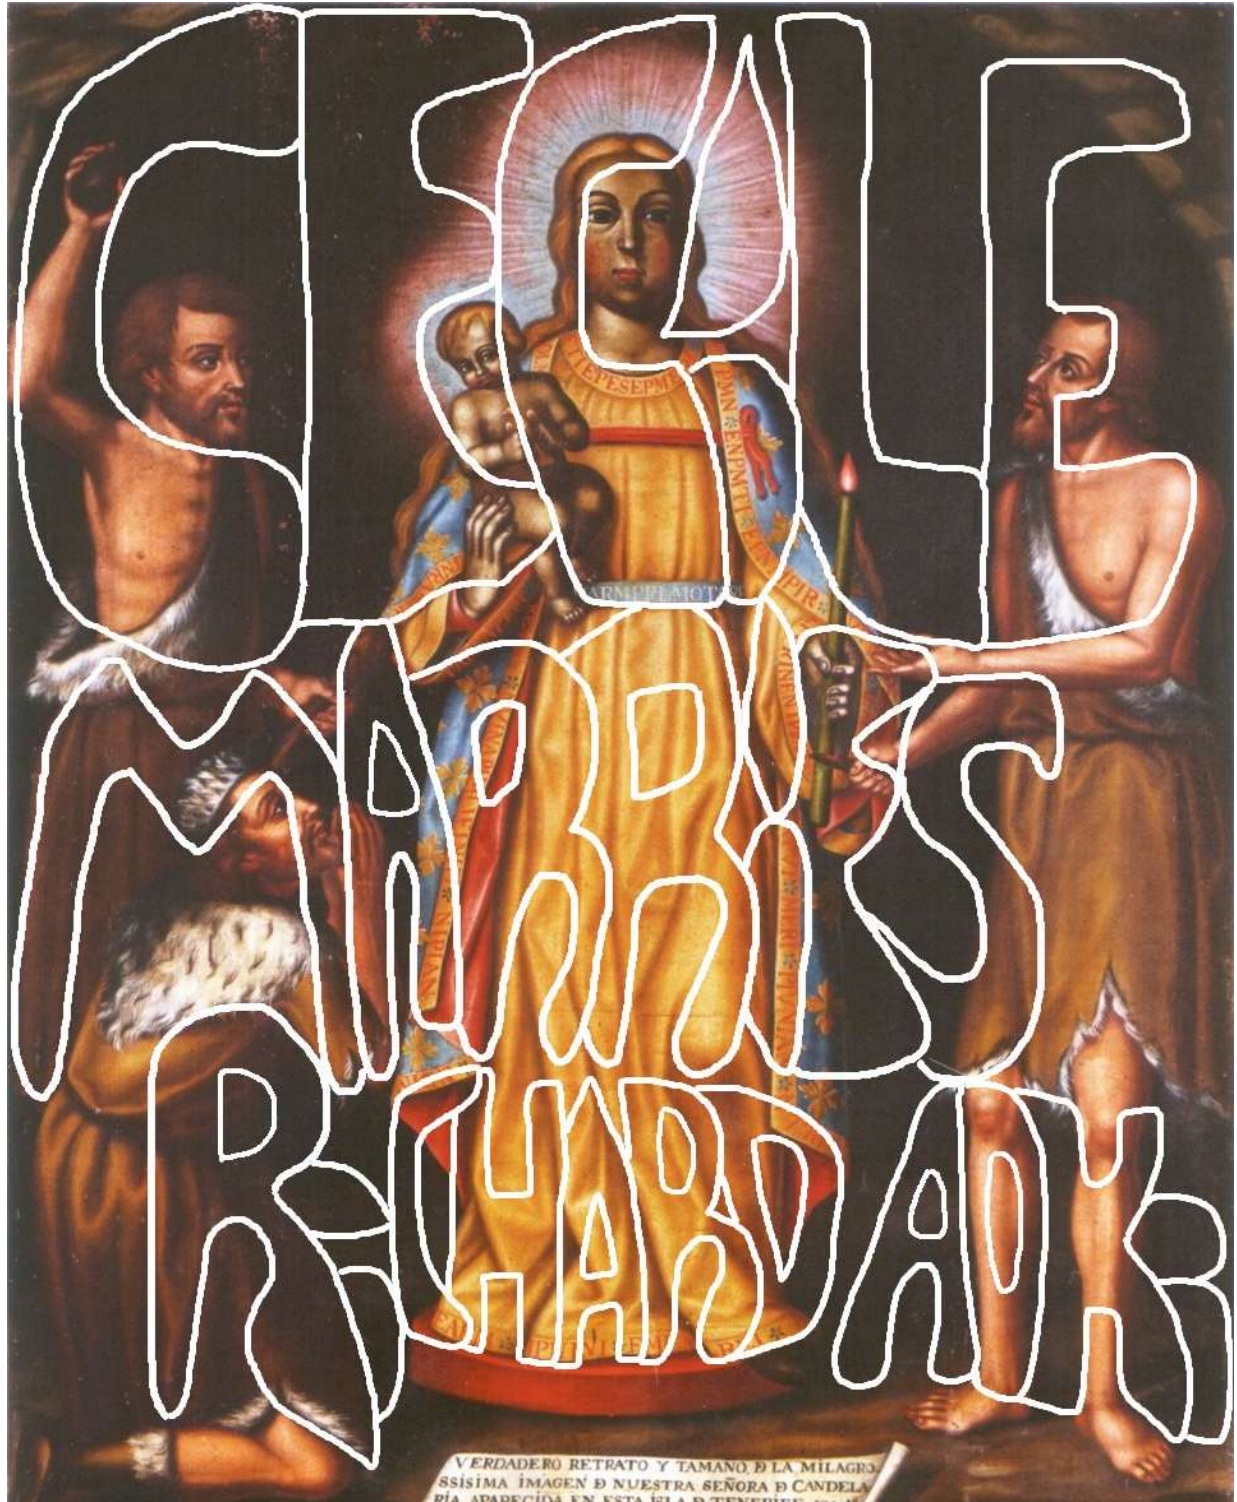

The outlinings below indicate when Steve-A was around 18, he joined the Navy.

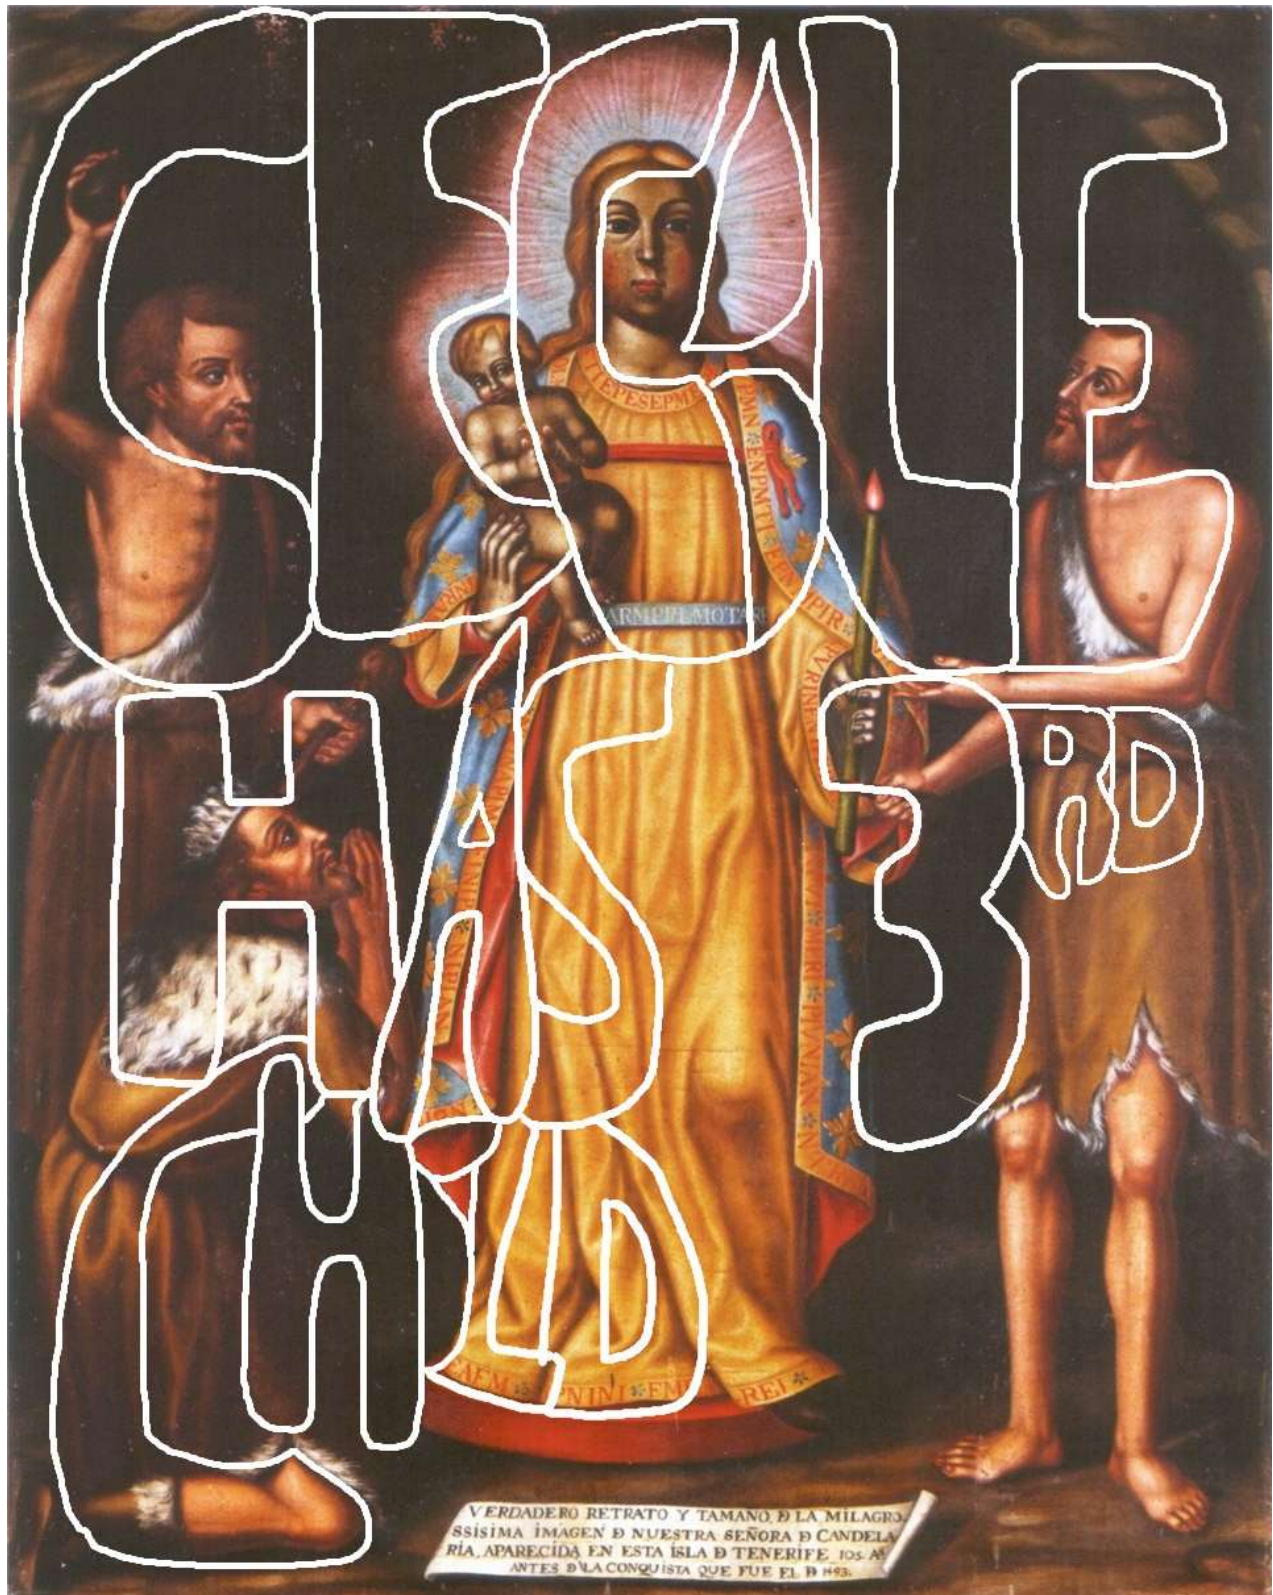

The images below indicate that, unlike me, Steve-A never moved to New York City (lower left). And when Steve-A was much older, around 59, with the One Hour War approaching, rather than going to Mexico, as I did, Steve-A moved to Canada.

On Line 5, Cecile (Steve-A's mother -and mine) married Richard Aoki. She did this sometime after 1970 -after her previous boyfriend, likely her fiancé, died in Mexico. [For context, Steve-A and I were born in 1964.] On Line 7, Richard Aoki was one of the founding members of the Black Panther Party.

Sometime after marrying Richard, Cecile had a third child, a boy –Steve-A's younger brother. This child/person did not and does not exist on Line 7.

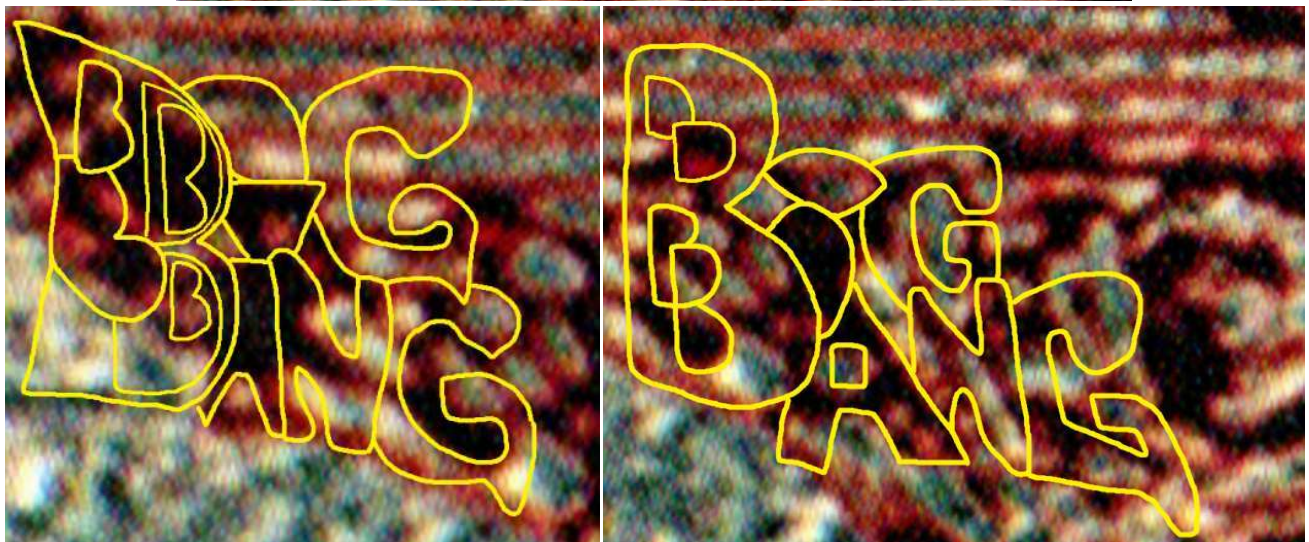

Big Bang

I found the phrase Big Bang, as seen below, in seven palaces in the Elder Badge. After a month or so, I discovered the phrases marked the years where one of Steve-A's close family members, or loved ones, died before their natural time. Six of these people died by suicide, one by drug overdose. Of the six family members who lived on Line 5 AND Line 7, none of those family members died young or by suicide on Line 7.

These Line 5 suicides were not accidental. Satan was at War with God, and Wagering for greater power. Due to the fact that, on Line 5, the US was a moral nation, lacking deep institutional corruption, Satan had to resort to brutal methods: Kill Steve-A's family; if he is buried in sorrow, perhaps he will not sufficiently solve Revelation.

The family members who died in Big Bang deaths on Line 5 are named, beginning on the following page.

On Line 5, Archie Briggs, my biological father, committed suicide, in 1965, around a year after I (or Steve-A) was born.

Dennis Wilson, who came into my life in 1968, on lines 5 and 7, and whom I loved dearly from almost the moment I met him, died in Mexico, in 1970, on Line 5. Dennis died of a drug overdose. This event also happened in Mexico in 1970, on Line 7, on a vacation with Dennis, my family, and the Shapiro family (Dennis' friends) –but Dennis did not die, her on Line 7; rather, he spent two days lying under his VW truck.

If you read Steve's Top-Secret Notebook, you likely recall that, on Line 7, Dennis became a mass murderer, and a dismemberer-for-hire. But on Line 5, he was a fairly normal young man.

On Line 5, around 1977, when I was 12 or 13, Cecile (my mom), committed suicide. Some evidence, which I won't have time to present, indicates my mother and I were closer on Line 5.

My son, Jiano (or Steve-A's son), died by suicide, at 13, around 2010, on Line 5.

My older sister, Morgan, committed suicide around 2014, on Line 5.

My son's mother, whom Steve-A loved madly, died around 2000, on Line 5.

Over the past year, in all prior name outlinings (I believe I did hundreds of them), God made the letters big enough for block letters. But here (right), since this brother didn't exist on Line 7, God only made very thin letter lines visible.

I should point out that my younger sister, Marina, born to Cecile and Dennis Wilson, did not exist on Line 5.

My younger brother, Ivan, born to Archie and his second wife, Kris, did not exist on Line A. However, my father may have lived long enough into 1965 to father my younger sister, Kenya.

Below, the images reading No Mumps and No Measles mean Dennis Wilson did not give me and my sister mumps or measles on Line 5. This tends to confirm that on Line 5, Dennis Wilson was just an ordinary guy. *

* To learn more about the mumps and measles stories, see STSN and MSW0otZSRHM.

CHAPTER 3, Part III

LIFE ON LINE 5: Get What You Pay For

The reason Line 5 was technologically behind Line 7 is hidden in the five image messages below, from Chapter 3, Part I.

The Candelaria Likeness and Elder Badge's strongest image message clues as to why Line 5 was technologically behind Line 7, are:

1. No Telephones,
2. No Trains,
3. No Cable,
4. China Invented 2-Way Cable,
5. No Internet.

SOLUTION:

Trains and 2-way telephone, internet and cable TV systems are technologies that all nations would choose, if they could. But these technologies cost a tremendous amount of money to realize –much more than can be realized by a few of a nation's wealthiest people. A national train system requires heavy steel, laid throughout a country; billions upon billions of dollars. And landline phones, internet and cable TV systems all require two-directional wiring to almost every home in a nation –wiring that must run independent of the first generation 1-directional electric wiring.

On Line 5, China realized 2-way cable, so they were not far away from many more breakout technologies.

The reasons trains, telephone, internet and cable technologies did not exist on Line 5 (except for 2-way cable in China) was because the infrastructure (rails, wiring) required for these systems is so expensive that only well-managed governments can pay for such projects. Once the infrastructure is installed, these systems soon pay for themselves, in national productivity.

