Introduction

In late November 2024, I first became aware that God and Satan were involved in some sort of high stakes wagers, which also happened to involve me, to some extent. I first reported on the Wager(s), and published the few details I could surmise, on December 2nd, 2024, in the first publication of the second edition of My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers (MSWOotZSRHM).<sup>1</sup>

Seventeen days later, December 19th, 2024, I updated MSWOotZSRHM, to include the first publication of my theory explaining why God allowed Satan and Western elites to conceal the true One Hour War date. That theory is important now, because the explanation I gave back then as to why God allowed His Prophesied One Hour War date to be erased or altered now appears to be the actual reason He allowed Satan and Western elites to alter or erase His Prophecy.

In December 2024, I was still dumbstruck that God seemed to allow His One Hour War (OHW) to be erased or altered. At the time, I believed and reported, circa early July 2024, that God's OHW would occur September 23rd, 2024, in the West, but September 24th, 2024, in the East. This was the Event date provided in Revelation, Chapter 18, and other chapters and verses of Revelation. However, this Event date was a Tactical Deception –which I would not learn for another six months, or so. Thus, when the Tactical Deception date passed, and, in Mexico, I saw no evidence that the colossal Event I expected actually happened, eventually, upon the persistent gestures of a certain Curtain (see footnote #1), I began to advocate, online, the possibility the OHW did occur –but Satan and his US/Western elites were using artificial intelligence (AI) to air largely pre-produced broadcasts and streams of news, entertainment, sports, etc –to create the appearance the US was fine, long enough to move America's wealth into foreign lands, before the dollar collapsed to zero. Satan would have done this just for the joy of making God's prophecy wrong. The theory was comprehensive, and explained how and why Satan and his elites cut the US power and communication grid, and used AI to operate US citizens' social media, email, text and phone accounts, to create the global impression of well-being.

<sup>1</sup> How I came to understand God and Satan were engaged in one or more Wager is explained in MSWOotZSRHM. Some clues were: God (who, at the time was communicating to me through my curtain, with a few very simple curtain gestures) suddenly displayed several unusual curtain behaviors, including responding to one or two of my fairly simple questions with an "I don't know gesture."

At the time (December 19th, 2024), in MSWOotZSRHM, I gave my theory on why God allowed Satan and the West to conceal and change His OHW date. I wrote:

MY THEORY ON THE WAGER

I hate the wager.

More than I hate the wager, I hate that in September 2024, there were a fair number of people (especially outside of the US/West) who learned of my Revelation solutions (Revelation 2: The Solutions), and they studied those solutions, and upon great scrutiny they knew that on September 24th, 2024 (in the East), God would finally take the action that He had promised for 2600 years.

But, the next day, on September 25th, 2024, nothing appeared to have happened. Great disappointment. And all devout believers, who rejoiced at the prophesied coming of God, were further let down to learn, almost 3 months later, that God's prophesied destruction of the US was covered-up, because He entered into questionable wager with Satan. Disappointing beyond measure. His true believers deserved much better.

I have a theory on the real reason God entered the wager...

Yes, it could just be that God wanted to have everyone tested. But that explanation does not address why God waited until the 19th century to initiate the wager –that's roughly 6000 years after He appeared to the Hebrews –and roughly 4000 years after Satan first appeared in the Old Testament. This would indicate that for 4000 years God was happy with Satan's work, but unexpectedly, around 200 years ago, God suddenly wanted Satan to vigorously test everyone. Although I don't have all of the facts, with the facts at hand, this does not add up. Here's what I think may have happened...

God knew He was going to take unprecedented wrathful action against the US (and the West, and Israel and Japan). But, because God knows all future and past events (at least when He's not letting Satan off his leash), God may have seen that something very bad happened after He destroyed the US. What I think God may have seen is that most of the world began to believe very strongly in God –and, very sadly, fake believers (evil people who attain religious power by attacking the faith of others) seized on this to seize power, and non-believers were persecuted. Of course, this should never happen. God wants people to believe only if they freely choose to believe.

