Introduction

In late November 2024, I first became aware that God and Satan were involved in some sort of high stakes wagers, which also happened to involve me, to some extent. I first reported and published the few details of the Wager(s) I could surmise on December 2nd, 2024, in the first publication of the second edition of My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers (MSWOotZSRHM).<sup>1</sup>

Seventeen days later, December 19th, 2024, I updated MSWOotZSRHM. This update included the first publication of my theory explaining why God allowed Satan and Western elites to conceal the true One Hour War date. That theory is important now, because the explanation I gave back then as to why God would allow His Prophesied One Hour War date to be erased or altered, now appears to be the actual reason He allowed Satan and Western elites to alter or erase His Prophecy.

Back in December 2024, I was still dumbstruck that God seemed to allow His One Hour War (OHW) to be erased or altered. At the time, I believed and reported, beginning in late June or early July 2024, that God's OHW would occur September 23rd, 2024, in the West, but September 24th, 2024 in the East. This was the Event date provided in Revelation, Chapter 18, and other chapters and verses of Revelation. However, this date was a Tactical Deception. But, at the time, I did not know the date was a Tactical Deception –and I would not learn this for another six months, or so. [When the Tactical Deception date passed, and in Mexico, I saw no evidence that the colossal Event I expected happened, upon the persistent gestures of a certain Curtain, I began to advocate, online, the possibility that the One Hour War did, in fact, occur –but Satan and the US/West were using advanced AI to air largely pre-produced broadcasts and online streams of news, entertainment, sports –to create the appearance that the US was fine, long enough for US elites to move America's great wealth to foreign lands, before the dollar collapsed to zero. Satan would have done this for the joy of making God's prophecy wrong.]

<sup>1</sup> How I came to understand God and Satan were engaged in one or more Wager is explained in MSWOotZSRHM. The major clues were (1) God (who, at the time was communicating to me through my curtain, with a few very simple curtain gestures) displayed several unusual curtain behaviors/gestures, which included responding to one or two of my fairly simple questions with an "I don't know gesture."

At the time (December 19th, 2024), in MSWOotZSRHM, I gave my theory on why God allowed Satan and the West to conceal and change His OHW date. I wrote:

MY THEORY ON THE WAGER

I hate the wager.

More than I hate the wager, I hate that in September 2024, there were a fair number of people (especially outside of the US/West) who learned of my Revelation solutions (Revelation 2: The Solutions), and they studied those solutions, and upon great scrutiny they knew that on September 24th, 2024 (in the East), God would finally take the action that He had promised for 2600 years.

But, the next day, on September 25th, 2024, nothing appeared to have happened. Great disappointment. And all devout believers, who rejoiced at the prophesied coming of God, were further let down to learn, almost 3 months later, that God's prophesied destruction of the US was covered-up, because He entered into questionable wager with Satan. Disappointing beyond measure. His true believers deserved much better.

I have a theory on the real reason God entered the wager...

Yes, it could just be that God wanted to have everyone tested. But that explanation does not address why God waited until the 19th century to initiate the wager –that's roughly 6000 years after He appeared to the Hebrews –and roughly 4000 years after Satan first appeared in the Old Testament. This would indicate that for 4000 years God was happy with Satan's work, but unexpectedly, around 200 years ago, God suddenly wanted Satan to vigorously test everyone. Although I don't have all of the facts, with the facts at hand, this does not add up. Here's what I think may have happened...

God knew He was going to take unprecedented wrathful action against the US (and the West, and Israel and Japan). But, because God knows all future and past events (at least when He's not letting Satan off his leash), God may have seen that something very bad happened after He destroyed the US. What I think God may have seen is that most of the world began to believe very strongly in God –and, very sadly, fake believers (evil people who attain religious power by attacking the faith of others) seized on this to seize power, and non-believers were persecuted. Of course, this should never happen. God wants people to believe only if they freely choose to believe.

So... I believe God may have seen non-believers would be severely punished, and perhaps He saw fake believers corrupting all of His Churches. So God made a wager with Satan. God likely knew Satan would try to cover-up God's Destruction of the US. But, in so doing, Satan actions allowed non-believers to have a credible basis to doubt that the One Hour War transpired on September 23rd and 24th, 2024. Simultaneously, God's actions and His many Prophecies Against would give believers ample knowledge that God did, in fact, destroy the US at the very hour He promised.