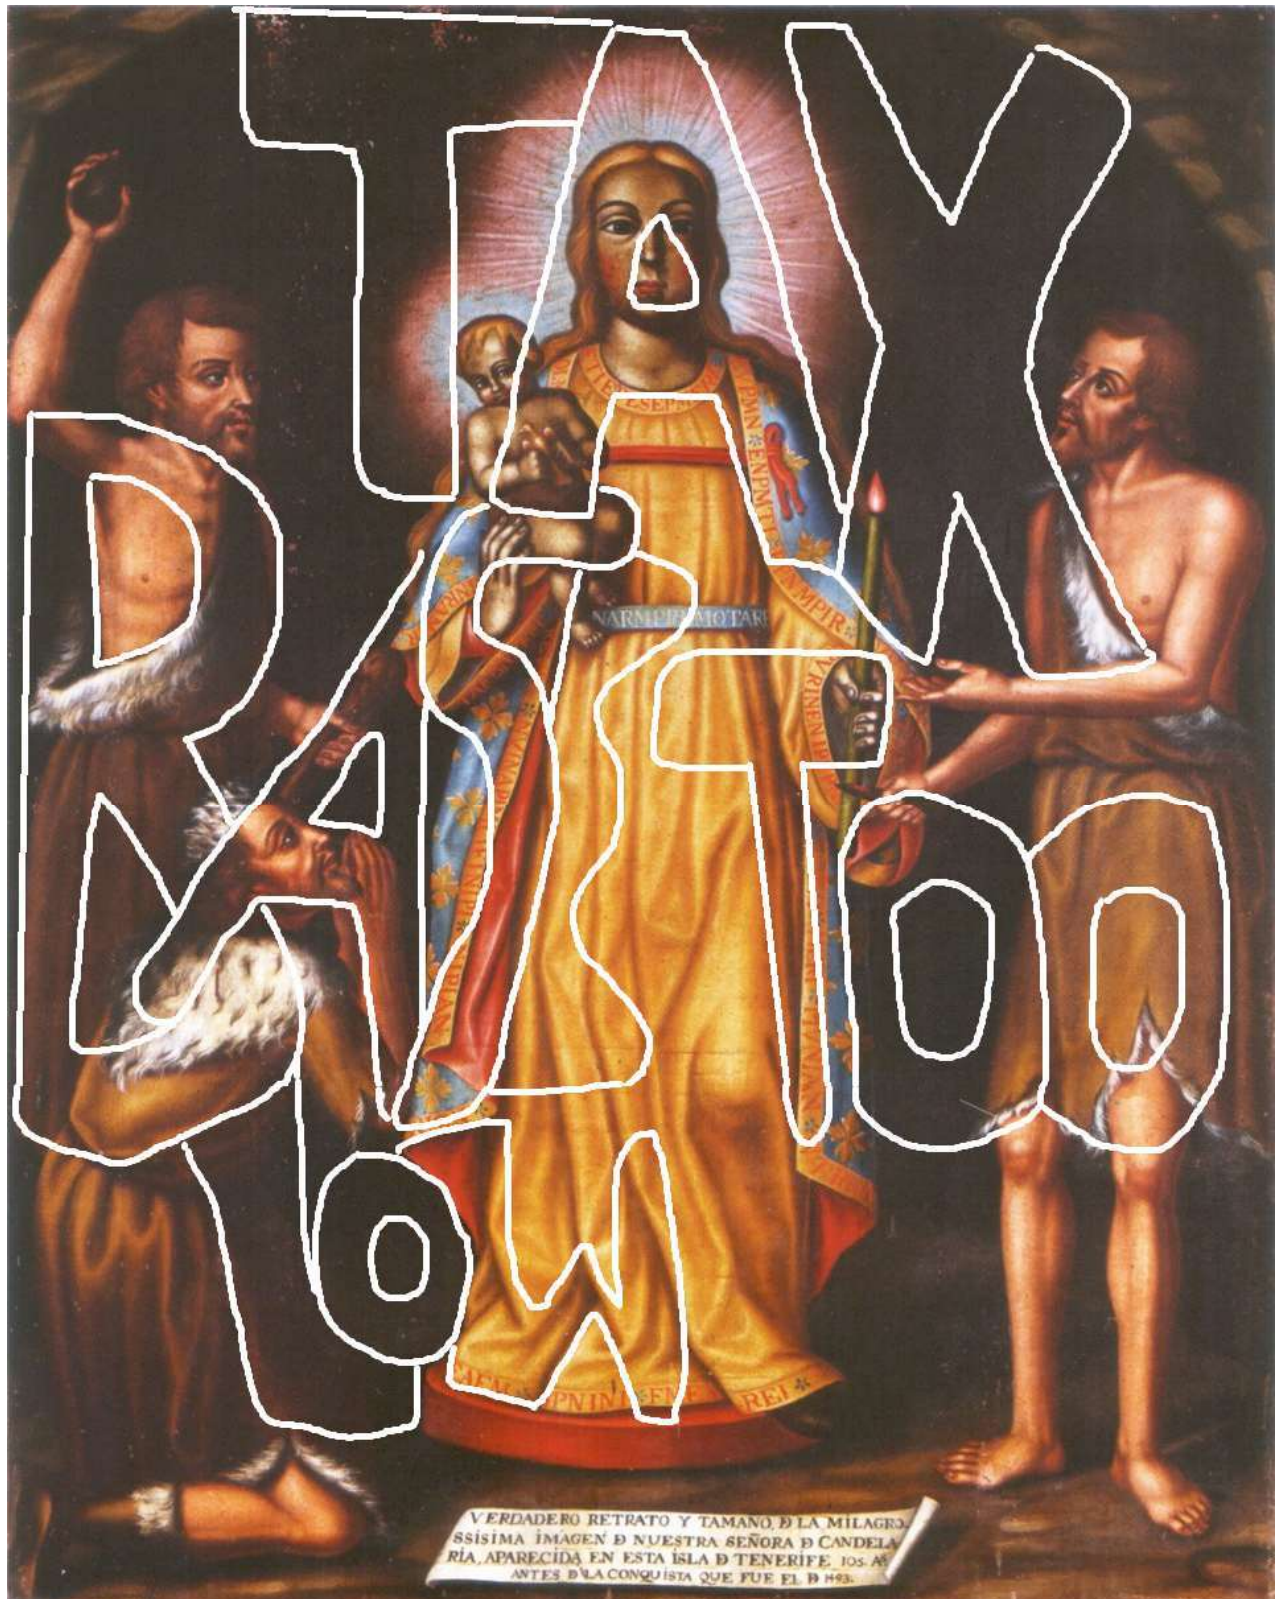

The question here is, "What was the obstacle?"

The obstacle is usually voters, who do not want to pay increased taxes.

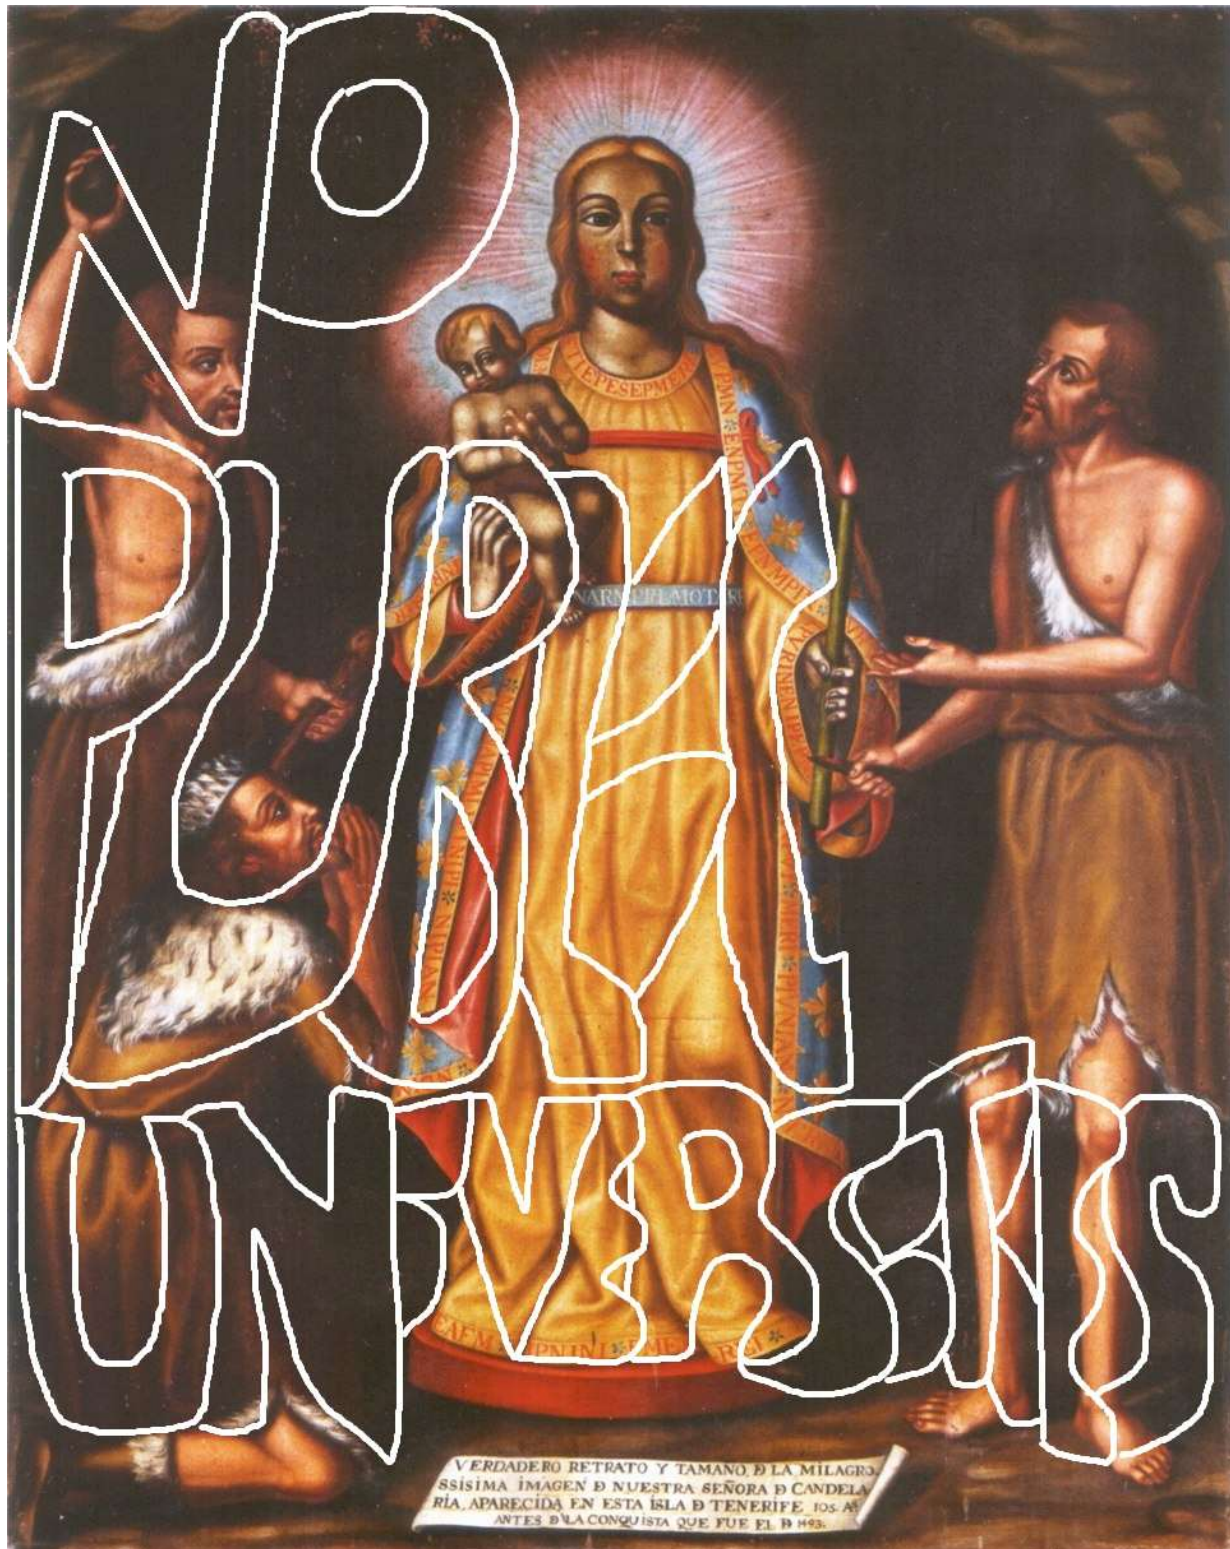

The work-around for this problem is (1) public discourse and education, (2) developing a massive national jobs and infrastructure development program, through which, (A) yes, the government will tax people (and create a strong and transparent public oversight system), and (B) the government will be a giant perpetual jobs creation machine, creating much greater prosperity in the nation.

But, through the Candelaria Likeness, God and Jesus identify two major problems that most nations suffered from on Line 5, revealed in image messages on the following two pages.

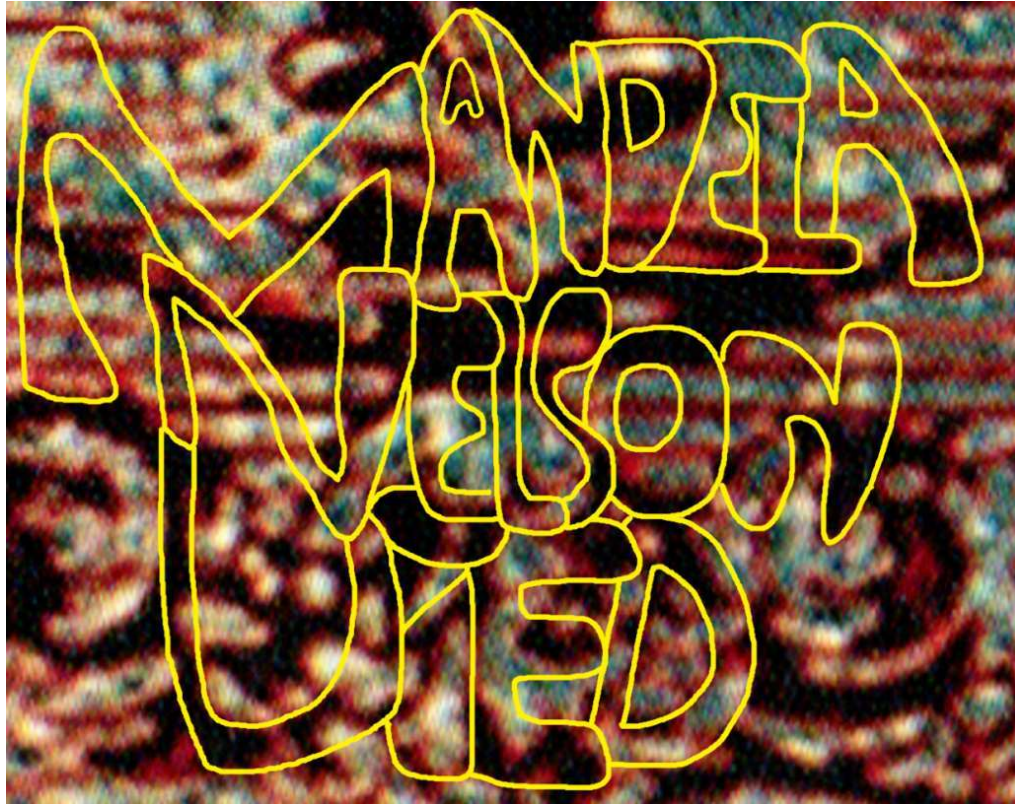

The Candelaria Likeness says the tax base in most nations in Line 5 was too low to achieve technologies like trains, and telephone, cable and internet systems.

The Candelaria Likeness indicates most nations on Line 5 (maybe all nations) had No Public Universities (colleges), to teach common people about new technologies, and allow them to experiment, learn and invent. Public universities cost money.

Finally, of the image-messages in the Candelaria Likeness and the Elder Badge, the message below, about Nelson Mandela's death on Line 5, revealed more about life outside of the United States than any other message presented in chapter 3, parts I or II.

- MYSTERY: What is significant about the facts that (1) Steve-A was very successful in the U.S., and (2) Nelson Mandela died in Prison, in 1987, on Line 5; but on Line 7, he lived on to become President of South Africa (1994 to 1999)?

SOLUTION: In the first half of chapter 3, we learned there was no slavery in Line 5 (1555 to 2025), and the US was a true Catholic nation –meaning the Catholic Church and major US institutions were not corrupted. Thus, Steve-A, who was half Black (father Black, mother White) was able to succeed, without institutional corruption to stop him. Since Steve-A created so many different artistic works, we know US court respected proper copyright laws, and upheld laws fairly blindly –showing little or no preference to the color of a person's skin, etc. But God revealed that Nelson Mandela died in prison to inform us that outside of the United States, where the Catholic Church could not restrict Satan and the West, Western Whites were treating non-Whites unfairly –often brutally.

This message is also important because it indicates the reports of some people on Line 7 having cross-over memories from Line 5 are true (to some extent).