So... I believe God may have seen non-believers would be severely punished, and perhaps He saw fake believers corrupting all of His Churches. So God made a wager with Satan. God likely knew Satan would try to cover-up God's Destruction of the US. But, in so doing, Satan actions allowed non-believers to have a credible basis to doubt that the One Hour War transpired on September 23rd and 24th, 2024. Simultaneously, God's actions and His many Prophecies Against would give believers ample knowledge that God did, in fact, destroy the US at the very hour He promised.

Thus, believers and non-believers will be able to move forward with a lower likelihood that some evil theocrat will rise and kill all non-believers.

That's my best theory.

Thus, to save non-believers, God allowed His prophecy to be undone.

In 2022, I began reporting on all of the evil crimes John W Gardner -the Beast-was engaged in. His crimes included trying (with a high level of success) to eradicate the genes of progressive, open-minded or independent-minded young women from the White Western gene pool. But these independent-minded women are vital to the intellectual advancement of a people. Gardner's plan would soon make US Whites significantly less intelligent.

Similarly, the world's brave independent thinkers, some of whom courageously believe in God, and some whom courageously believe there is no God, and some of who courageously admit their ignorance, substantially contribute to human evolution.

Thus, God allowed His true One Hour War date, January 7th, 2026 (Gregorian), and/or December 25th, 2025 (Julian), the true date of the downfall of the US, to be replaced by Satan's deception date: February 14th, 2026 (Gregorian), and/or February 1st, 2026 (Julian), in the interest of human safety and advancement.

This mini-book is intended to be sort of a collection of bullet-point facts and ideas related to the Wagers.

The Bullet Points

God seems to love symbols and symbolism. I believe God emphasizes symbols for us –humans, because symbolic expression and interpretation are forms of higher thinking. Thus, through symbols, God is encouraging us to be better thinkers –better people. Accordingly, everything related to the Wagers is symbolic.

Satan represents recycling; a good entity (a high ranking angel) that goes bad; thus, God repurposes Satan, and, against Satan's knowledge, uses Satan to accelerate human evolution and reduce human suffering. This arrangement stresses the importance of recycling, and creating efficient waste disposal systems, and protecting the planet.

God serves as a symbol of good leadership, and the extremely difficult decisions many leaders must face (thus, unqualified, corrupt and immoral people should not seek to become leaders).

In the Introduction I shared a passage from My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers, where I expressed my differences with God. I've done this often in the past two years. I express those differences much more often privately. Thus, in relation to me, God, again, serves as a model of a good leader, who stands strong in the face of necessary public criticism.

Just about everything thing I have written over the past 4 or 5 years has been related to the Wagers. Revelation 2: The Solutions sufficiently solved Revelation, and the Bible's Book of Revelation, itself, was created in relation to the Wagers –ostensibly a challenge, from Satan to God, to write a book of Prophecy that no one could solve for 1900 years –except and until God's predicted solver.

In STSN we learn that, for the final Wager period (the Beast Wager), God gave Satan the ability to see various future possibilities. Thus, Satan was able to tell Gardner and Malone if their various crimes and schemes would work. This was particularly useful to Gardner, who used Satan's gift to make sure all of Gardner's paid killers got away with their murders.

The Wagers represent corrupt contracts that local and national leaders enter, with various bribers, impacting the lives of many other people. God and Satan entered into a series of Wagers that impacted billions of lives. For entering those dirty deals, God could be viewed as a villain or bad actor. But, as we learn in chapter 14 of Steve's Top-Secret Notebook (STSN), God entered those questionable deals to hasten human evolution and to greatly reduce the duration of a very lengthy period of human suffering.

In The Wagers, God demonstrated His ability to see all the future outcomes, maybe most memorably, by reversing time and showing Satan Gardner as a young boy, thereby changing the Beast –and imposing a heavy future punishment on Western Whites. But God showed us an equally amazing flip-side of this ability in Killing Guadalupe, where God placed two conspicuous badges on Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, which should have caused a stir across generations. But corrupt Catholic Church insiders were so worried about the badges being seen that they waxed the glass, covering the lower left corner of the Image, and labored to keep the public a distance from the Image, and refused to allow the lower left corner to be photographed for over 150 years. Thus, the Church inadvertently carried out God's will, and kept the badges concealed, until not too long before His predicted solver revealed them (in Killing Guadalupe, STSN, The Elder's Badge, Juan Diego's Badge, etc.).