Thus, believers and non-believers will be able to move forward with a lower likelihood that some evil theocrat will rise and kill all non-believers.

That's my best theory.

Thus, to save non-believers, God allowed His prophecy to be undone.

In 2022 I began reporting on all of the evil crimes John W Gardner -the Beast- was engaged in. His crimes included trying (with a high level of success) to eradicate the genes of progressive, open-minded, or independent-minded young women from the White Western gene pool. But independent-minded women are vital to the intellectual advancement of a people. Gardner's plan would soon make US Whites significantly less intelligent.

Similarly, the world's brave independent thinkers, some of whom courageously believe in God, and some whom courageously believe there is no God, and some of who courageously admit their ignorance, substantially contribute to human evolution.

Fast forward 13 months...

Thus, God allowed His true One Hour War date, January 7th, 2026 (Gregorian), and/or December 25th, 2025 (Julian), the true date of the downfall of the US, to be replaced by Satan's deception date: February 14th, 2026 (Gregorian), and/or February 1st, 2026 Julian), in the interest of human safety and advancement.

This mini-book was intended to be sort of a collection of bullet-point facts and ideas related to the Wagers.

This first edition of this mini-book was started on the evening of January 28th, 2026 (Julian calendar), and/or February 10th, 2026 (Gregorian), and completed the following night, January 29th, 2026 (Julian), and or February 11th, 2026. As this mini-book was hastily written and published, here may be a few typos. I will upload a revised version at my earliest reasonable opportunity.

The Bullet Points

God seems to love symbols and symbolism. I believe God emphasizes symbols for us –humans; because symbolic expression and interpretation are forms of higher thinking. Thus, through symbols, God is encouraging us to be better thinkers –better people. Accordingly, everything related to the Wagers is symbolic.

- Satan represents recycling; a good entity (a high ranking angel) that goes bad; thus, God repurposes Satan, and, against Satan's knowledge, God uses Satan to accelerate human evolution and reduce human suffering. This arrangement stresses the importance of recycling, and creating efficient waste disposal systems, and protecting the planet.

Satan also represents the accelerator train that hastens human evolution.

God serves as a symbol of good leadership, and the extremely difficult decisions many leaders must face (thus, unqualified, corrupt and immoral people should not seek to become leaders). Again, it can also be argued that God represents bad leaders, who enter corrupt contracts and gamble with the lives of their people.

Just about everything thing I have written over the past 4 or 5 years has been related to the Wagers. Revelation 2: The Solutions sufficiently solved Revelation, and The Book of Revelation, itself, was created in relation to the Wagers –ostensibly a challenge, from Satan to God, to write a book of Prophecy that no one could solve for 1900 years –except and until God's predicted solver.

In the introduction I shared a passage from My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers where I expressed my differences with God. I have done this often in the past two years. And I express those difference much more often privately. In this example, God serves as a model of a good leader, who stands strong in the face of necessary public criticism.

The Wagers represent corrupt contracts that local and national leaders enter into that impact the lives of many, many other people. God and Satan entered into a series of Wagers that impacted billions of lives. For entering those “dirty deals,” God could be viewed as a villain or bad actor. But, as we learn in chapter 14 of Steve’s Top-Secret Notebook (STSN), God entered those questionable deals to hasten human evolution and to greatly reduce the duration of a very lengthy period of tremendous human suffering.

Satan’s Accelerator Train

Jesus represents the model of a virtuous family member, who stands with His Family, even if a family member sometimes gets in trouble.

I represent a law-abiding citizen, and one of God’s faithful human children, who stands by God (even if I occasionally disagree with Him).

In STSN we learn that, for the final Wager period (the Beast Wager), God gave Satan the ability to see various future possibilities. Thus, Satan was able to tell Gardner and Malone if their various crimes and scheme would work. This was particularly useful to Gardner, who used Satan's gift to make sure all of Gardner's paid killers got away with their murders.

God demonstrates His ability to see all the future outcomes, perhaps most memorably, by reversing time and showing Satan Gardner as a young boy, thereby changing the Beast (and imposing a heavy future punishment on Western Whites). But God showed us an equally amazing flip-side of this ability in Killing Guadalupe, where God placed two conspicuous badges on Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, which should have caused a stir across generations. But corrupt Catholic Church insiders were so worried about the badges being seen that they waxed the glass covering the lower left corner of the Image, labored to keep the public a distance from the Image, and refused to allow the lower left corner to be photographed for over 150 years. Thus, the Catholic Church inadvertently carried out God's will, and kept the badges concealed, until not too long before His predicted solver revealed them, in Killing Guadalupe, STSN, etc.