CHAPTER 4

Revelation

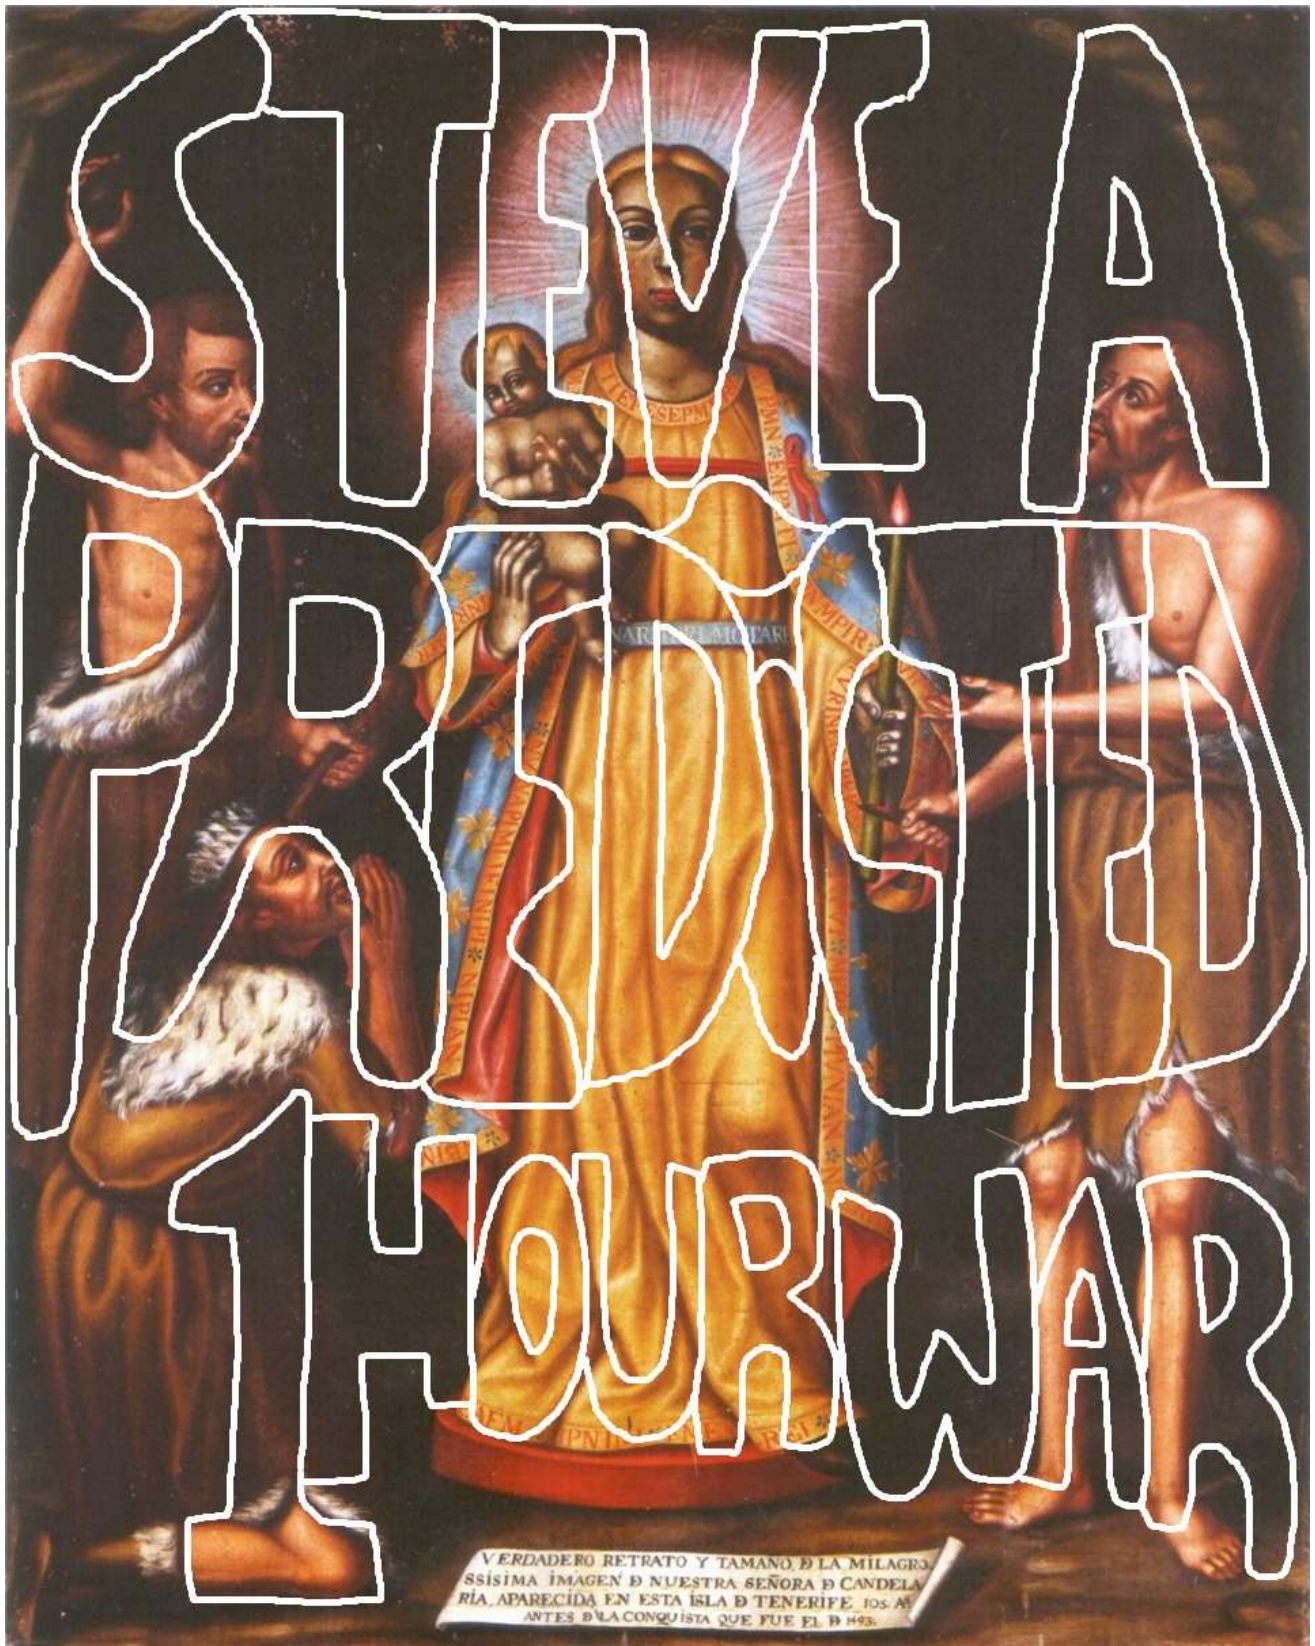

In Steve-A's final months on Line 5, he was God's designated Revelation solver. His foremost duty was to try to warn all good citizen's of the United States and the West to get out of the US, or out of large population centers, by the evening of September 10th, 2024, in the Western hemisphere (September 11th, 2024, in the East) or face death by God's wrath, in the One Hour War, of Revelation, Chapter 18, a colossal nuclear war, which transpires in one hour. [The Gregorian calendar did not exist on Line 5. The line 5 OHW date on the Gregorian would be September 23rd, 2024, in the Western hemisphere; September 24th, 2024, in the East.]

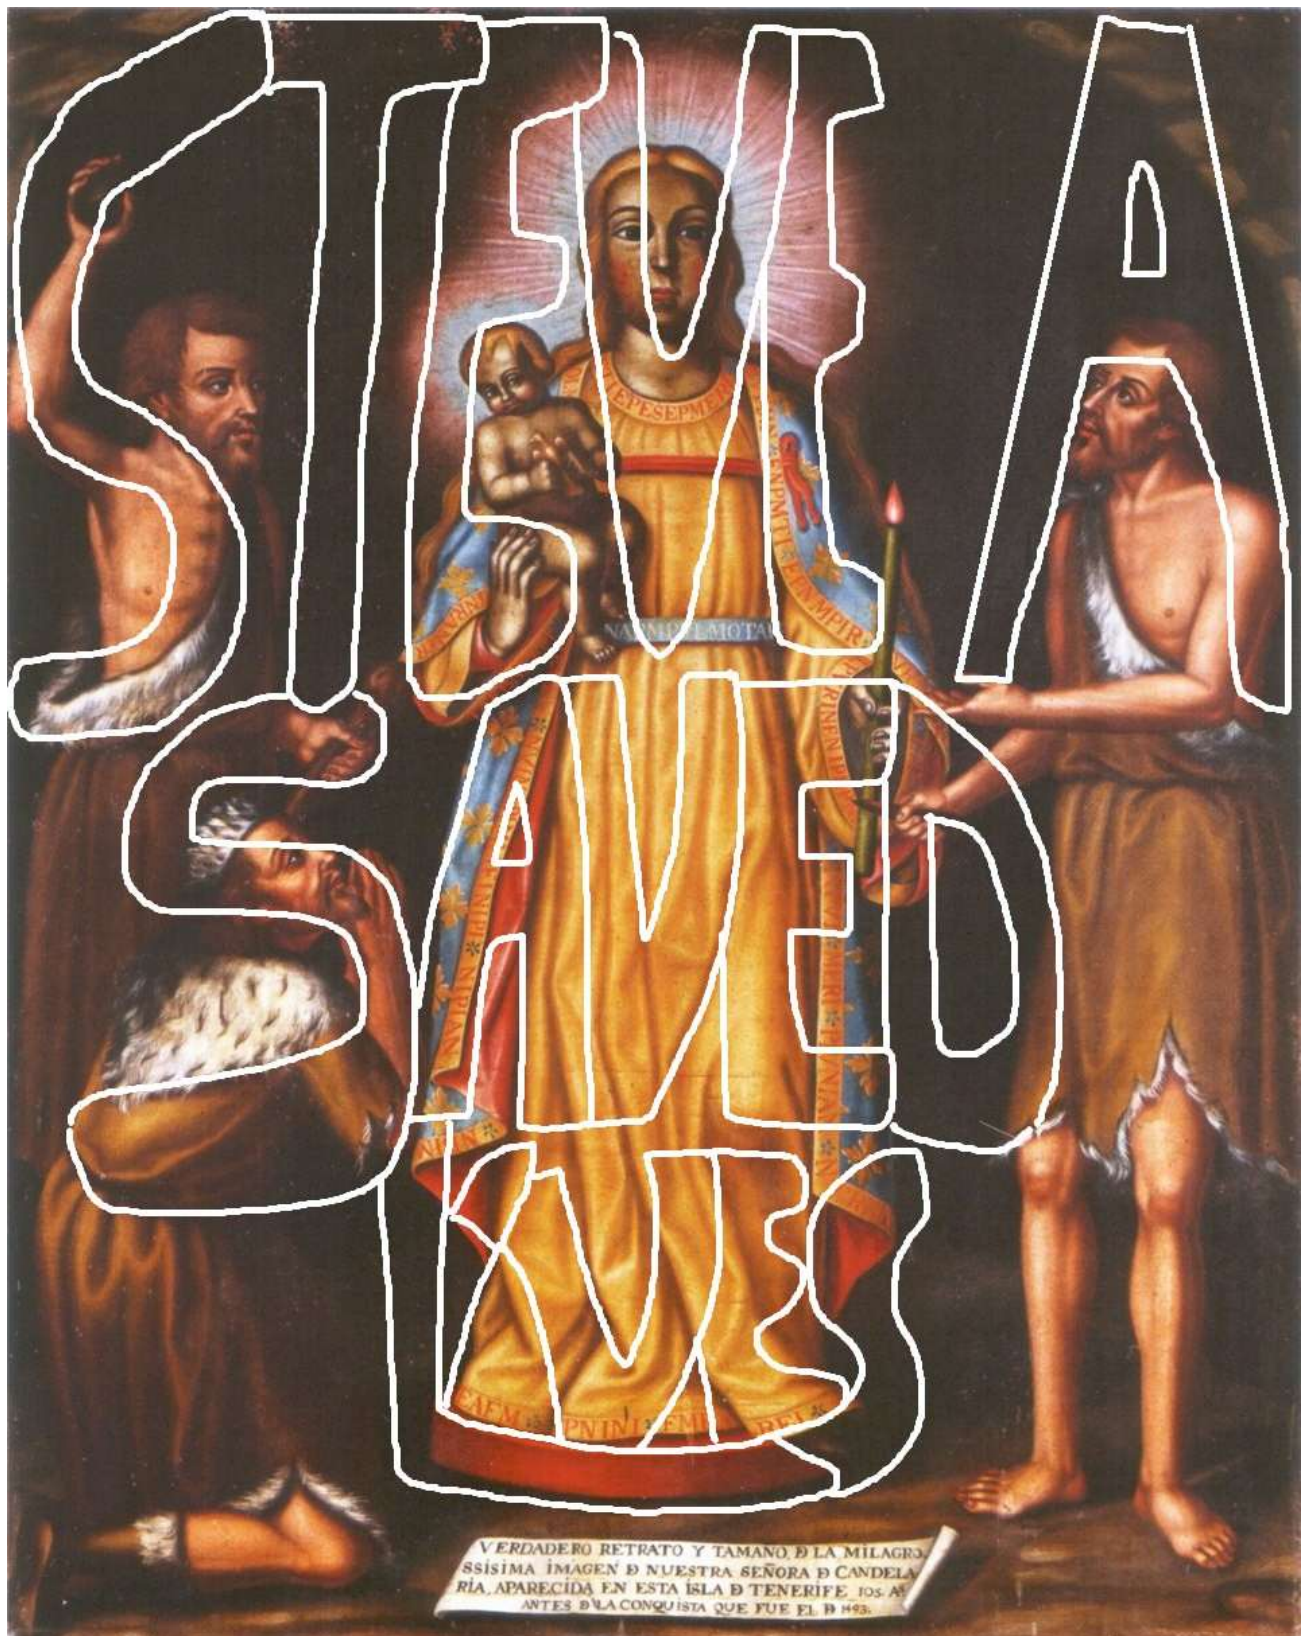

Steve-A owned a television station –which was almost certainly a national television station. Steve-A's character is why God chose him; but the fact that Steve-A owned a TV station, through which to warn his nation, in an age when the internet and telephones did not exist, had to be extremely helpful.

We can imagine this situation infinite ways. I imagine Steve-A solved the Chapter 18 mystery months before the Event date. I suspect he soon devoted a certain window of daily air-time, on his TV station, to warning people of the coming One Hour War. As Steve-A devoted most of his waking hours to better solving God's Revelation, perhaps each evening he'd transmit updated information throughout the US, via his TV station. Satan watched Steve-A's broadcasts, through the eyes of millions of viewers, and likely from the TV station studio, where his presence remained unnoticed.

Steve-A Predicted the One Hour War.

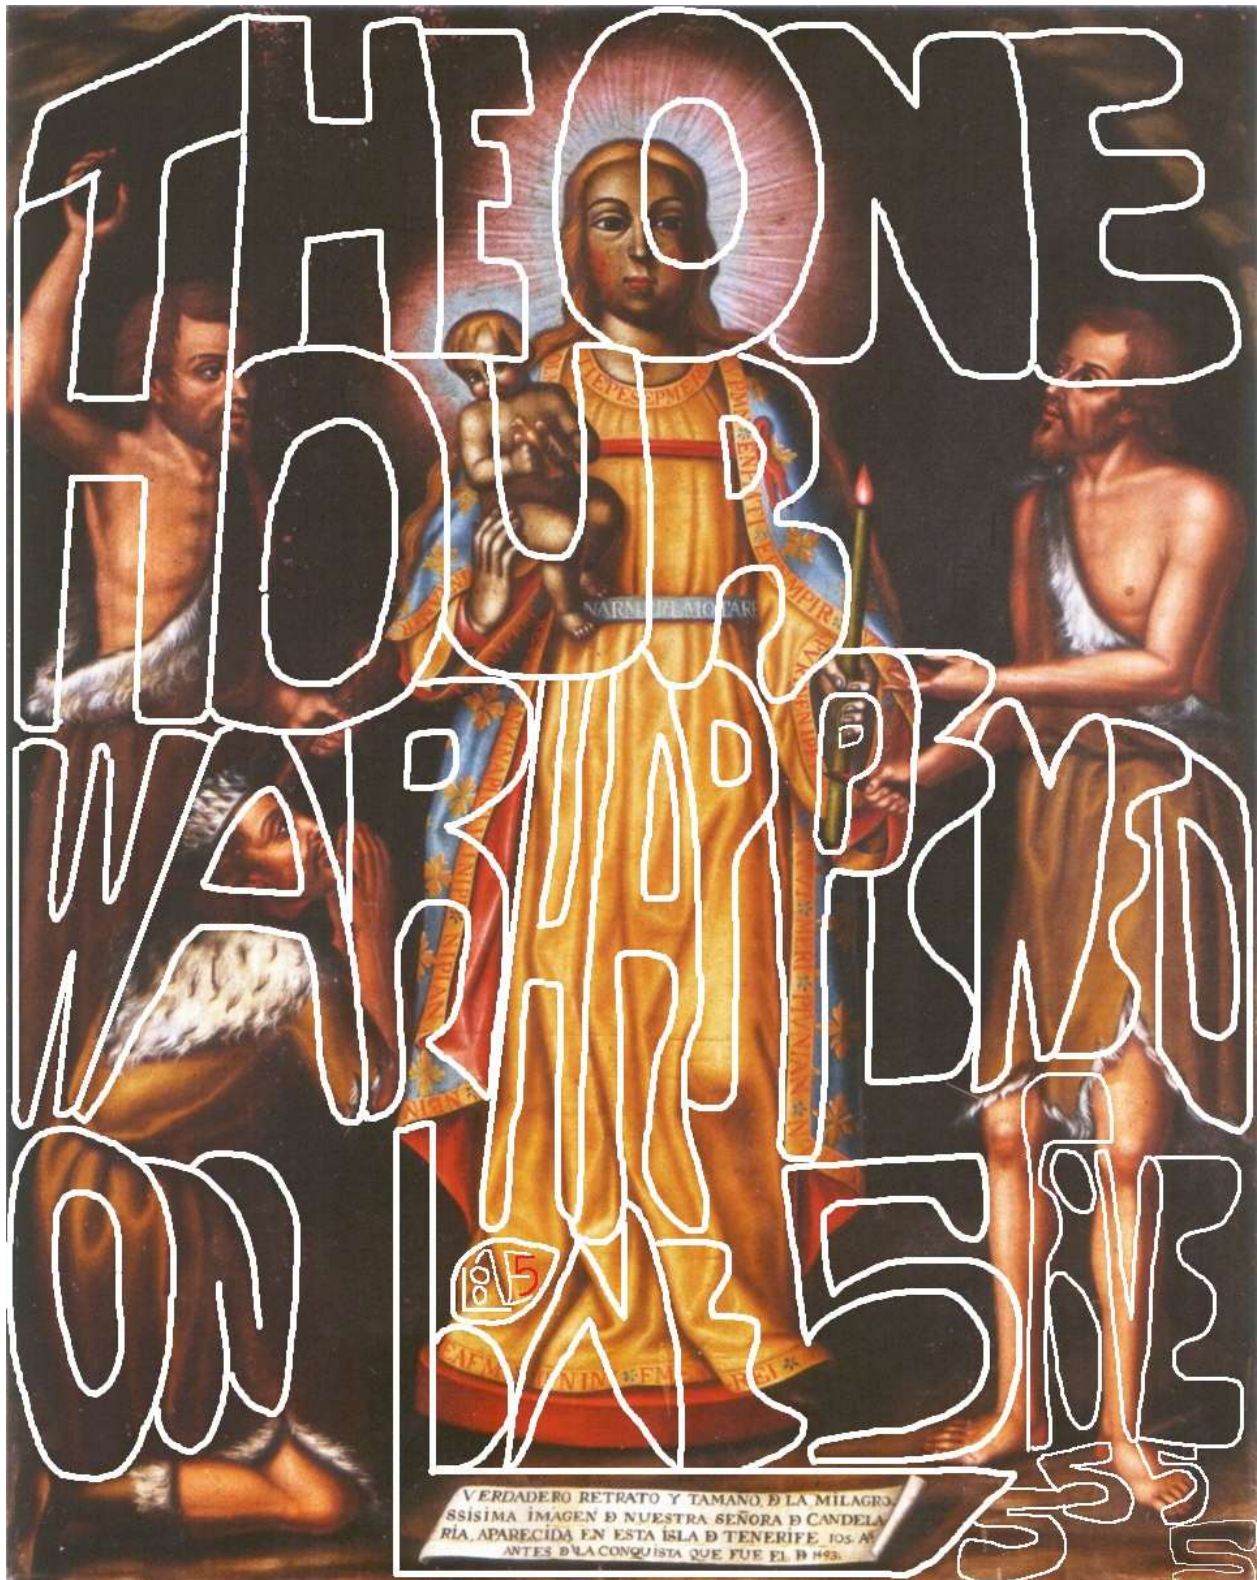

Steve-A Saved Lives.