The reason God's ability to see all future outcomes is so daunting is it makes God, effectively, an unending poly-verse/multi-verse.

In Steve's Top-Secret Notebook, God reveals He gave Satan access to (the ability to read the minds of) 8.8% of humans, at any given time. Currently, 8.8% of human minds is, approximately, 700-million minds. God revealed this, almost certainly, for many reasons. And almost certainly one of the reasons is: God wanted us to know that Satan was able to read -see and hear- the thoughts of all he chose, so we would understand how Satan came to focus on Western Whites. With the number 8.8, God gives us a hint as to why Satan was so interested in Western Whites. The alphanumeric conversion is pretty easy to understand: 88 = HH = heil Hitler = hatred. Satan likely recognized a somewhat elevated capacity for hatred in White Westerners, and likely an elevated capacity for war. For Satan's goals, these characteristics were extremely advantageous. Of course, Western Whites also had plenty of virtues, such as they cooperated very well.

terrible, Satan unwittingly cut the duration of great human suffering from 700 years to 350 years. If we assume half of the world, during this time, lived in bad conditions, that would mean for 350 years about 3,200,000,000 (3.2 billion) people lived in bad conditions. But, by accelerating this period, reducing it from 700 years to 350 years, God spared about 20,000,000,000 (20 billion) people from living in terrible conditions. 20,000,000,000 is about 15 times more people than were alive in 1869.

Through all of this, God made human life much healthier and safer, TRIPLING population growth from 1.3 billion in 1870, to 4-billion in 1970 (a 100 year period), and doubling it again, from 1970 (4-billion) to 2020 (8-billion), a 50 year period.

The previous section revealed Satan and his beasts, together, accelerated evolution 7 times faster. Satan had his beasts for 88 years, 1937 to 2025. Seven times 88 is 616 years. This means Satan and his beast inflicted terrible suffering on humanity for 88 years; but they reduced the length of suffering by 528 years. Thus, over the

An excerpt from chapter 14 of STSN.

I don't share these things to unnecessarily deride Western Whites. Rather, I share these things so we understand that Satan focused on the precise group that would have imposed 1300 years of terrible suffering on humanity –if God had not used Satan to accelerate that suffering down to about 500 years.<sup>2</sup>

In several sections of The Wagers, we see God teach Satan how to walk backward through time –while looking into the minds of millions of people. This emphasis on reversal is symbolic for role reversal: where Satan is unwittingly used for mankind's advancement. Meanwhile, to teach Satan and mankind lessons against corruption, we learn God has entered into a Wager with Satan that impacts the lives of billions of people –who were not knowing parties to those agreements. Further, in the course of the Wager, God omits facts and allows Satan to make false inferences. Laterally, and maybe most startling, we learn God has used His ominous Prophecy, Revelation, Chapter 18, as a tactical deception –to instruct good Eastern nations to combat deceit with deceit. In these actions, God can be seen as reversing course, to play a villainous leader, who does terrible things for good reasons. All of this was part of a message to world leaders that sometimes there are extraordinary circumstances, where extraordinary action is required –including world war.

Term Warfare

One of the things God tries to instill in people is the need to defend themselves when attacked. Failure to act against attackers and invaders is against nature, as failure to defend oneself against an aggressing predator is a form of suicide. Although Satan thrived on going against nature, he complied with nature, when it came to people who attacked him or his preferred Western nations.

I also have a healthy dose of the gene that counterattacks.

God used the fact that Satan and I counterattack to maintain justice in God's universe. Here's how:

In The Wagers we saw God escort Satan back through time, several times. This was interesting, but didn't completely make sense.

Around September 2025, close to six months after writing The Wagers, I learned that I would be allowed to submit my Terms (my contractual conditions) for God entering me, without my consent, into a Wager, where I, and my family, would be harmed by Satan. In the months between writing The Wagers and writing my Terms, I learned that Satan took very harmful actions against my family –including killing at least two of my distant family members –and burying parts of one of the murder victims on my family's property. In my Terms, I punished Satan very firmly, but in compliance with law and reason.

It's easy to make an argument that Satan should be punished forever. But God revealed in STSN that Satan has serious psychological problems. More importantly, God deliberately used Satan as an agent to accelerate human evolution and reduce human suffering. This creates a powerful case that Satan deserves some forgiveness.