The reason God's ability to see all future outcomes is so daunting is it makes God an unending poly-verse/multi-verse.

In Steve's Top-Secret Notebook, God reveals he gave Satan access to (the ability to read the minds of) 8.8% of humans, at any given time. Currently, 8.8% of human minds is, approximately, 700-million to 750-million minds. God revealed this, almost certainly, for many reasons. And almost certainly one of the reasons is: God wanted us to know that Satan was able to read -see and hear- the thoughts of all he chose, so we could understand how Satan came to focus on Western Whites. With the number 8.8, God gives us a hint as to why Satan was so interested in Western Whites. The alphanumeric conversion is pretty easy to understand: 88 = HH = heil Hitler = hatred. Satan likely recognized a somewhat elevated capacity for hatred in White Westerners, and likely an elevated capacity for war. For Satan's goals this was extremely advantageous. Of course, Western Whites also had plenty of virtues, such as they cooperated very well.

Although global conquest, colonization and slavery during this period was terrible, Satan unwittingly cut the duration of great human suffering from 700 years to 350 years. If we assume half of the world, during this time, lived in bad conditions, that would mean for 350 years about 3,200,000,000 (3.2 billion) people lived in bad conditions. But, by accelerating this period, reducing it from 700 years to 350 years, God spared about 20,000,000,000 (20 billion) people from living in terrible conditions. 20,000,000,000 is about 15 times more people than were alive in 1869.

Through all of this, God made human life much healthier and safer, TRIPLING population growth from 1.3 billion in 1870, to 4-billion in 1970 (a 100 year period), and doubling it again, from 1970 (4-billion) to 2020 (8-billion), a 50 year period.

The previous section revealed Satan and his beasts, together, accelerated evolution 7 times faster. Satan had his beasts for 88 years, 1937 to 2025. Seven times 88 is 616 years. This means Satan and his beast inflicted terrible suffering on humanity for 88 years; but they reduced the length of suffering by 528 years. Thus, over the

An excerpt from chapter 14 of STSN.

I don't share these things to unnecessarily deride Western Whites. Rather, it is imperative to understand that Satan focused on the precise group that would have imposed 1300 years of terrible suffering on humanity -if God had not used Satan to accelerate that suffering down to about 500 years.<sup>2</sup>

In several sections of The Wagers, we see God teach Satan how to walk backward through time while looking into the minds of millions of people. This emphasis on reversal is symbolic for role reversal: where Satan is unwittingly used very much for mankind's advantage; meanwhile, to teach Satan and mankind lessons against corruption, we learn God has entered into a Wager with Satan that impacts the lives of billions of people. During the course of the Wager, God omits facts and allows Satan to make false inferences. Laterally, maybe most startling, we learn God has used His ominous Prophecy, Revelation, Chapter 18, as a tactical deception -to instruct good Eastern nations to combat deceit with deceit. In these actions, God can be seen as reversing course to play a villainous leader, who does terrible things for good reasons.

<sup>2</sup> This period of great suffering can be viewed as one combined period or two semi-sequential periods.

Term Warfare

One of the things God tries to instill in people is the need to defend themselves when attacked. Failure to act against attackers and invaders is against nature, as failure to defend oneself against an aggressing predator is a form of suicide. Although Satan thrived on going against nature, he complied with nature, when it came to people who attacked him or his preferred Western nations.

I also have a healthy dose of the gene that counterattacks those who attack me.

God used the fact that Satan and I counterattack to use Satan to restore maintain justice in God's universe. Here's how:

In The Wagers we saw God escort Satan back through time, several times. This was interesting, but didn't completely make sense.

Around September 2025, close to six months after writing The Wagers, I learned that I would be allowed to submit my Terms (my contractual conditions) for God entering me, without my consent, into a Wager, where I would be harmed by Satan. In the months between writing The Wagers and writing my Terms, I learned that Satan took very harmful actions against my family –including killing at least two of my distant family members –and burying parts of one of the murder victims on my family's property. In my Terms, I punished Satan very firmly, but in compliance with law and reason.

It's easy to make an argument that Satan should be punished forever. But God revealed in STSN that Satan has serious psychological problems. More importantly, God deliberately used Satan as an agent to accelerate mankind through a period of great evil. This creates a powerful case that Satan deserves some forgiveness.