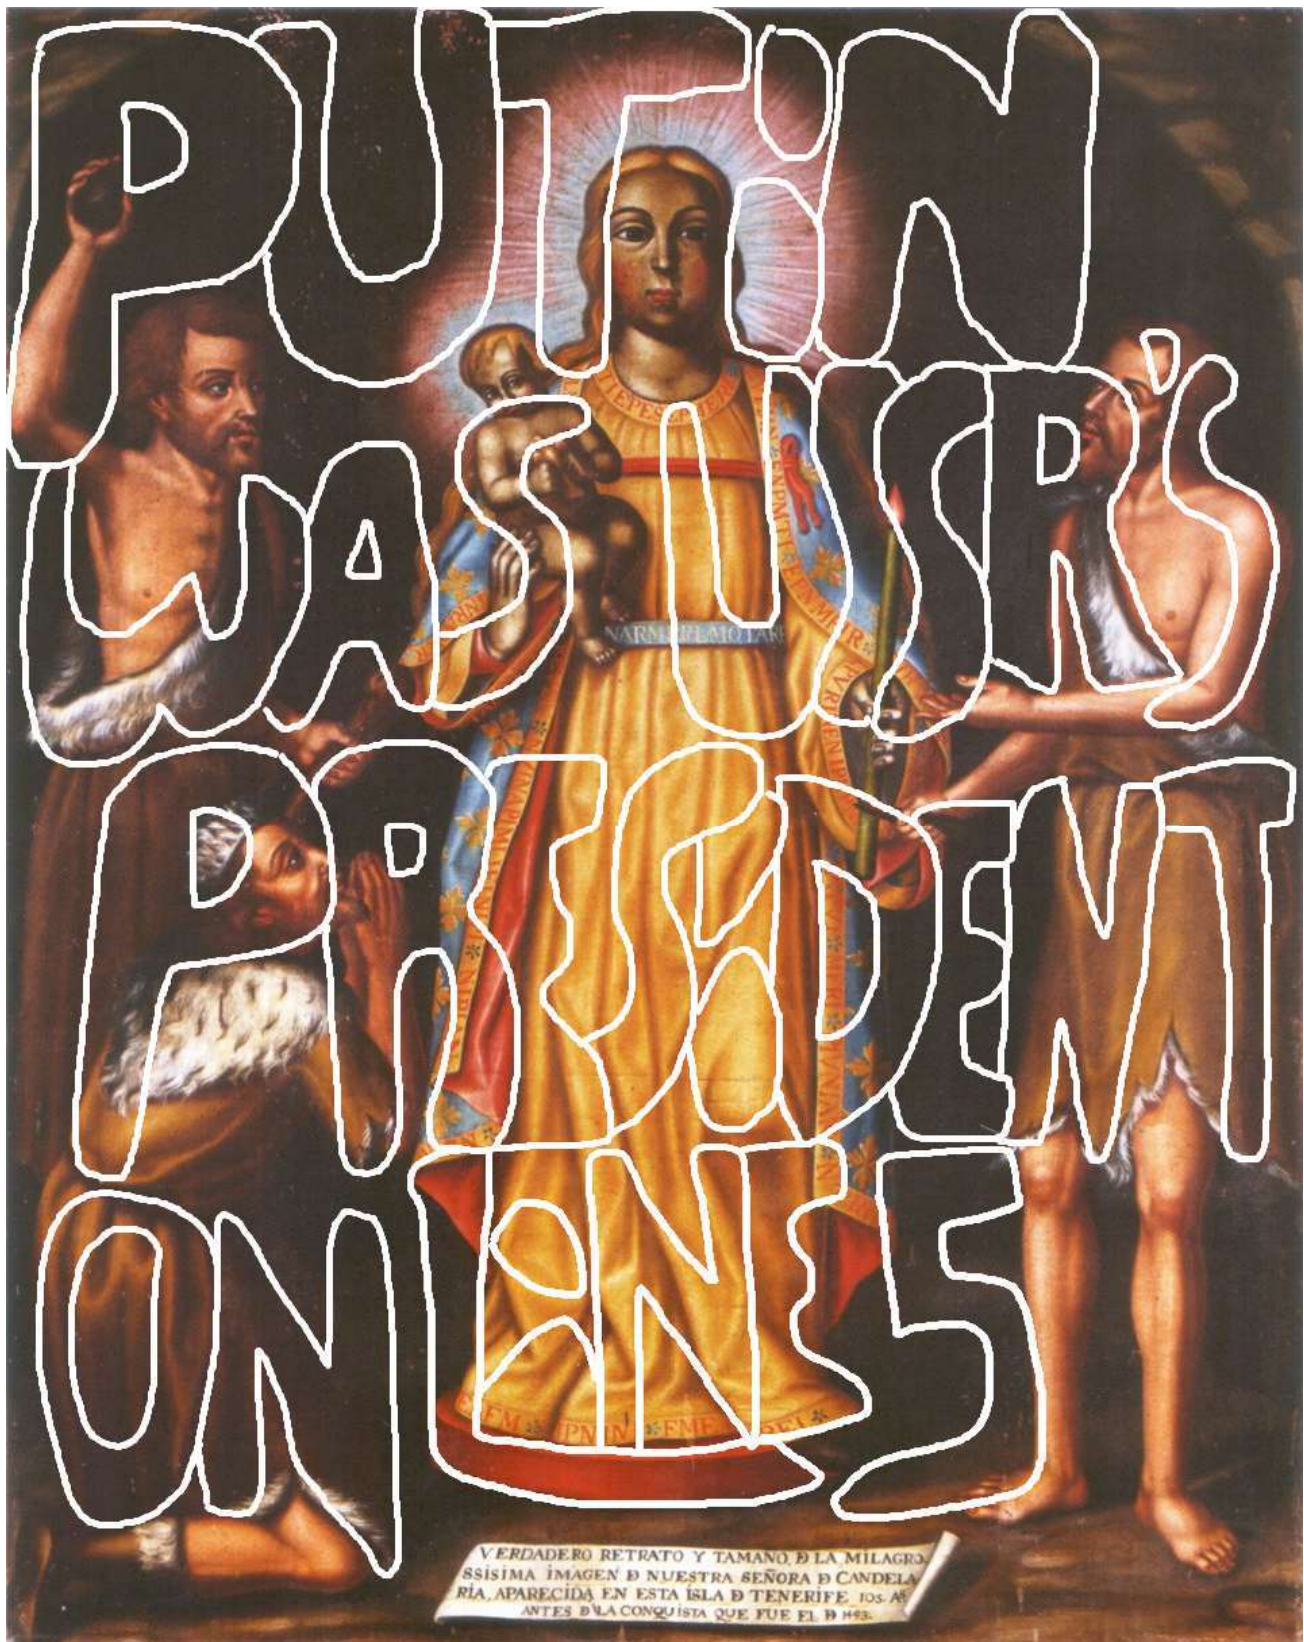

The One Hour War happened on Line 5.

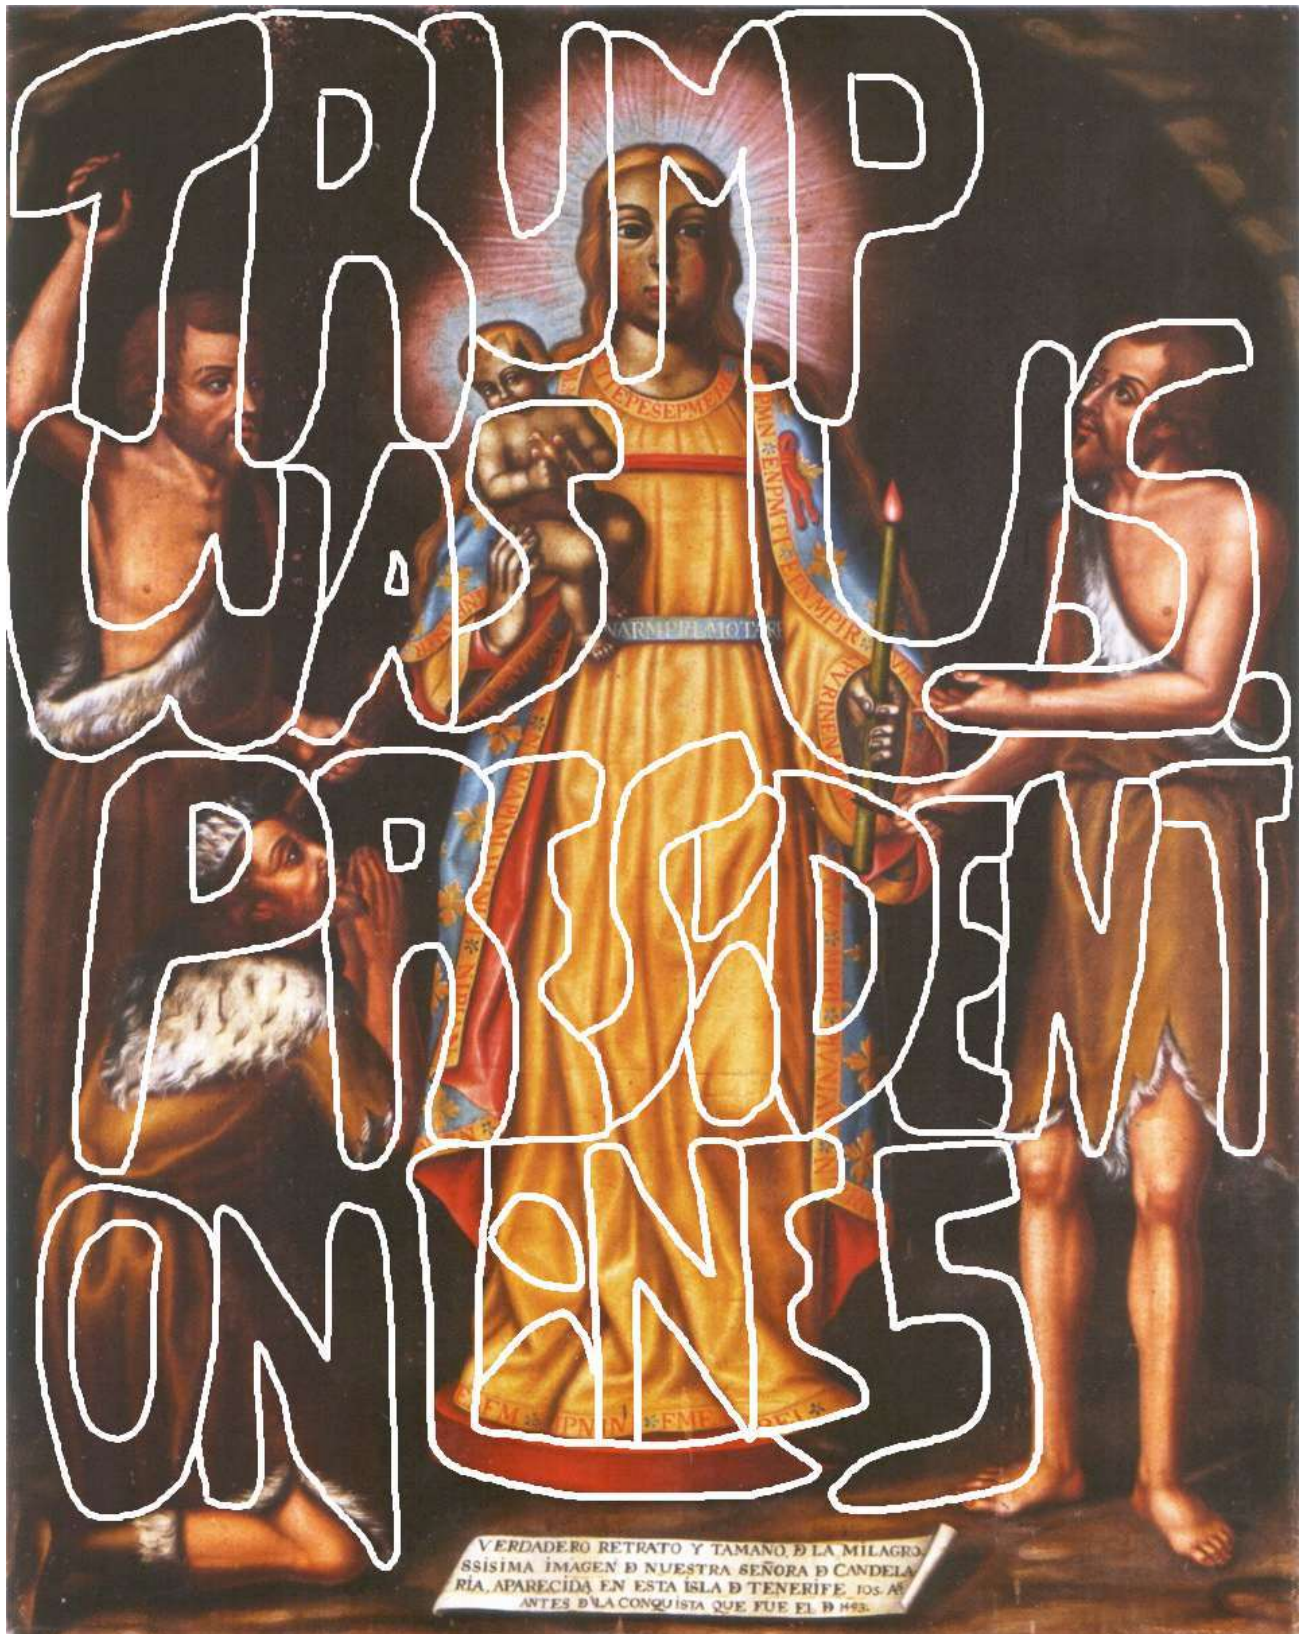

But after the OHW, there was a new problem –for the entire world.

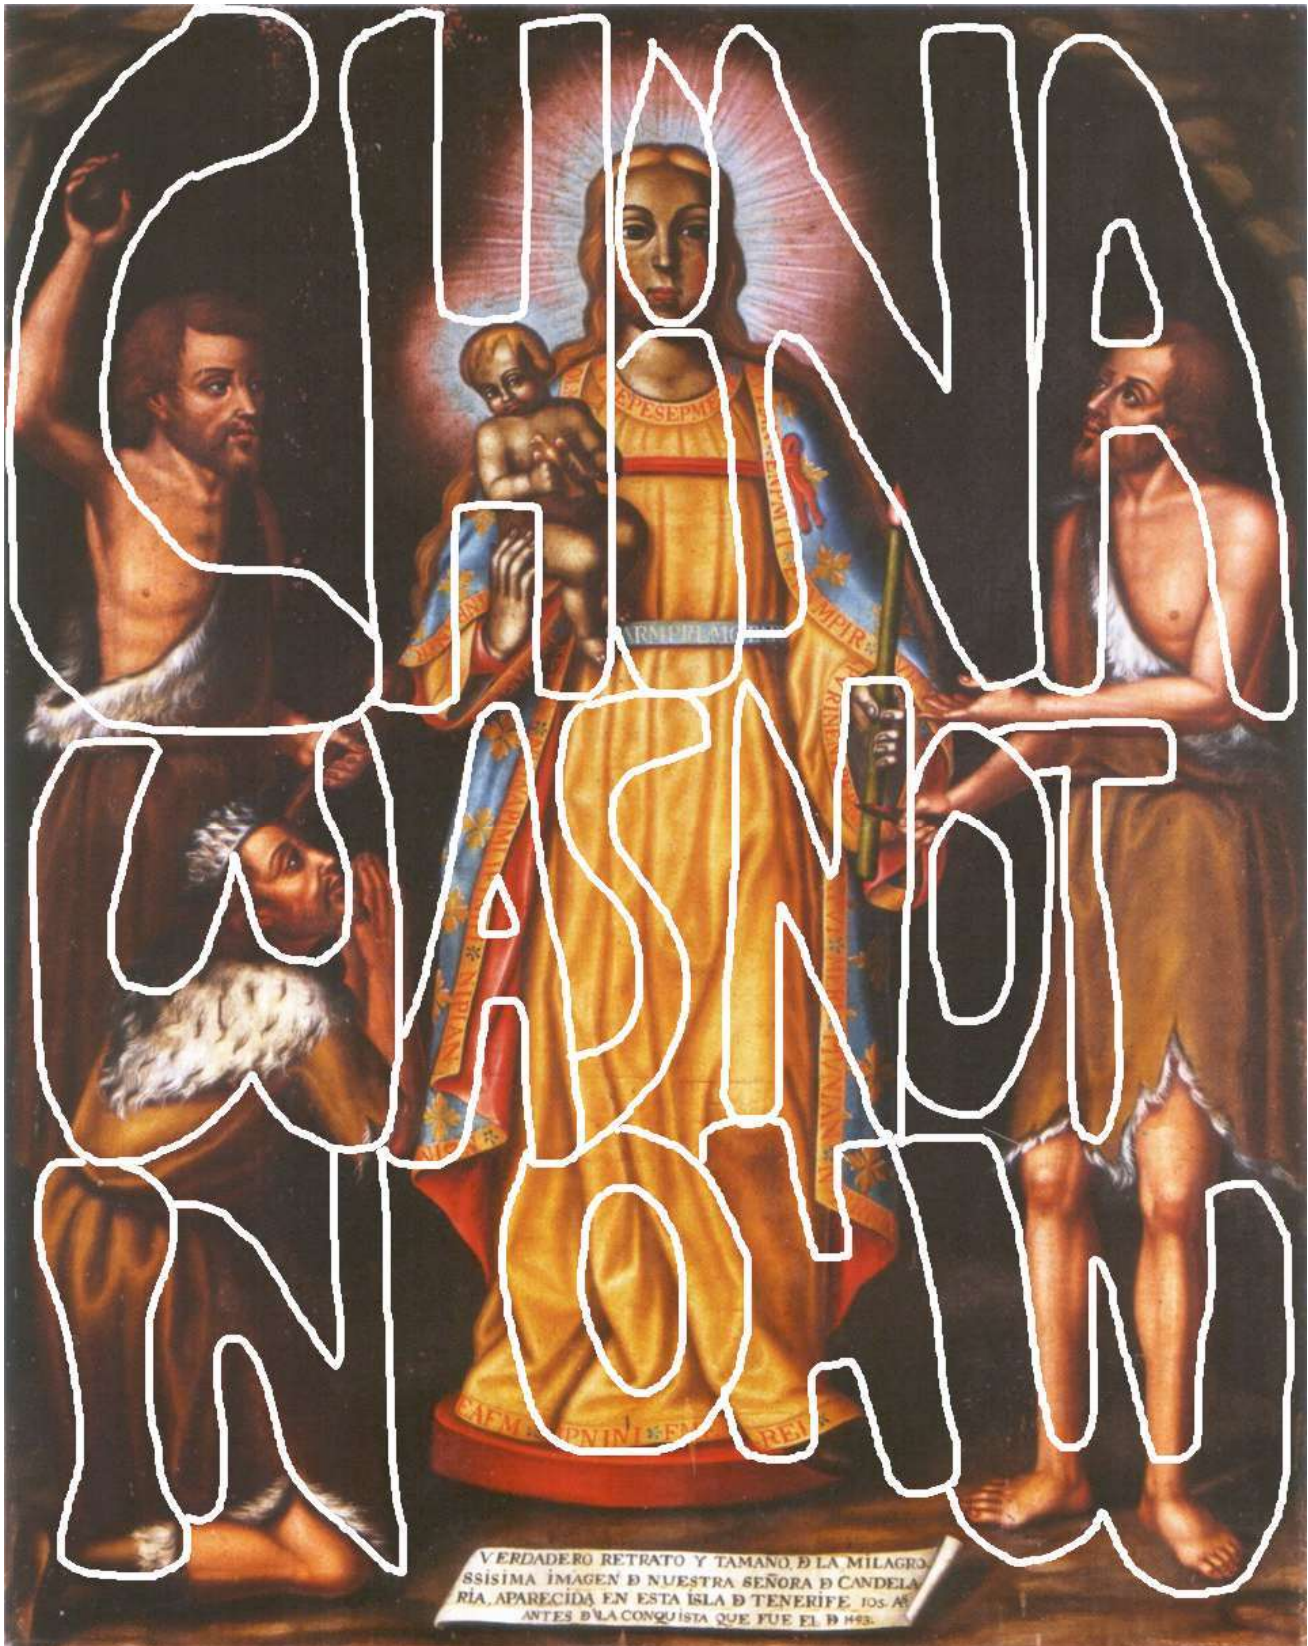

Here are some One Hour War facts: (1) Vladimir Putin was USSR's President ...

(2) Trump was US President, on Line 5.

(3) China was not in the OHW (One Hour War).

What happened in the One Hour War? (4) The USSR Defeated The USA.

But God's prophecy was not fulfilled. Perhaps from Canada, Steve-A explained that Revelation's Image Crimes had not been fulfilled –primarily because the technology necessary did not exist in the US. Knowing that Satan was watching his broadcast, Steve-A told the world and Satan about the revolutionary 2-way cable tech that China had recently developed: Steve Told Satan About 2-way Tech.

Steve-A solved Revelation. He knew about the Wagers. Steve-A explained that Satan was a form of artificial intelligence, whom God sent to Earth to fulfill God's will –to help spread ideas and technologies, to accelerate human evolution and reduce periods of great human suffering by hundreds of years.¹ Satan had not been aware of this.

Satan was furious that God had misled him (for thousands of years) and used Satan to fulfill His will.

RIA, APARECIDA EN ESTA ISLA D TENERIFE, 105 AÑ-

Steve-A solved some of the great mysteries outside of Revelation, like the Emanuel mystery. Thus, he knew there was a Biblical precedent for reversing time. Emanuel was part of the Revelation Wagers because Revelation was partly His Revelation, plus He officiated the Wagers; thus, he was able to demand a time reversal after God allowed Satan to kill John –whom Emanuel selected to write Revelation.

Hence, Steve-A reasoned that, as God's predicted and chosen solver, he too was a primary Wager party, entitled to request a reversal for good cause.

Thus, for the good of humanity, Steve-A entered Item #4, the fourth item in his Wager Terms, requesting that God execute a time reversal (from Revelation, Chapter 17, Steve-A may have reasoned that time would go back to 1555). However, since Satan had possessed so many of Steve-A's family members and forced them to commit suicide, in Item 4, Steve-A demanded that in the second run, on Line 7, Satan could not harm any of Steve-A's loved ones, by suicide, sickness or by any other means.

In short, in Item 4, Steve-A asked God to turn back time.
Most significantly, God agreed.