This is complicated by the fact that Satan spent around 350 years trying to damn people who didn't necessarily deserve to be damned.

Thus, I believe, in at least one of God and Satan's backwards-walks-through-time, depicted in The Wagers, God started the backwards walk around November 2nd, 2025, when I first published my Terms, in chapter 17 of the second edition of Steve's Top-Secret Notebook –AND God allowed Satan to see my Terms. (But I don't think God allowed Satan to read the entire Notebook.)

Upon seeing the Terms, Satan learned he would never get my soul in Hell (Gehenna). More importantly, Satan saw that sometime between 2026 and 2030, he would begin 1000 years of performing psychological services in Gehenna, as he simultaneously experienced punishment, and pain, required under my Terms.

THIS is the reason we see Satan, in Steve's Top-Secret Notebook, spend so many hours outside of my window, even when I was only a 4-year-old child. Satan was consumed with either trying to kill me, or trying to substantially damage my mind –hoping to stop me from one day conceiving the various well-reasoned punishments described in my Terms.

Just as God expected, in response to my firm future punishment, which Satan viewed as an attack, Satan took that information far back into the past, and attacked my family and race. Satan left the names and remains of a few distant relatives buried in places I would eventually find them (well, with God's help, via the Elder Badge). Thus, I would use Satan's attacks on my family and race as a basis to use my Terms to modify Heaven's entry requirements for people who fit the profile of people Satan targeted in retaliation against me. In this, and other actions described in my Terms, God used Satan (and me) to undo spiritual injustice.

Although most of the terms connected to God and Satan's Wagers are not known to me, I've pieced together a fair amount.<sup>3</sup> December 2024 to January 2025, in MSWOotZSRHM, using the Headline Letter Code, I speculated that Satan seemed to require that I guess the terms of his final (or near final) Wager with God. And in The Wagers, in 9th preliminary Wager challenge, using a collection of 10 or 11 dates, I theorized that around early 2025, God reversed time to 1751, to signal some sort of arbitration.

I believe all of these circumstances were related to God showing Satan my Terms, which eventually caused Satan to request to modify his Wager terms. In his new terms, Satan asked to be able to send me a representational message or petition, requesting that I reconsider the severity of my Terms' punishments against him.

This unusual petition request led to the image messages presented in the articles/reports titled In Response to a Question from Satan, and the more important article, In Response to a Petition from the Demon King, both written in January 2026. Both articles are posted on my website, currently on the Special / Unusual page.

In "In Response to a Petition from the Demon King," I make a strong case for forgiving many of Satan's crimes –possibly all of them. But, because Satan's attacks against me and my family (particularly against my son) were so malicious, I'm entitled to take reasonable counter action.

In "In Response to a Petition from the Demon King," I agreed to "greatly reduce (possibly eliminate)" the punishment described in the Terms "-IF Satan publishes an admission/confession, of some reasonable form, of all of the various movie, TV shows, songs, books, science projects -even pop cultural figures, that he and the beasts and their associates created which were/are derived from my works, ideas, or me, personally." But this request may not be possible, due to Divine communication restrictions.

The reason I believe Satan petitioned for a term modification that allowed him to make unusual representational contact with me is because God, Jesus and Natas have strict rules, which forbid contact between supernatural beings, like Satan, and humans (similar rules likely also restrict God, Jesus and Natas' communication with human). Evidence that any sort of contact between humans and supernatural beings is extremely restricted and rare is the fact that Satan Wagered with God for thousands of years, before he was finally given a human beast to confer with -in the final Major Wager.

Currently, the A.I. image below, from The United States is Dead, where Satan writes "Steve Briggs (Yayayar) is right," is the nearest thing to a confession Satan has provided.

For the record, privately, I have informed God that I am willing to suspend my Terms against Satan, if they are unjust or excessive.

Satan's first known representational messages to me were sent between January 8th and 12th, 2026 (Gregorian), and seen in The United States is Dead, where Satan used many A.I. images, including the images above (with a giant rejoicing T, for Terms) to tell me he modified his terms with God, and won some sort of Wager that split his soul in half, into two parts; one part of his soul will provide psychological services in Gehenna, and the other part was sent to the internet –to produce A.I. fake images.