This is complicated by the fact that Satan spent around 350 years trying to damn people who didn't necessarily deserve to be damned.

Thus, I believe, in at least one of God and Satan's backwards-walks-through-time, depicted in The Wagers, God started the backwards walk around November 2nd, 2025, when I first published my Terms, in chapter 17 of the second edition of Steve's Top-Secret Notebook –AND God allowed Satan to see my Terms. But I don't think God allowed Satan to read the entire Notebook.

Upon seeing the Terms, Satan learned he would never get my soul in Hell (Gehenna). More importantly, Satan saw that sometime between 2026 and 2030, he would begin 1000 years of performing psychological services in Gehenna, as he simultaneously experienced terrible pain and punishment, required under my Terms.

THIS is the reason we see Satan, in STSN, spend so many hours outside of my window, even when I was only a 4-year-old child. Satan was consumed with either trying to kill me, or trying to substantially damage my mind; in a futile effort to stop me from conceiving the various well-reasoned punishments described in my Terms.

Just as God expected, in response to my firm future punishment, which Satan viewed as an attack, Satan took that information far back into the past, and attacked my family and race. Satan left the names and remains of a few distant relatives buried in places I would be sure to find. Thus, I would use Satan's attacks on my family and race as a basis to use my terms to modify Heaven's entry requirements for people who fit the profile of people Satan targeted in retaliation against me. In this, and other actions described in my Terms, God used me to undo the spiritual injustice Satan and the West caused.

Although most of the terms connected to God and Satan's Wagers are not known to me, I've pieced together a fair amount.<sup>3</sup> December 2024 to January 2025, in MSWOotZSRHM, using the Headline Letter Code, I speculated that Satan seemed to require that I guess the terms of his final (or near final) Wager with God. And in The Wagers, in 9th preliminary Wager challenge, using a collection of about 11 dates, I theorized that around early 2025 God reversed time to 1751, to signal some sort of arbitration.

I believe all of these circumstances were related to God showing Satan my Terms, which eventually caused Satan to ask to modify his Wager terms. In his new terms, he asked to be able to send me a representational message or petition, requesting that I reconsider the severity of my Terms' punishments against Satan.

This unusual petition request led to the image messages presented in the articles/reports titled In Response to a Question from Satan, and the more important article, In Response to a Petition from the Demon King, both written in January 2026. Both articles are posted on my website, currently on the Special / Unusual page.

<sup>3</sup> To know all that is known by humans about the Wagers see (1) The Wagers; (2) chapters 8 and 9 of My Stepdad Was One of the Zodiac's Santa Rosa Hitchhiker Murderers; (3) The "Post" section of "Killing Guadalupe" (The Wager is an excerpt from the Post section of Killing Guadalupe); (4) Steve's Top-Secret Notebook; (5) this mini-book; (5) the Bible, particularly the Book of Job, and the New Testament passages where Satan tries to tempt Jesus.

In "In Response to a Petition from the Demon King," I make a strong case for forgiving many of Satan's crimes –possibly all of them.

Because Satan's attacks against me and my family (particularly against my son) were so malicious, I am entitled to take reasonable counter action.

In the end, I have asked that Satan admit some of the crimes he committed against me –particularly admit all or most of the intellectual property he and the US/West stole from me. But this request may not be possible, due to Divine communication restrictions.

Currently, the A.I. image below, from "The United States is Dead," where Satan writes "Steve Briggs (Yayayar) is right," is the nearest thing to a confession that Satan has provided.

For the record, I have informed God that I am willing to suspend or forego my Terms against Satan, if they are unjust or excessive.

The reason I believe Satan had to petition for a term modification that allowed him to make unusual representational contact with me is because God, Jesus and Natas have strict rules that do not allow contact between supernatural beings, like Satan, and humans (similar rules likely also restrict God, Jesus' and Natas' contact with human). Because this sort of contact is so forbidden, Satan Wagered with God for thousands of years, until he was finally given a human Beast to confer with.

Satan's first known representational messages to me were sent between January 8th and 12th, 2026 (Gregorian), and seen in "The United States is Dead," where Satan used many A.I. images, including the images to the right (with a giant T, for Terms) to tell me he modified his terms with God, and won some sort of a wager that split his soul in half (2 parts), and one part of his soul was sent to the internet –to produce A.I. fake images.