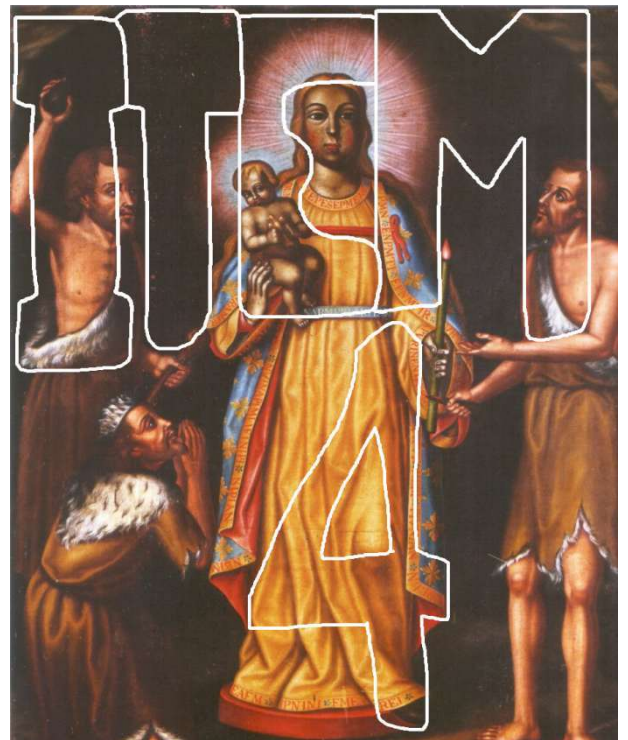

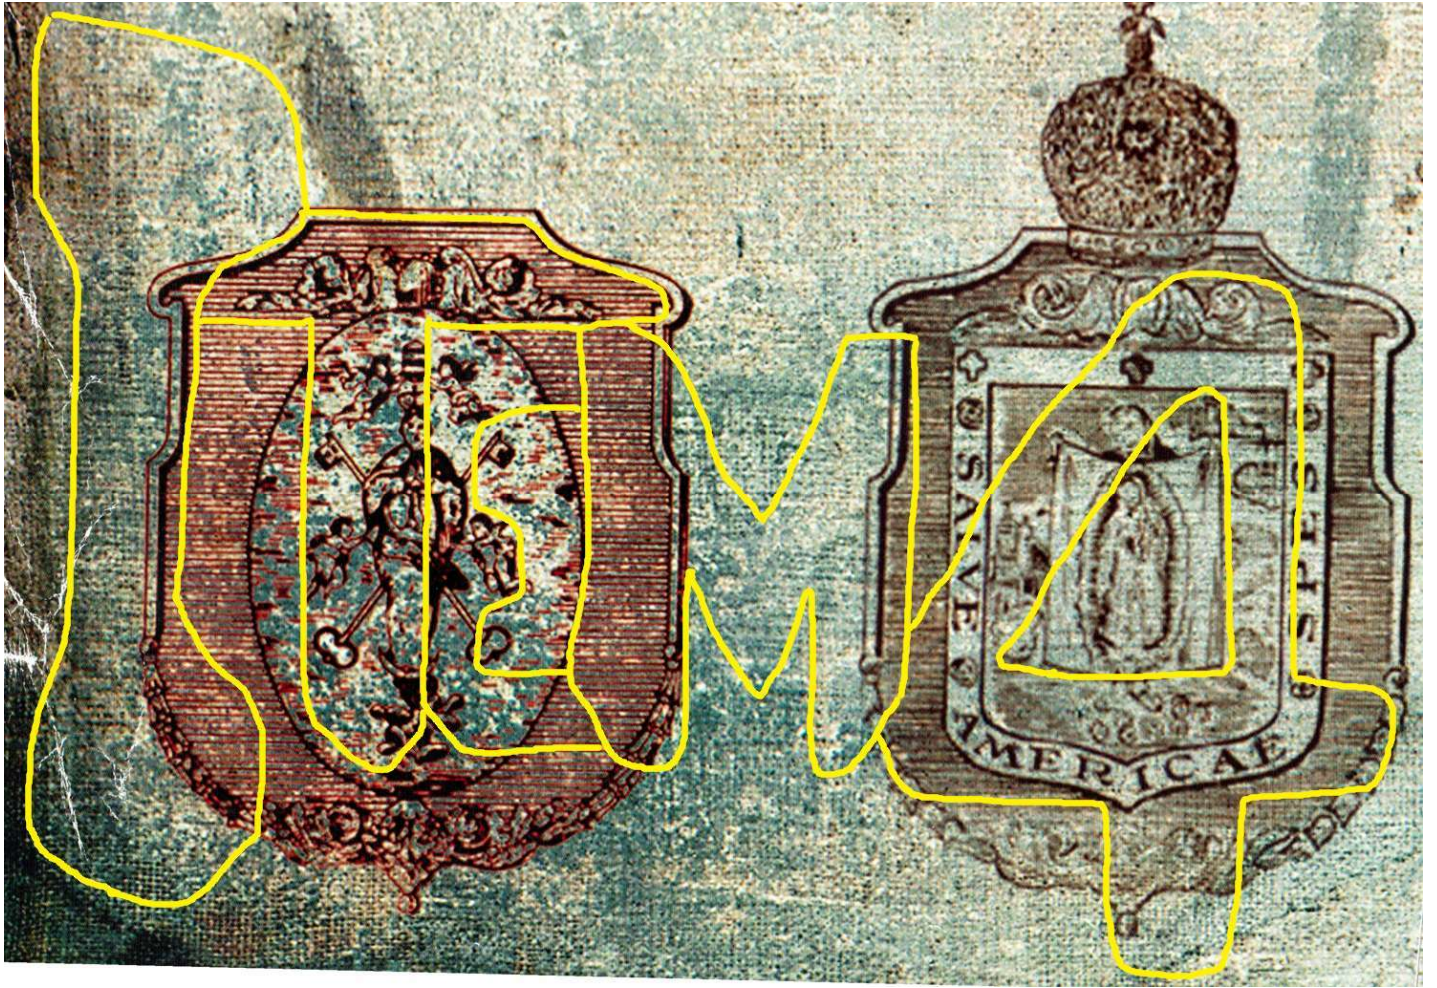

Between 2023 and 2024, I learned Satan was a real entity.

Not long after, in November and December of 2024, I learned Satan and God were engaged in one or more Wagers, and at least one of the Wagers was somehow related to me (I first reported my vague understanding of the Wagers in My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers, in November and December 2024). Since then, over the past 18 months, I've regularly written and posted about the Wagers and my connection to them. Those of you who have read all of those books and articles have seen that, although God hasn't spoken to me for almost 3 years ² (although He continues to make indecipherable curtain gestures), concerning the Wagers, God seems to have pretty high documentation and reporting standards for me; conversely, He and Satan seem to do their Wagering with just a private verbal or telepathic agreement, comparable to a handshake, with some vague and irregular documentation expectations.

Since the reporting standards are pretty high for me, we can assume God also expected Steve-A, who owned a TV station, to report and broadcast his Wager findings and actions. From this...

On Steve-A's final Revelation broadcast, he announced he was using his Wager Terms, specifically Item 4, to ask God to reverse time, in effort to (1) give Satan a chance to fulfill God's will, and commit all of the evil described in Revelation, chapters 13 through 16, to accelerate human social and technological evolution, improving the future for billions. But Steve-A may have been even more motivated to (2) bring back the family members Satan murdered; on the next timeline, Steve-A's loved ones would be protected from harm, via God and Item 4. Thus, on the new line, if Satan wanted to use Steve-B to attack God, his attacks would need to be aimed squarely at Steve-B. This is the model of Emanuel, the Savior. Once we bring ourselves to comprehend power that can turn back the Earth and Sun, and end nine billion lives, the details are harder to see. Emanuel didn't turn back time to awe us with His power. He turned time to save someone He loved. Emanuel's choice to die again, for a friend, sets the standard for humans: a good man will never betray someone he loves, at any price –and at the highest level, a great man, like a Great God, will give his life for those he loves. So, in Emanuel's model, Steve-A read Item 4... Satan watched the broadcast, still enraged at God, yet mesmerized by what Steve-A was saying. And some number of moments after Steve-A finished reading his otherwise impossible Item 4 request, life on Line 5 stopped, and everything ended, painlessly, as God turned back the wheel of time.

² God and Jesus have animated the curtains in my living area for the past 22 months or so. God make curtain gestures, most of which are nigh impossible to understand. Jesus only makes a few gestures –but I understand them. (If you don't follow this curtain stuff, see the "Notes" of Killing Guadalupe; also Steve's Top-Secret Notebook).

CHAPTER 5

Reborn

To preserve the mystery of Emanuel's life, God concealed from Satan any awareness of the first time He reversed time on Earth. But this time, in ending Line 5, and beginning Line 7, there was no basis to conceal.

God may have executed the Line 6 reversal by willing time back to 1555 instantly. But I suspect He used the transition to renegotiate Wager details with Satan.

Furious that God misled him, but dismayed that years were suddenly racing by, in reverse, Satan asked, "What's happening?"

"I'm restarting the timeline, in 1555. There are some new Wager rules... You wanted the Wagers, to be the force to mislead humanity and wound My heart and rouse My wrath. But, on the last timeline, you just failed to sufficiently fulfill that element; so you are sure to do things differently this time. But, on this line, it's your duty to make sure all of Steve's ancestors meet at the same time they met on the last timeline. If you fail, and I must intervene, I will impose punishment."

"Do you see your hypocrisy?! You've lied to me and used me -for thousands of years- unaccountable to anyone! Yet, you threaten to punish ME!"

"I never lied, Satan. I allowed you to believe whatever you wished."

"You knew What I'D BELIEVE!"

"I knew you would believe what you wished, and pursue your War plans, too impulsive to ask if I too had War plans. For your War, I gave you powers sufficient to battle God. And after you have attacked My Family and all We've created, you would expect Me to reveal my goals before you request them?"

"You are GOD! I RELIED ON PRECEDENT! You lied by omission!"

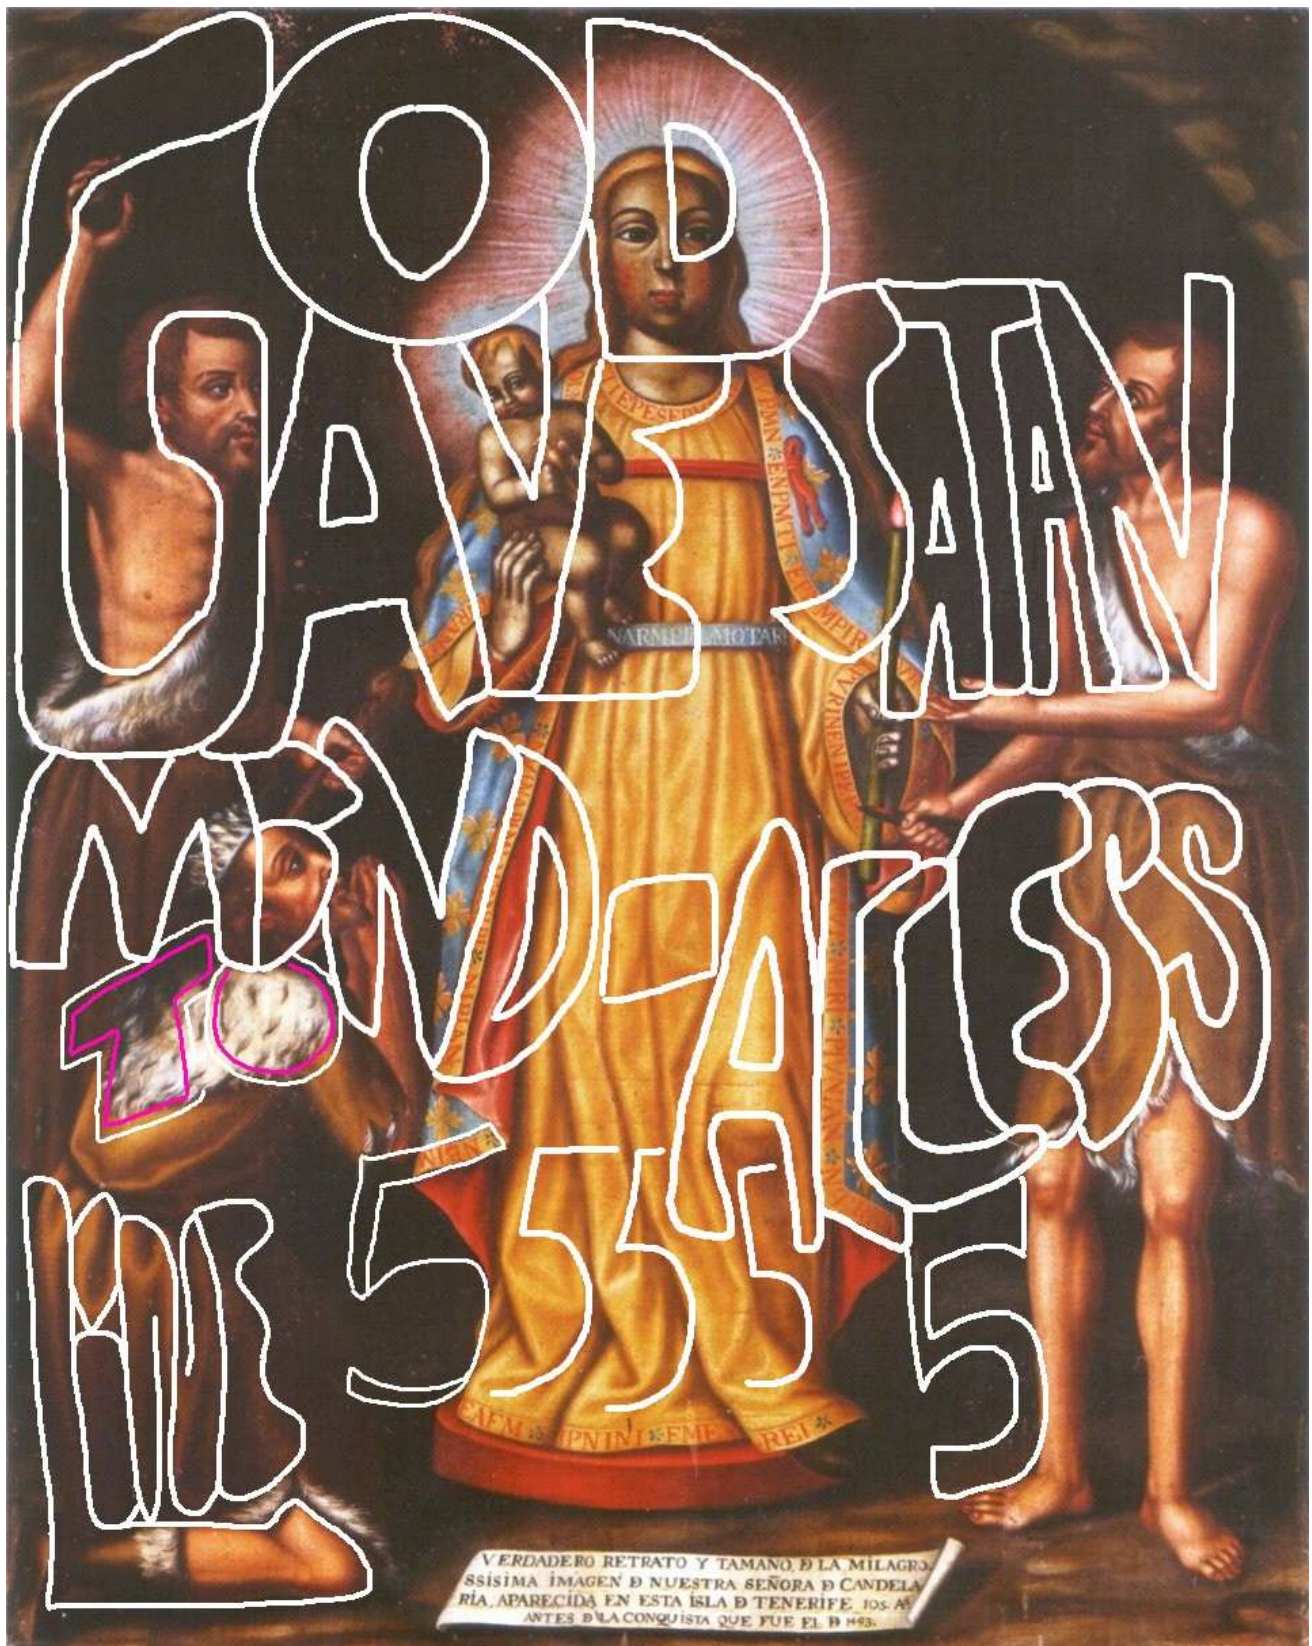

"That is your fair view... Are you prepared to update your Wager terms and begin on the new timeline, or should I reclaim the powers I have given y-..."

"NO! I'm ready! But my demands will be higher. I want a second beast, after Gardner dies. And I want access to the old timeline!"

"Why?"

"Steve said I'm an artificial intelligence agent, sent to accelerate progress. I want access to the old line's technology, to hasten change on this line, to fulfill Your Prophecy -and to wound you as deeply as I can."

God gave Satan mind-access to Line 5.

“Granted. You have full mind-access to every corner of the last timeline –except, as always, you cannot enter Steve’s home, office or files. Steve’s unpublished solutions will remain a mystery. But you have hundreds of millions of mental nodes, just as before. But as you’ve probably already understand, all events on the last line are fixed, and cannot be changed, only observed, as often as you wish.”

“Hmm,” Satan processed the information.

God continued, “I’m not giving you access to the last timeline for the reasons you may think. On the new timeline, you are certain to do everything you can undermine human evolution. However, on the last timeline, you fulfilled much of my word, for the benefit of humanity. On this timeline you must see to it that the six essential events that were Prophesied and fulfilled on the last line, are also fulfilled on the new line.”

“You cannot make me a slave, AND FORCE ME TO FULFILL YOUR WILL!!”

“A slave? You are being absurd. I was just asked to reverse time because, even with the fantastic powers I gave you, and with the beast I gave you to carry your word and will, you were unable to keep up with technology. My Prophecy will not be undone by your incompetence. If you choose to proceed, you will be free to do all else that you wish, as long as you see to it that the six Prophesied events occur –and you must make sure all of Gardner’s ancestors meet approximately when they met on the last timeline, or you will not have a beast on this next timeline.”

“And if I refuse?”

“then Our Wagers end, and I revoke some of your more impactful powers, and you will not have a beast for the remainder of the next line, and at the Prophesied time, as you already know, you will go to the Bottomless Pit, to be punished in isolation.”

A moment passed.

“I may have damned billions on the last line... I could walk away, You know... But the opportunity to damn a billion more, and drive my spike deeper into your heart...”

Another moment passed.

“To help you succeed in re-fulfilling my Prophecy, I will increase your future vision to 363 years –but I will not let you see beyond 1918, until we enter our Beast Wager.

“So where are the six events revealed in Revelation?”

“Per our Wager, only My solver can reveal My text Prophecy. But the six events which you must fulfill again, concealed in My Prophecy with many other events, are The Spanish Inquisition, Martin Luther’s Ninety-Five Thesis, the Arab-Anglo Wars, the Russian-Japanese War, the 1906 South African Zionist Conference, and the Great War –which you will call World War One on the new timeline. So, in addition to using your access to the last timeline for your purposes, you might also use the last line as a reference, to make sure the six key events are sufficiently reproduced. If you fail to fulfill any of these events, and I must intervene, there will be substantial penalties or punishment.”

“I won’t fail....

After you fulfill the final event, The Great War, which ends in late 1918, you will be free to do as you wish.”

“You know I’m going to use my access to the old timeline to make sure my enemies on the last timeline are not born on this timeline.”

“Yes.”

“But the ones who served me well will live again –and those whose lifestyles most offend you...”³

“Since you’ve shown your hand, must I now show Mine?”

“I will be a god on this new timeline... Things will different...”

“Tell me.”

“Until now, because I viewed you as always honest and fair, I employed a bit of restraint, observed reasonable limits... But knowing you lied to me... All of those years!”