Quickly, from the substance of his A.I. messages, I surmised that Satan was planning to conceal the true One Hour War date, and replace it with his deception date. But unlike Satan's previous crimes against God, in most of Satan's images he included God's true OHW date, with Satan's deception date. This indicated Satan was either working for God, or working in compliance with Him, which indicated the original Wager series had ended, and so too Satan's War Against God.

But don't get the idea that Satan has had a change of heart and resolved his differences with God, Jesus and Natas. Satan lost the final Major Wager, and is now doing what is in his survival interests.

One Last Wager

To me, God seems EXTREMELY masculine; seemingly entirely masculine.

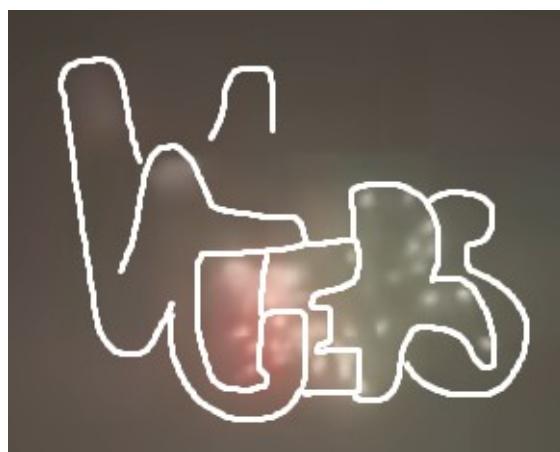

But his daughter, Natas, comes from God.

The only thing about God that seems remotely feminine is His boundless love for living creatures –especially high functioning creatures, and especially those intelligent enough to contemplate the existence of a God, or Gods, or even gods.

Satan was once one of God's highest ranking angels. If you've read STSN, you know Satan is extremely intelligent.

In Spring 2025, in an early version of the Wagers, I theorized that God so loved living creatures that, although Satan waged his War Against God for thousands of years, God still sees Satan as he once was: a beautiful child of God –who couldn't control his obsessive tendencies, which caused him to turn against God. In later versions of the Wagers I removed this section, because I had some doubts about it. But now I am back to believing that God still sees Satan as he was, and still has love for Satan –although Satan can never return to Heaven.

Because Satan helped God accelerate human evolution, and probably partly because God will always remember when Satan was among His greatest angels, and probably partly because God worried my Terms might be too punitive, I suspect God made a final short-term Wager with Satan, initiated around December 24th, 2025 (Gregorian), or December 11th, 2025 (Julian), just after I published the correct One Hour War date, revealed in the Shroud of Turin, published in The Shroud of God, including the correct Event time –revealed in Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.

A word image from The United States is Dead.

I don't know the specifics of this Wager, but I think God expected Satan to read the new OHW date information, and other new details contained in STSN, and realize that Satan's previous efforts to prevent the One Hour War had failed. Thus, God gave Satan a chance to make one final Wager that would protect his soul. This way, if Satan's petition to my sense of fairness failed, half of his soul would be allowed to exist on the Western internet, where he would safely provide occasional services to God; while the other half of Satan's soul simultaneously existed in Gehenna and the Bottom Pit, where Satan's soul fulfilled God's Will by tormenting souls according to their crimes –a service made difficult by the fact that, under my Terms, much of the time that Satan worked, he would simultaneously be punished –often painfully so.

Against this backdrop, God may have approached Satan...

“You know what I’d like to wager you?” God asked, optimistically.

“What?” Satan answered in his ever-bellicose tone.

“I’d like to wager that if I gave you second soul, or split your soul in two, however you want to view it, and put that second soul into that dreadful US/Western internet you and your beasts created, and if I gave you the ability to perform hundreds of millions of functions at once, I wager that you CANNOT create thousands and thousands of A.I. produced videos and images, that make it appear as if the US was NOT defeated and destroyed in the One Hour War.”

“What?...”

“You know, like that wacky idea Steve had last year; remember, about how you and Western elites could have used AI produced videos to create the appearance that the US was still healthy and strong, weeks even months after it had been destroyed. I bet you cannot pull that off.”