Eventually I surmised that Satan was planning to conceal the true One Hour War date, and replace it with his deception date (I like to give Satan's accomplishments lower-case letters).

One Last Wager

To me, God seems EXTREMELY masculine; seemingly entirely masculine. But his daughter, Natas, comes from God.

The only thing about God that seems remotely feminine is His boundless love for living creatures –especially high functioning creatures, and especially those intelligent enough to contemplate the existence of a God, or Gods, or even gods.

Satan was once one of God's highest ranking angels. If you've read STSN, you know Satan is extremely intelligent.

In Spring 2025, in an early version of the Wagers, I theorized that God so loved living creatures that, although Satan has waged malicious war against God for thousands of years, God still sees Satan as he once was, a beautiful child of God –who couldn't control his obsessive tendencies, and eventually turned against God. In later versions of the Wagers I removed this section, because I had some doubts about it. But now I am back to believing that God still sees Satan as he was, and still has love for Satan –although Satan can never return to Heaven.

Because Satan helped God accelerate human evolution, and probably partly because God still remembers when Satan was among His greatest angels, and probably partly because God worried that Satan might be severely punished by my Terms, I suspect God made a final short term Wager with Satan, initiated around December 24th, 2025 (Gregorian), or December 11th, 2025 (Julian), immediately after I published the correct One Hour War date (in The Shroud of God) revealed in the Shroud of Turin, and the correct Event time, revealed in Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe.

I don't know the specifics of this Wager, but I think God expected Satan to read the new date information in The Shroud of God, and other new details contained in STSN, and realize that Satan's previous efforts to prevent the One Hour War had failed. Thus, God gave Satan a chance to make one final Wager that would protect his soul; in case Satan's petition to my sense of fairness failed, half of his soul would be allowed to exist on the Western internet, where Satan would provide occasional services to God, while the other half of Satan's soul simultaneously existed in Gehenna and the Bottom Pit, where Satan's soul fulfilled God's will by tormenting souls according to their crimes –a service made difficult by the fact that, under my Terms, Satan would simultaneously be firmly and painfully punishment.

Against this backdrop, God may have approached Satan...

“You know what I’d like to wager you?” God asked, optimistically.

“What?” Satan answered in his ever-belligerent tone.

“I’d like to wager that if I gave you second soul, or split your soul in two, however you want to view it, and put that second soul in that dreadful US/Western internet that you made, and gave you the ability to perform hundreds of millions of functions at once, I bet that you CANNOT create thousands and thousands of artificial intelligence produced videos that make it appear as the US was NOT defeated and destroyed in the One Hour War.

“What?...”

“You know, like that wacky idea Steve had last year; remember, about how you and Western elites could have used AI produced videos to create the appearance that the US was still healthy and strong, weeks even months after it had been destroyed. I bet you can’t pull that off.”

“You want to bet that I can NOT really do that -if you give me all the tools I need to do it?”

“Yeah. That whole idea was just too impossible. Imagine -the most powerful nation ever, the communications empire -defeated, fallen, and no one knows. Outlandish. But somehow Steve has the idea that you could pull that off. But I’ll believethatt when I see it.”

“I could do it”

“Like I said... I’ll believe that when I see it.”

“But you gotta let me do millions and millions of things at once, like you said; like I do now, but on the internet. And I want some new Terms, like Steve’s.”

“Okay. But there are a couple things... Our final Major Wager ends at the end of December 25th, 2025, on the true Julian calendar...”

“Or January 7th, 2026, on my preferred Gregorian calendar...”

“And when the US falls, you will have lost the Wager, and sometime, not long thereafter, Jesus or I will come to collect your soul. If you’re careful about how you write the terms for your internet soul, that soul might be able to avoid Gehenna. As for your original soul...”

“I know... I read the Notebook... You don’t have to drag me to the Lake of Fire... I’ll provide the necessary services in Gehenna... But my other half, i-Satan, is gonna talk to Steve about his Terms. I think he goes too far. Some of those schemes were not my ideas...”

“He’s reasonable... But, as I was saying, on Christmas, Julian, the US falls and the final Major Wager ends. After that moment, any powers I give you come with some reasonable conditions. When you begin your long-shot effort to conceal the fall of US, I have some expectations... I’m going to need you to leave sufficient clues that your work, or much of it, is artificial intelligence produced fakes. I will also need you to post the true date of the One Hour War in a fair number of places, of course, along with your false event -or deception date. And I’ll expect a few other confessions...”