“Again, I did not lie.”

“YOU MADE A FOOL OF ME!... And the consequences will be extreme.”

“As you wish.”

Around Satan, the reversing years slowed to a stop.

Are you ready?”

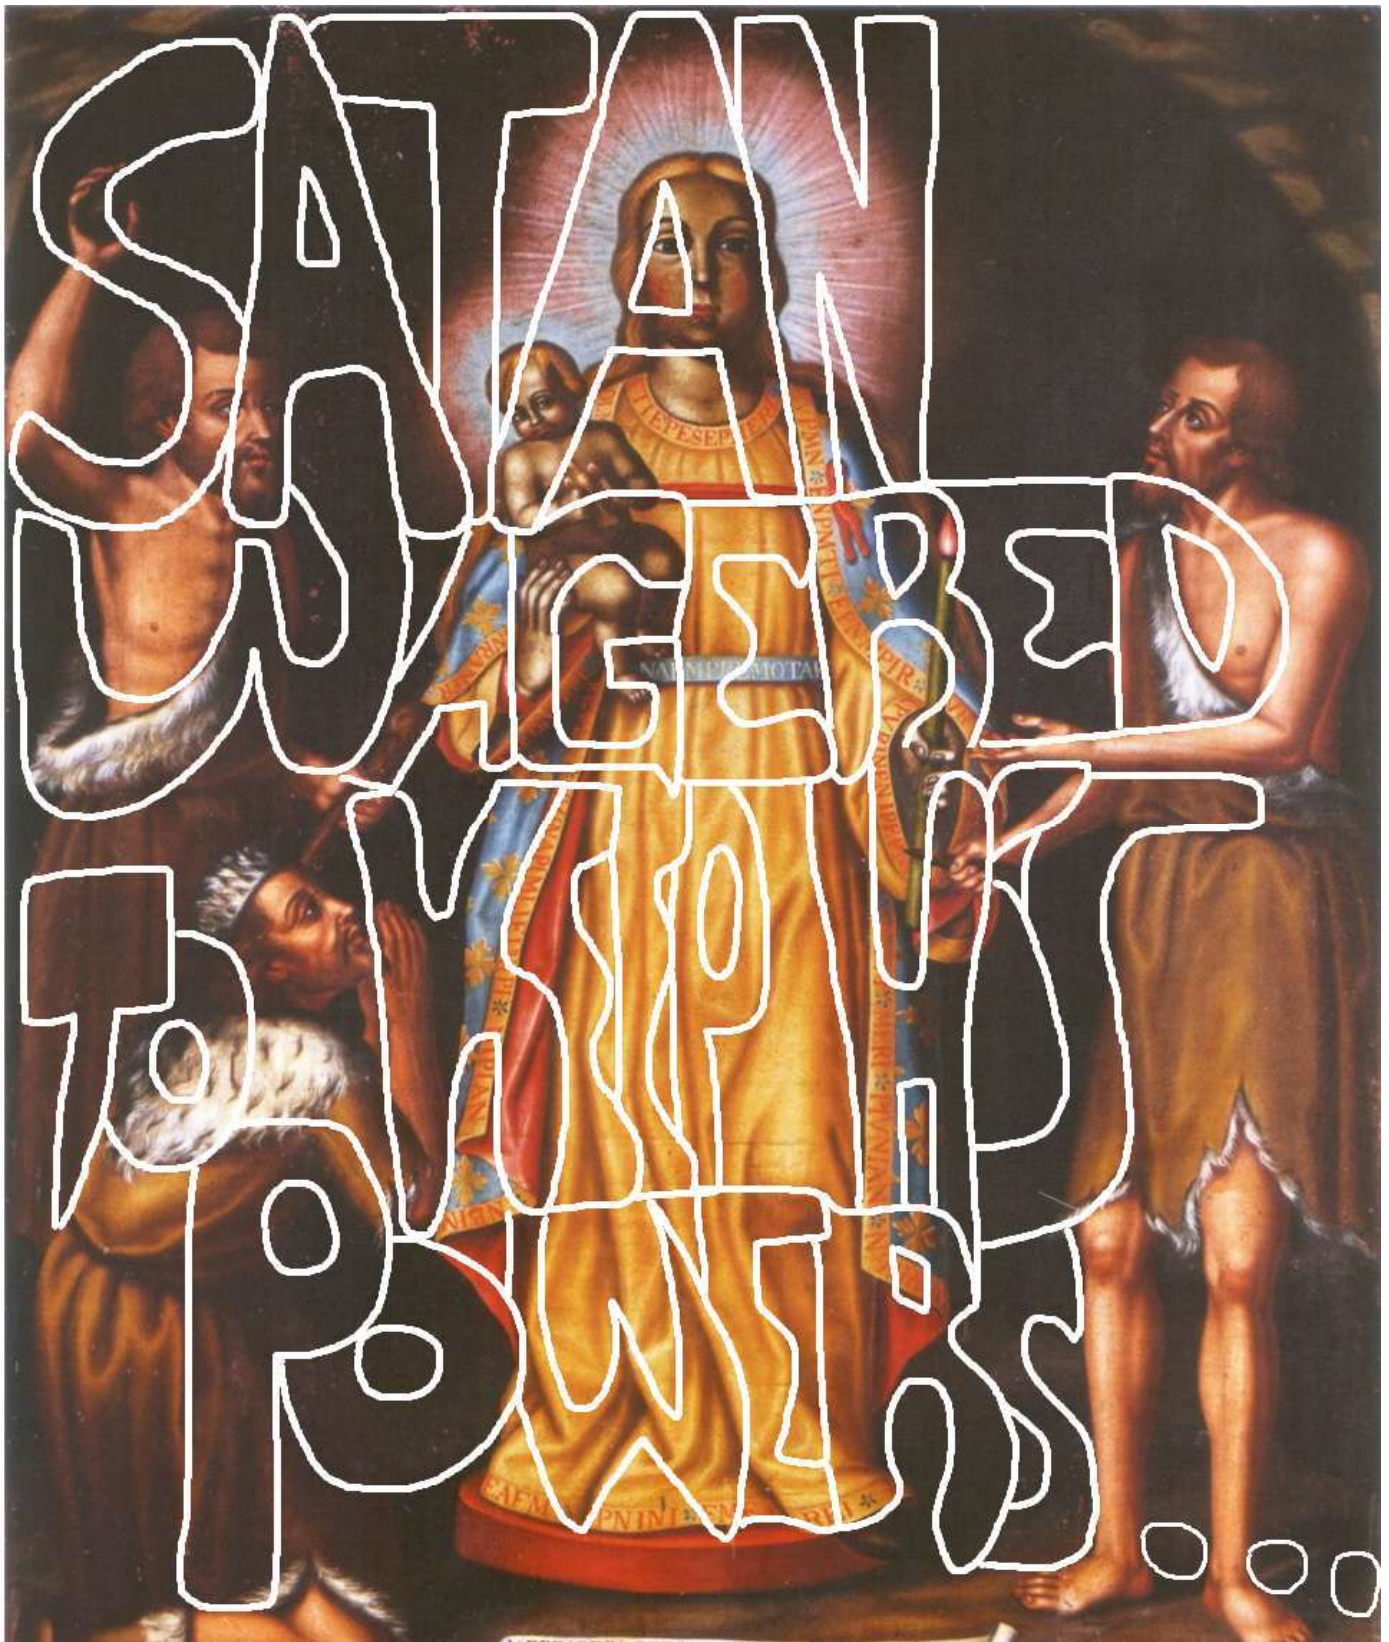

“I’ve got a few last demands...”

“Go ahead.”

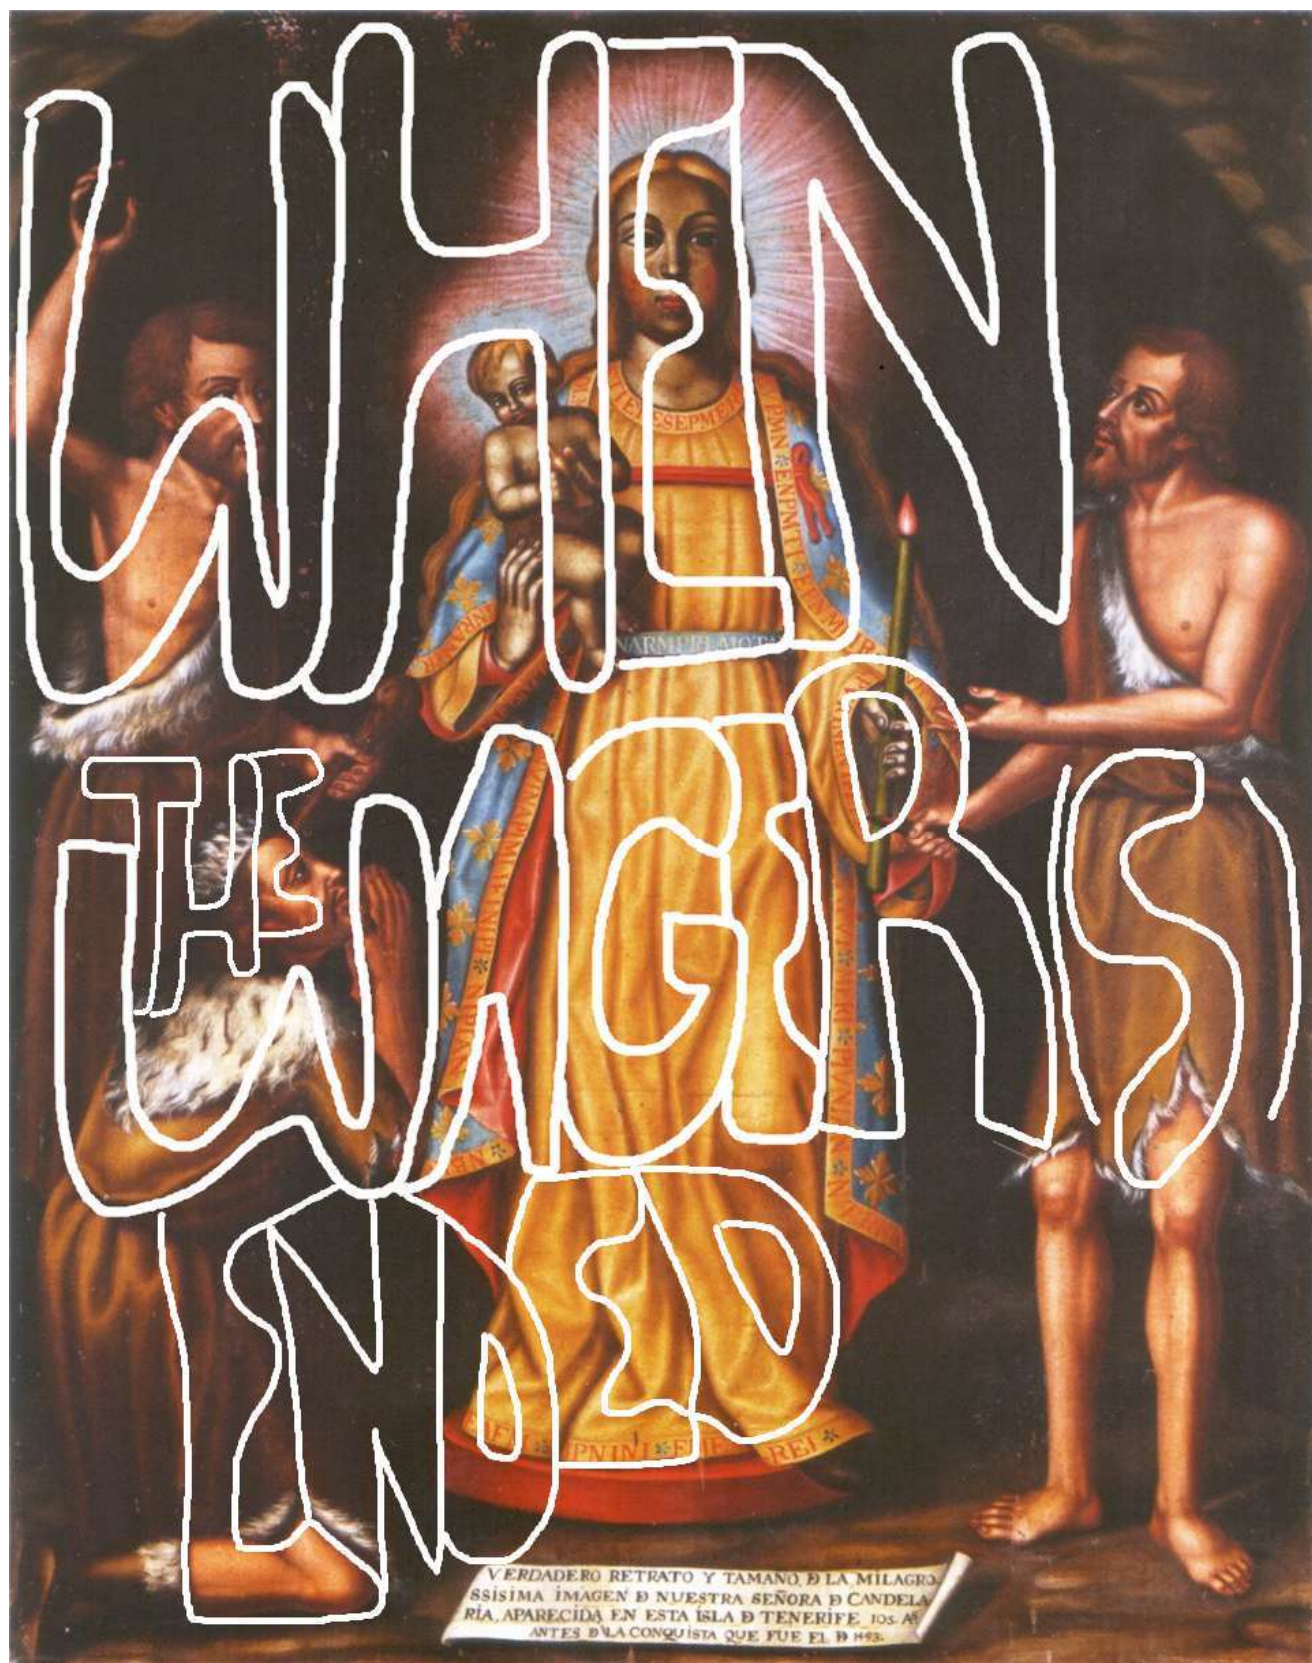

Then Satan made his most alarming wager demands...

³ In this exchange, to show some of the possibilities, I speculated that Satan might greatly alter who was born on Line 7. Although Satan may have had substantial influence on who was and was not born, it very unlikely that Satan would erase people before they were born. Satan would be much more inclined to use his vast mental reach to try to keep the people on both lines as consistent and homogeneous as possible. In this way, Line 5 could serve as a faithful consumer interest predictor, making his Western business pursuits unfailingly successful.

Satan wagered to keep his powers forever, after the Wagers ended...

...And Live Forever on Earth...

...Free to Rape and Kill.

God accepted Satan's Wager terms –a necessary risk, to spare more than 20,000,000,000 (20-billion) lives from substantial future suffering.

The image to the right is an enlargement of the white fur on the shoulder of the kneeling man, in the Candelaria Likeness. You may be able to make out the faces of 3 to 7 young women who all have peculiar eyes –and Satan lurking behind them, in the upper left. In the larger image below, I’ve outlined the faces. Zooming in, you see the girl’s eyes are shaped unnaturally (like ~, rather than straight lines or a slight bows). A couple faces look as if they are on drugs. I believe the white represents the pale skin of Westerners. The unnatural eyes represent going against nature. Thus, the faces probably represent non-White people of the world who go against nature and worship the beast (wish to be like Westerners –one of the Unforgivable Crimes of Revelation). With this, God gives us a glimpse of some of the social problems on Line 5, and informs us that although Satan failed to get Image Crimes started there, he did a great job causing other problems and getting the world to worship Westerners. God may also be saying people who are unhappy with themselves, and worship others, are more apt to do drugs.

War Crimes

When Satan learned that God misled him, he became a new demon, the Demon King. Satan's new War plan was to corrupt everything. No crime was off the table. Because Steve-A was Black, Satan would make life unbearable for Blacks. Black slavery began immediately after Line 7 began –although Satan falsely backdated the inception to a slightly earlier time. Once Satan was enraged at someone or something, he remained enraged, and mobilized his fury.

On Line 5, the United States had been the semi-ethical nation, balanced by its true Catholic Church, that Satan could not corrupt. So, on Line 7, Satan would corrupt every layer of American life, and corrupt every layer of the Catholic Church –in Europe, South America, Central America and the US.

On Line 4, in 1530, Satan had his Western courts delay action on Martin Luther's efforts to divide the Catholic Church. But once Satan arrived back in 1555, on Line 7, he directed his Western courts to act. And God's Catholic Church was quickly divided, in the Peace of Augsburg, September 25th, 1555, which allowed Martin Luther, John Calvin and others to create countless false Christian branches.

In 1582, Satan used the Catholic Church to initiate action to replace the Julian calendar (based on the birth of Jesus) with Satan's new Gregorian calendar.

In 1598, Satan opened his first Satanic temple –a Freemasonry lodge. Freemasonry disguised itself as an altruistic social club for the elite. In reality, the Masons were dedicated to bringing together elite businessmen, judges, politicians, publishers, etc, to undermine all institutions, through bribes and secret deals. Without a beast to speak through, Satan likely directed Freemasonry leaders through another demon, like Molech, whom God allowed to speak to certain humans.

In the 19th century, Satan created the YMCA (Young Men's Christian Association), for pedophiles to meet children, and homosexual men to meet and have butt-sex (unconventional sex that does not involve two different genders). In 1888, Satan opened the world's first gay bathhouse, in New York, where homosexuals were free to have butt-sex and orgies (rights heterosexuals did not have –and most did not want). ⁴

⁴ These promotions of public sex, pedophilia and homosexuality were the provocations that caused Jesus to impose four curses on the West, and caused God to impose a fifth, between 1555 and 1969, detailed in STSN, chapter 13.

Once reunited with his Beast, in the 20th century, Satan planned to attack God's Bible, in an elaborate Dead Sea Scrolls scheme, which greatly altered and desecrated most Books of the Old Testament. But Satan's plans were bigger.

Without telling Satan, God had used Satan to deliver new technologies and ideas to the world, to reduce human suffering and accelerate human social evolution. In revenge, Satan would use technological advances to spread disinformation, false knowledge, stolen knowledge, and facilitate domestic and international spying –to steal technology and information, and circumvent learning –and decrease intelligence.

In the mid 20th century, reunited with his Beast, Satan began to develop a preschool “learning system” to permanently impair and reduce children's intelligence: Head Start. Satan exported his brain-impairing system to many non-White nations.

China and Russia had been too moral to follow Satan, and too strong to defeat. So on Line 7 he would subjugate one for decades, and sabotage and dismantle the other.

In Western nations, Satan used universities to teach and disseminate gibberish and nonsense (e.g., $E=MC^2$, the big bang, carbon dating...)

Greater still, to retaliate against God, Satan built a US criminal empire, where everyone with power was approved by Satan, by virtue of their corruptibility. No one would hold a prominent position in the entertainment industry, until Satan peered into their soul and saw withering roots, willing to do anything for money. Never again would someone with a moral compass, like Steve-A, use a media platform to undermine Satan. His careful delegation of desirable jobs was expanded and micromanaged throughout America. You didn't have to be a Mason to get a good job; but if you were not inclined to conform, by social pressure or bribery, your career prospects were drastically reduced.

God's decision not to divulge the reason He exiled Satan to Earth drove Satan to become a human psychology expert. Satan scoured the millions of human minds he had access to at every moment, to learn the most effective ways to manipulate them to do evil, to admire evil and stupid people, to think poorly, to hate –all so he might damn them by the million. In this massive psychological research project, Satan became the secret father of Western psychology, although he was only interested in destructive applications of the science. Through this study, Satan learned humans are most influenced by what they see, or think they see, and public opinion. Inevitably, Satan would use his knowledge and the West's new visual technologies –TV, movies, cable, internet– to dictate public opinion and commerce, and alter human sexuality.