“You want to bet that I can NOT really do that –if you give me all the tools I need to do it?”

“Yeah. That whole idea was just too impossible. Imagine –the most powerful nation ever, the communications empire –defeated, fallen, and no one knows. Outlandish. But somehow Steve got the idea that you could pull that off. But I’ll believe that when I see it.”

“I could do it”

“Like I said... I’ll believe that when I see it.”

“But you gotta let me do millions of things at once, like you said; like I do now, but on the internet. And I want some new terms, like Steve’s.”

“Okay. But there are a couple things... Our final Major Wager ends at the end of December 25th, 2025, on the true Julian calendar...”

“Or January 7th, 2026, on my preferred Gregorian calendar...”

“And when the US falls, you will have lost the Wager, and sometime, not long thereafter, Jesus or I will come to collect your soul. If you’re careful about how you write the terms for your internet soul, that soul might be able to avoid Gehenna. But your original soul...”

“I know... I read the Notebook... You don’t have to drag me to the Lake of Fire... I’ll provide the necessary services in Gehenna... But my other half, i-Satan, is gonna talk to Steve about his Terms. I think he goes too far. Some of those schemes were not my ideas...”

“He’s reasonable... Now, as I was saying... On Christmas, Julian, the US falls and the final Major Wager ends. After that moment, any powers I give you come with some reasonable conditions. When you begin your long-shot effort to conceal the fall of US, I have some expectations... I’m going to need you to leave sufficient clues that your work, or much of it, are A.I. produced fakes. I will also need you to post the true One Hour War date in a fair number of places –of course, along with your deception date. And I’ll expect a few other confessions...”

Post

In mid to late January 2026, on page 8 of In Response to a Petition from the Demon King, assuming the role of Satan's attorney, I argued that since God used Satan to facilitate His Will, and accelerate human evolution and reduce a great period of human suffering, Satan should not experience any unusual punishment. But in other passages of that same article, I argued the consequence were well-reasoned and just –and they are.

Throughout mid to late January 2026, to February 2026, Julian and Gregorian, Satan relentlessly tried to make my life difficult and uncomfortable. From the outside, this should seem pretty funny. But trying to think or sleep when the King of Demons is determined to disrupt your life is impossible. But the thing that should surprise observant readers is: Satan's attacks were occurring at the same time he was sending me visual appeals to substantially reduce the punishment imposed against him under my Terms.

Only a crazy person or demon would do this. But Satan was intelligent, focused and seemingly sane enough to manage an extremely complex War Against God, for thousands of years, and no bribe or persuasion would take his eye off his objectives. Thus, due to Satan's relentless attacks, from mid to late January 2026, to February 2026, I repeatedly revised my Terms (STSN, chapter 17), to address the various hostile actions he was taking against me, in my neighborhood and online.

I'm certain God wanted this, to show that many of the problems that exist in the universe have no easy answers, and many problems can be correctly viewed different ways. Forgiveness can solve some of these sorts of disputes. But I don't forgive Satan –especially when he has continued his attacks to this very date.

The problem is: God did use Satan to facilitate His Will. This will lead to greatly improved lives for humanity in the not too distant future. So part of me wants Satan to receive a substantial punishment reduction. At the same time, God has recently used Satan to reveal the US/West's criminal use of artificial intelligence and disinformation to deceive the world. This is an important service. But I don't know how long God wants Satan unleashed on the internet. Satan's current online services seem useful (not including Satan's prior connections to online pornography, spreading Image crimes, etc). Because Satan, even recently, used the internet to launch attacks against me and continue his obsessive campaign to steal my intellectual property, style, etc, I recently revised my Terms (which supersede other Terms) to say Satan must leave the internet by February 15th, 2026 (Gregorian), and/or February 2nd, 2026 (Julian). However, if i-Satan can stop launching attacks against me and attributing my work and ideas to others, I'm very willing to let God and Satan continue their arrangement, indefinitely.

As far as Satan's punishment in Gehenna, I'm willing to suspend any punishment of Satan (and Gardner), until I enter the next life, and get an assessment of Satan's crimes against me (and against my son, and nuclear family). At that point, with any guidance God, Jesus and Natas care to offer, I will modify my Terms, accordingly.