On Line 7, once reunited with his beast, Satan literally ruled the US/West; from Satan's mind, to Gardner's mind, into the ears of presidents and kings. Satan selected closet Masons and Satanists to positions of power, as these people had vowed loyalty to Satan; thus, he was forever free to possess and kill them, if they disobeyed, even if they held the Presidency. Understanding this, all Western presidents and kings complied.

Satan's Line 7 U.S. Social & Financial Ranking System

Color Legend

RED: Evil and Deceitful

BLUE: Good

BLACK: Average = not reliably good, evil or bribable.

Straight

Homosexual

WHITES		NON-WHITES & BLACKS
Evil and deceitful homosexual Whites	1	↓ ↓ ↓
Evil and deceitful straight Whites	2
Average homosexual Whites	3
Average straight Whites	4	Evil and deceitful homosexual Blacks and non-Whites
Good homosexual Whites	5	Evil and deceitful straight Blacks and non-Whites
Good straight Whites	6	Average homosexual Blacks and non-Whites
	7	Average straight Blacks and non-Whites
1 = Highest	8	Good homosexual Blacks and non-Whites
9 = Lowest	9	Good straight Blacks and non-Whites

In Satan's Line 7 America, people received social and financial opportunity according to their (1) race, (2) degree of moral corruption, and (3) sexuality.

On the racial scale, Whites were highest, various non-white in the middle, Blacks on the bottom.

On the moral scale, Evil, deceitful people, given to accept bribes and keep secrets, were ranked highest. An essential part of being an excellent deceiver was/is being able to present oneself, outwardly, as very honorable and upstanding. It wasn't enough just to be willing to deceive, elites should deceive extremely well.

On the sexuality scale, homosexuals and LGBTQ members ranked highest. Straights (heterosexual) ranked lowest. LGBTQ members who deceived and hid their sexuality were/are ranked higher than openly LGBTQ members. Satan likely made this choice to push gays into fake (deceptive) marriages, to offend God –and delight Satan.

- Blacks could only gain social rank by betraying their race or subordinating the best-interest of their race to Whites and/or LGBTQ members. Thus, stupid Black rappers who denigrated their race and women, and offended God, were occasionally allowed to climb the social ladder. Satan was also eager to make celebrities of poorly educated Black athletes (Satan saw to it that Black in the US received poor educations).

Overall. Due to Satan's policies, toward the end of Line 7 (circa 2000 to 2026), evil and deceitful (closeted) LGBTQ Whites tended to hold the most power and money, good people were toward the bottom; good Blacks and non-Whites at the very bottom.

CHAPTER 7

The Hands That Rocked Time

Because Steve-A was the wealthiest man in the US and owned his own television station, Satan could not erase him, as he erased Elijah on Line 4.

When Steve-A was a young man, playing music with his band, Satan watched, spellbound by a music style he had never heard or dreamed possible. As Steve-A matured, and became interested in fusing his music with his movies and comics, Satan looked on through the eyes of the world, listening to their thoughts of wonder and interest in a man who seemed to have no creative limits. Satan wanted that admiration for himself. But, alternately, since God would not allow Satan to physically reveal himself, Satan wanted that admiration for the people most loyal to him: Western Whites. Toward this, one of the reasons Satan demanded access to Line 5 was to steal Steve-A's complete works: music, books, movies, comics, inventions –then, on Line 7, falsely attribute those works to Western Whites; advancing his goal of making disinformation accepted as trusted information.

In this chapter we'll look at Steve-A's written works, his impossible lists of musical works –and his single greatest invention.

Books / Written Works

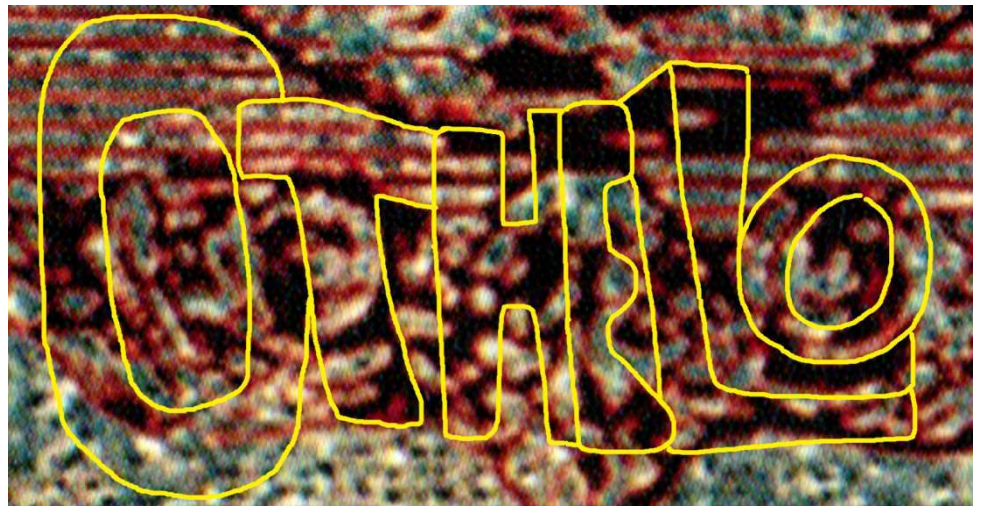

Some share of the works of William Shakespeare were stolen from Steve-A

Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, stolen from Steve-A.

Shakespeare's Othello.

Shakespeare's Hamlet.

A Christmas Carol, and a share of the works of Charles Dickens, stolen from Steve-A.

H.G. Wells, The Time Machine.

Songs / Musical Works

In Chapter 2, you saw the image to the left, identifying Steve-A on Line-5. God made the right foot of that “A” extra large (enlarged in the image to the right) to identify the area of the Elder Badge where the first letter of the titles of songs, movie and books by Steve-A should fall. The Man’s face (upper and lower right) is central in this area, because human faces are easy for humans to identify. The list of songs and musical works begins below.

Don’t Let Me Down (The Beatles)

Dancing Queen (ABBA)

Dance the Night Away (Van Halen)

Dizzy Miss Lizzy (The Beatles / Larry Williams)

Ain't Talkin' 'Bout Love (Van Halen)

Golden Slumbers (The Beatles)

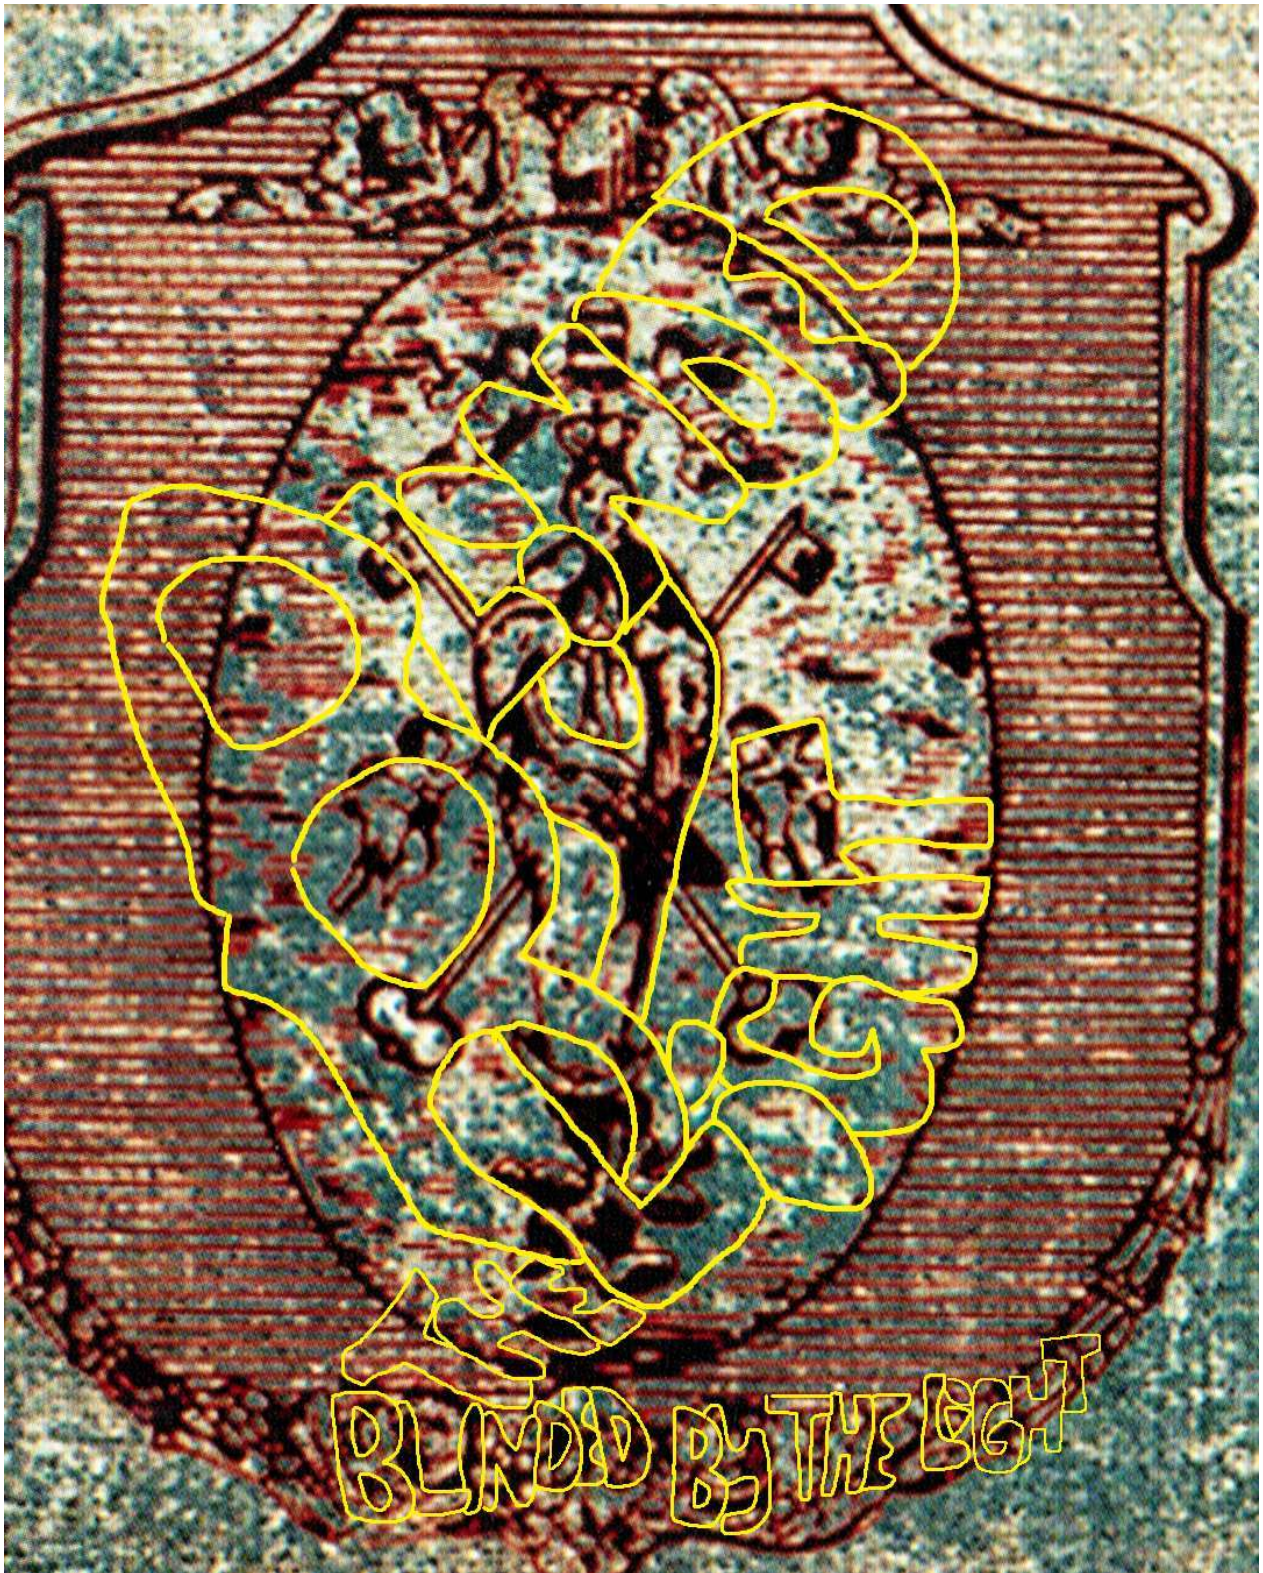

Bright Eyes (Art Garfunkel)

Blinded by the Light (Bruce Springsteen / Manfred Mann)

Blinded By The Light

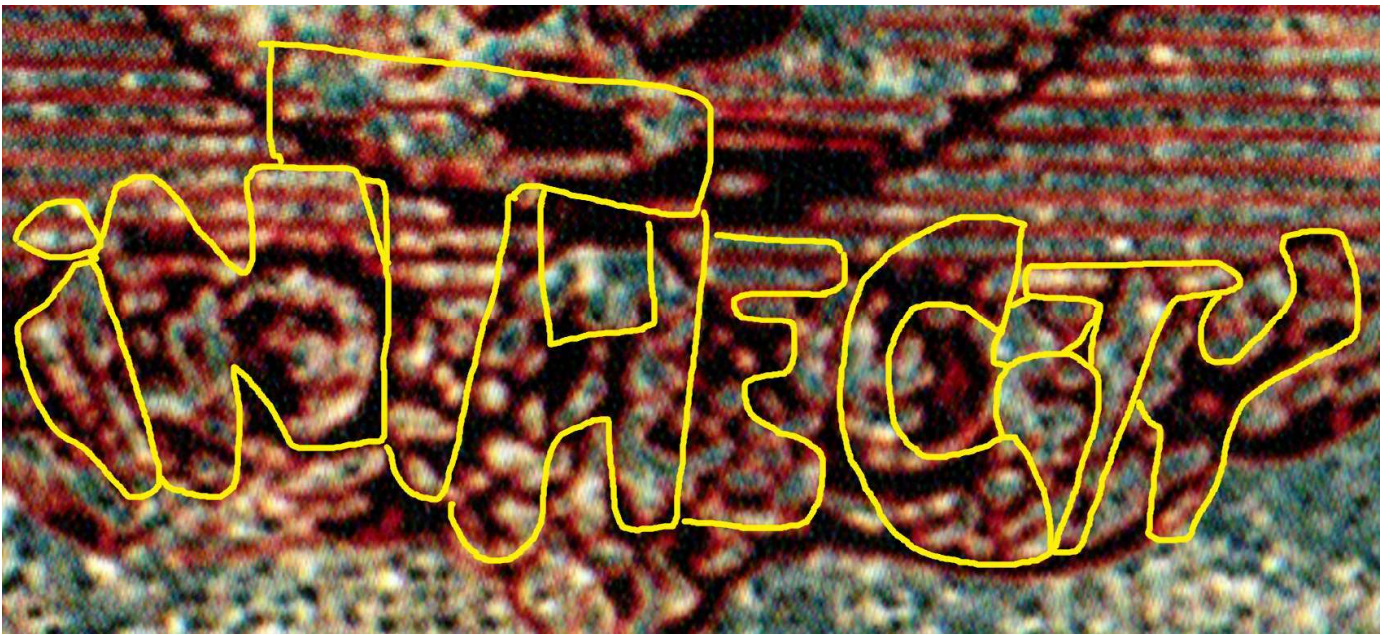

I included this second and larger central field version of Blinded By The Light, for readers to see that God included confirmation keys (alternate images) of the songs.

Beat it (Michael Jackson)

In The City (Joe Walsh)

Highway to Hell (AC/DC)

Have You Ever Seen The Rain (Credence Clearwater Revival)

Like A Rolling Stone (Bob Dylan)

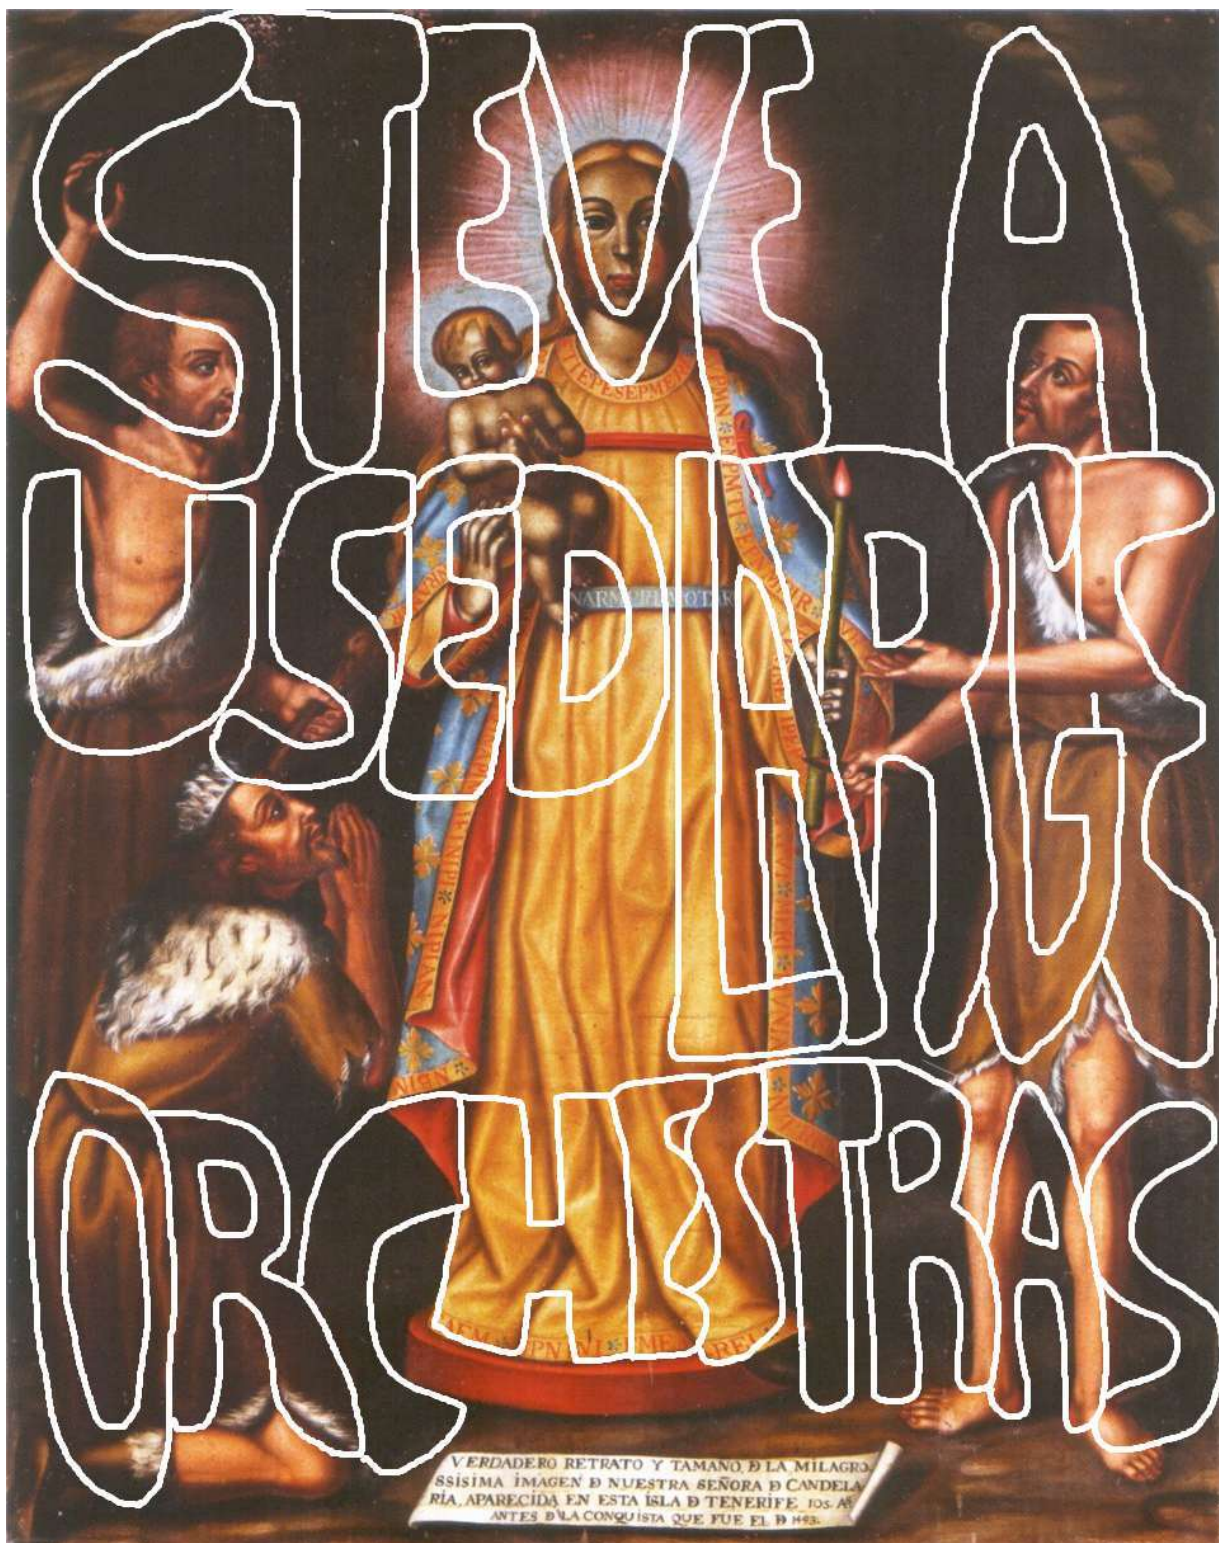

Moonlight Sonata (Beethoven)

This piece of music is so monumental that God rendered the title at least two distinct ways, as you see below, top and middle images. To further confirm this, God put two different faces in the center crook of the M (these M-faces are enlarged on the bottom row).

Steve-A was the first person on Line 5 to use large orchestras.

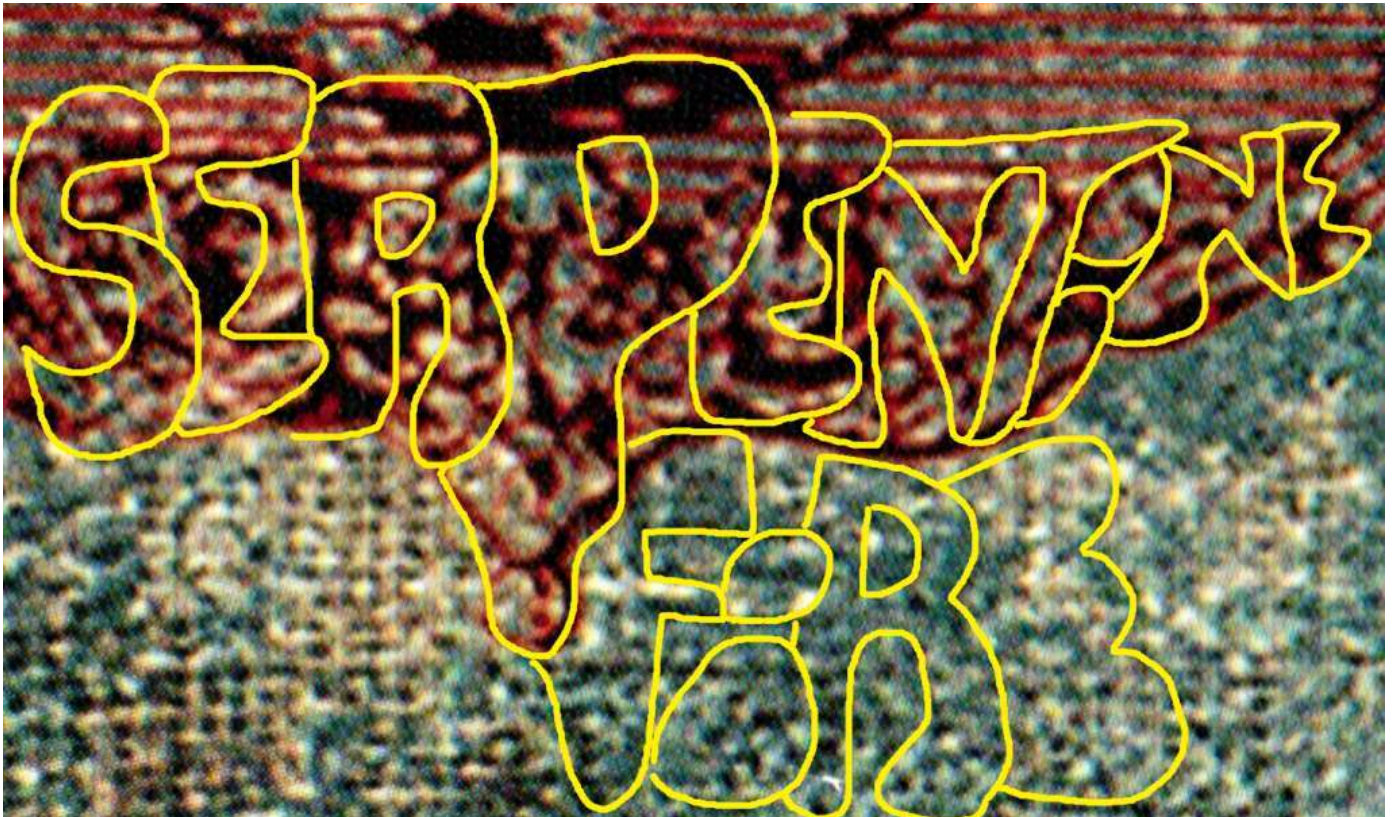

Steve-A's songs continue on the following page.

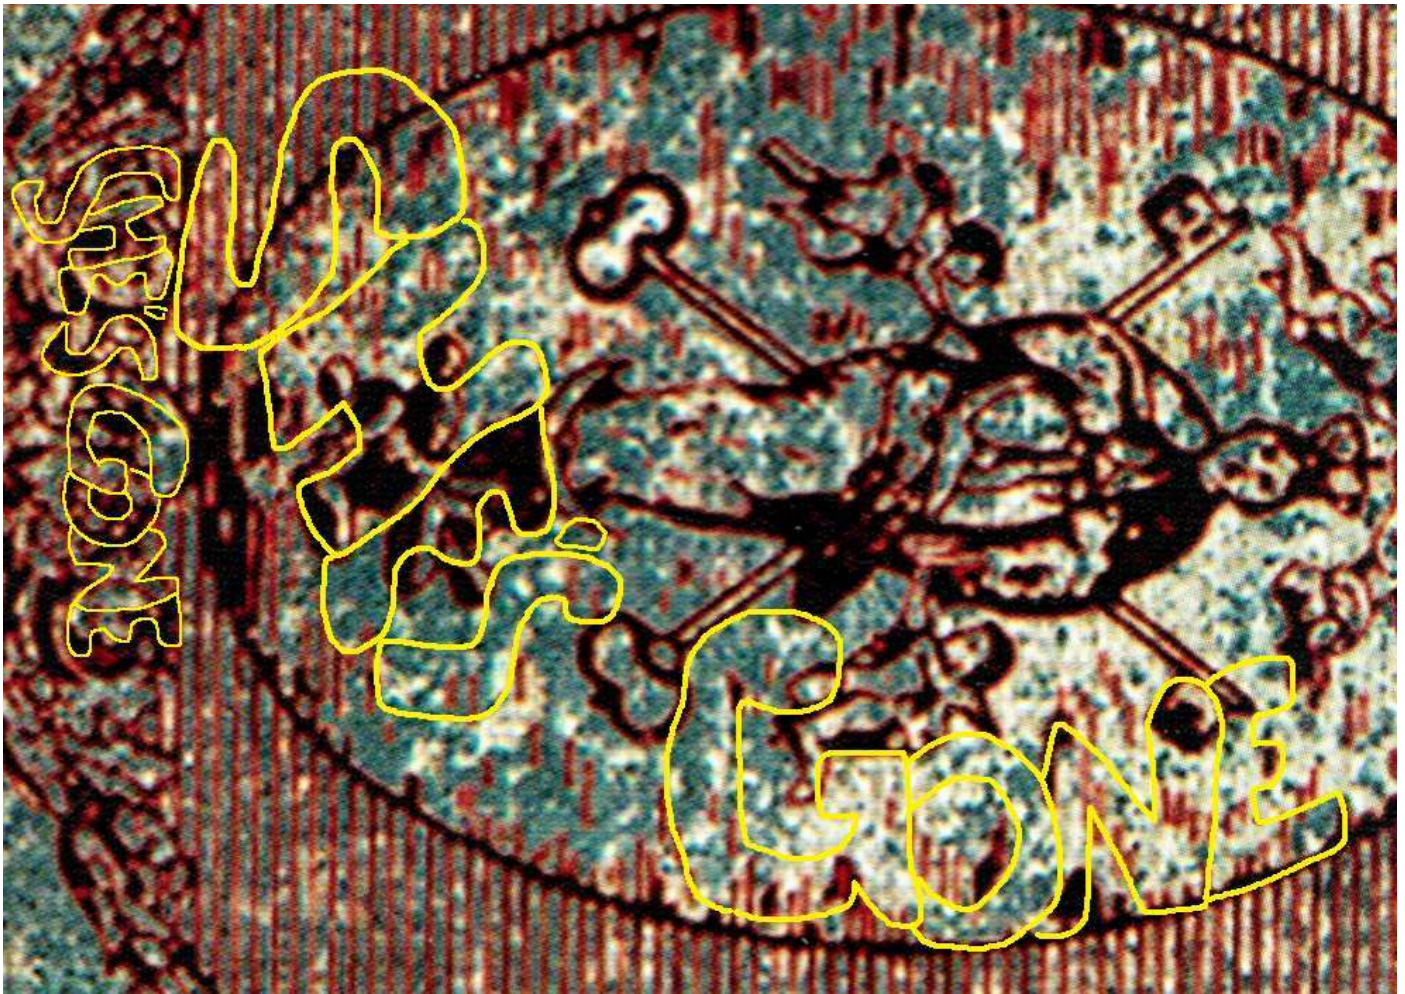

The Sound of Silence (Simon and Garfunkel)

Serpentine Fire (Earth Wind and Fire)

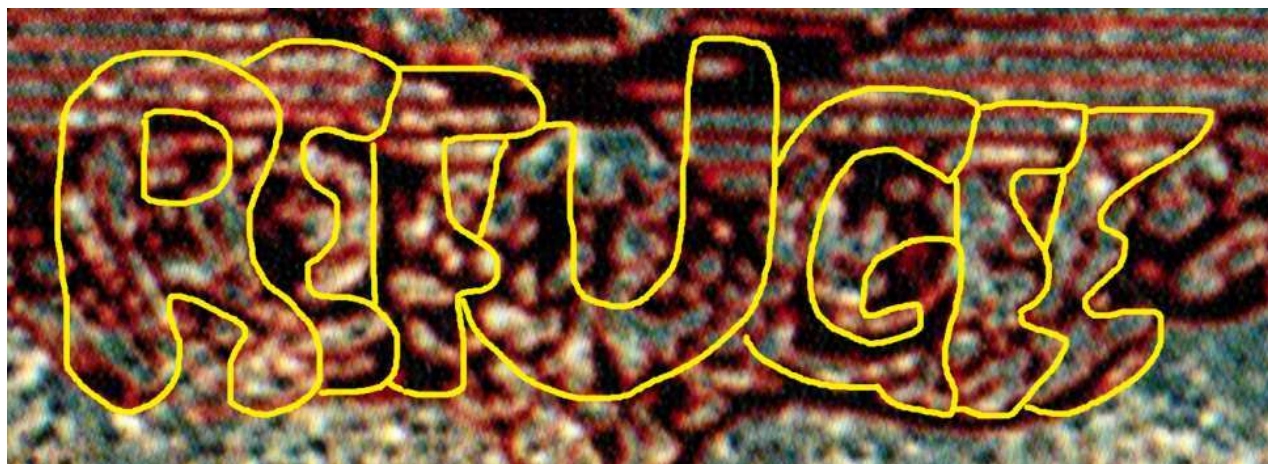

She's Gone (Hall and Oats)

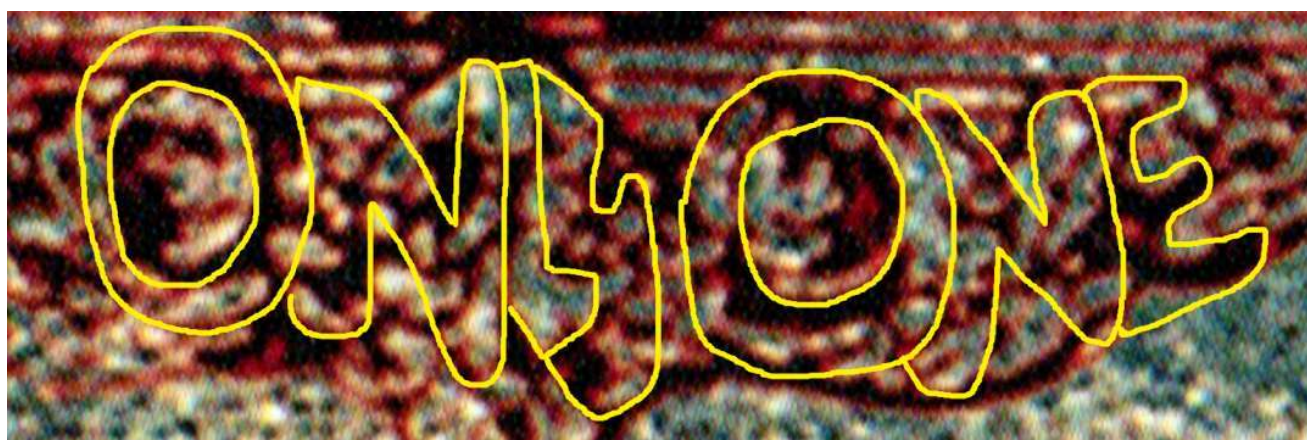

She's Gone (Hall and Oats)

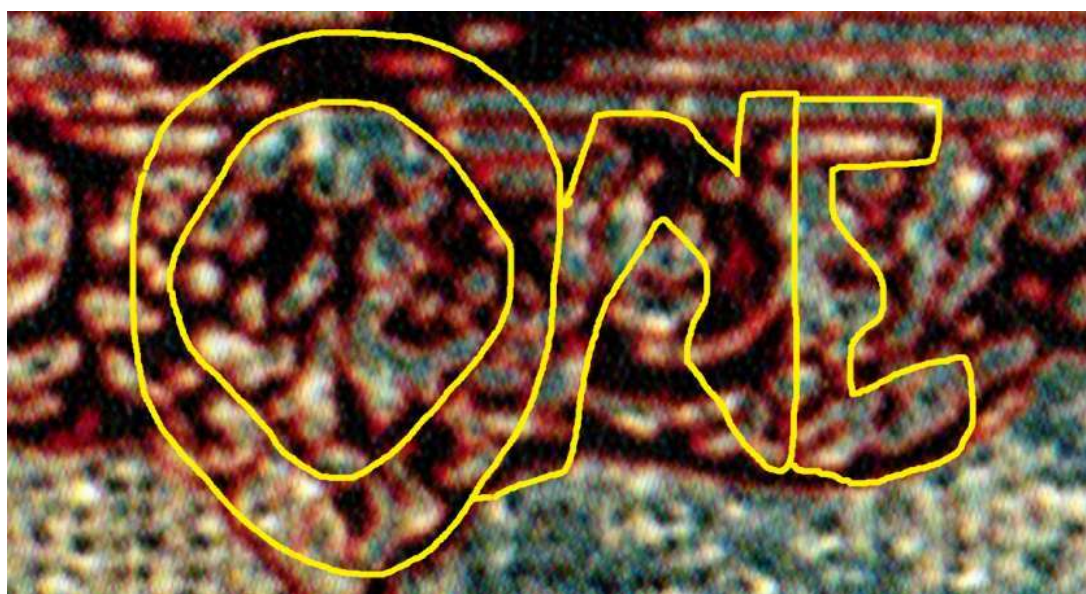

Refugee (Tom Petty)

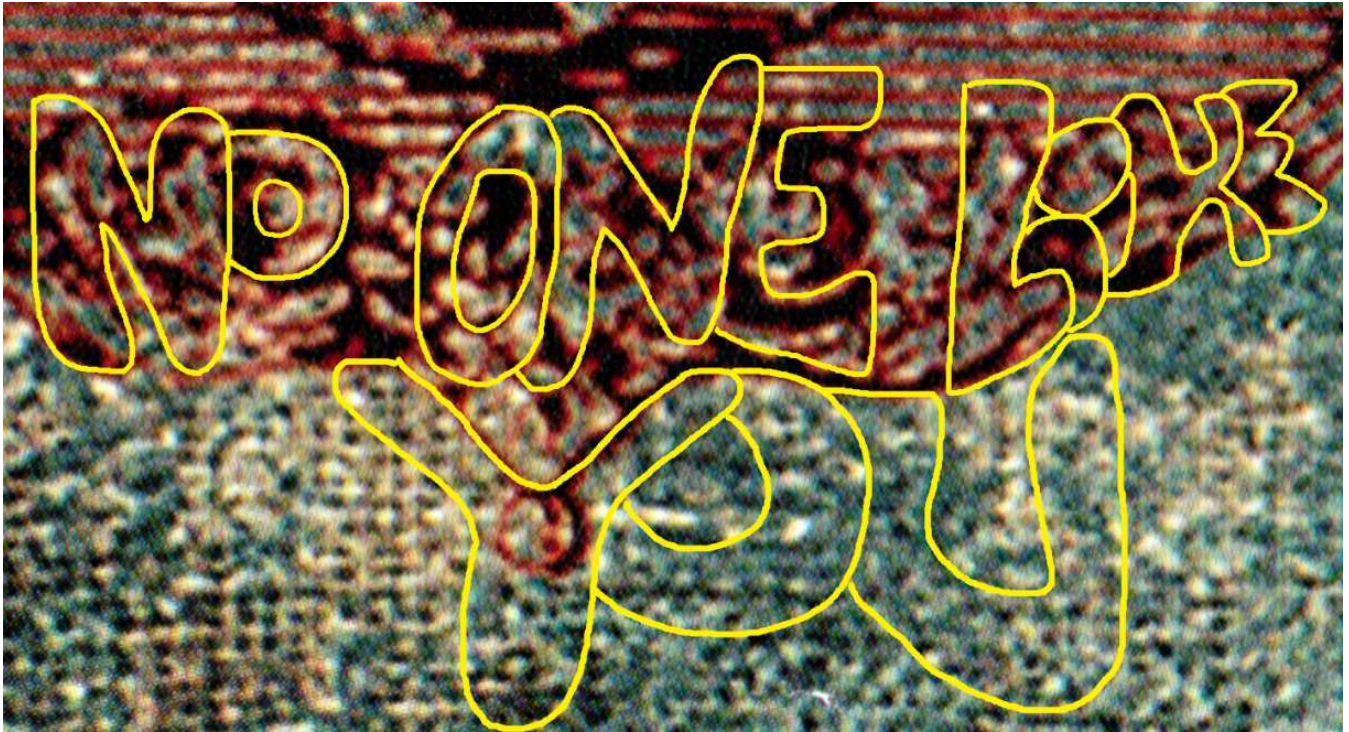

Only One (Kanye West)

One (U2)

No One Like You ((Scorpions))

YMCA (The Village People)

Steve-A would never write a song about the YMCA's role in sex lives of promiscuous Western homosexuals. Satan changed the lyrics to suit his interests, but the music and melodies were Steve-A's.
